ON MOTOR TRIP
Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Kann, of North Second street, left this morning for a week's motoring trip through Southern Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. They will be absent about a week.

HEADACHES
HEADACHES are frequently the result of Eye Strain, not a disordered stomach as many suppose. Eye Strain is the primary cause of nine-tenths of all headaches and, powders and drugs only aggravate rather than remove the cause. Properly-fitted glasses will likely remove the cause and the trouble disappears. At any rate, consult a thoroughly skilled Optician or Ophthalmologist, where service is paramount. Rest-glasses may be all you need. If you don't need glasses, we'll tell you so.

STEELTON POSTPONE PLANS FOR BIG SEWER

Unsettled Conditions Cause Delay in Big Improvement Project

A scarcity of labor and unsettled conditions have made necessary a temporary postponement of plans to build a new intercepting sewer to drain the entire upper end of the borough and the West Side, it was learned to-day.

Several bids which were received from contractors who desired the job of building the new system have been returned unopened to the bidders. None of the proposals were opened, so that when council, the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Bethlehem Steel Company are in a position to go ahead with the work the bids may again be submitted should the contractors so desire.

E. C. Henderson, chairman of the highway committee, is busy on plans for having paving on Front street repaired. Negotiations which have been carried on for several months between borough officials and the United States Wood Block Preserving Company, New York, have reached a deadlock and council has authorized filing of a suit to compel the contractors to repair the blocks.

With this end in view a survey of the street has been made by Nelson P. Lewis, a consulting engineer and expert on paving matters, and council has been advised that in case of a suit the probabilities favor the borough's winning.

Chairman Henderson declared this morning that should repairs not be made before next council meeting, he will likely ask that the blocks be repaired before cold weather and the company be sued to recover the expenses incurred.

Complete Plans For Sunday School Sessions Outdoors

Arrangements have been completed for the first open-air session of the Union Sunday school service on the campus of the Steelton High school Sunday morning, to take the place of regular sessions closed by the State Health Department's order against paralytic.

The Rev. A. K. Wier, pastor of Centenary U. B. Church, will have charge of the devotional services and the Rev. George N. Lauffer, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church will teach the lessons. Sessions will open at 9 o'clock and will be open to all adults over 15 years. Arrangements have been made to seat 500 people.

START FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Although opening of the local schools has been postponed, preparations are being made for starting the football season. Coach Taggart announced yesterday that preliminary practice of the High School squad will be started Tuesday afternoon on Cottage Hill field. Captain Crowley and some have a good-sized squad and some good material is in view. The season will open September 20 at Lancaster with Stevens Trade School.

One Killed When Ore Car Is Jolted by Train on Trestle at Steel Plant

Shot through the hopper of an ore car, which he and a number of fellow-workmen were unloading on a trestle in the blast furnace department of the Steelton Iron Works, last night, William Lutz, aged 19, was thrown across a rail and decapitated. The steel magnate's nephew, a fellow-employee, had his left hand crushed and several other men were badly shaken. All the injured were colored laborers.

The accident occurred when a draft of cars, in charge of Charles Robinson and Robert Baldwin, struck the car in which the negroes were working, shoving them through the hopper.

Lutz's body was turned over to Undertaker H. Witt's sons and will be shipped to Williamsport, Md., for burial this evening. Coroner Jacob Eckinger will investigate the accident this evening. An inquest will not likely be necessary, he said this morning.

Schwab Buys Danville Plant as Bridal Gift For Nephew

Danville, Pa., Sept. 1. — Charles M. Schwab, Carleton Schwab Wagner, his nephew and Sam C. Rebmam, the latter of Danville, to-day concluded negotiations for the purchase from Thomas E. Price and William G. Pursell, of the Danville Structural Tubing Company, a local iron mill. While the new owners will not announce their ultimate plans, they state that it is their intention to increase greatly the property with new capital and that the present plant will be made the nucleus of one of the largest iron and steel manufacturing plants in the Susquehanna Valley.

C. S. Wagner will be the president and general manager of the new concern and S. C. Rebmam will be vice-president and treasurer. Mr. Wagner is a graduate of Lehigh University, class of 1915. He was recently married, and while it has not been so announced, the purchase of the Danville mill is looked on as a wedding present from the steel magnate to his nephew.

The sale includes, besides the mill, all other real estate of the company here, consisting of a number of tenement houses and office buildings. The purchase price was not made public, but it is understood to be in the neighborhood of $300,000.

RAILROAD NEWS MAMMOTH CRANE ON REGULAR DUTY

Reading Monster Gives Satisfaction; Harrisburg Gets Old Equipment

The new wrecking crane received by the Reading sometime ago is now in charge of Wreck Master William Rank at Reading. It weighs 220 tons and has a lifting capacity of 150 tons. It is strictly modern in every respect. All of the levers are operated by air. The monster has been at the locomotive shop ever since its arrival where the machinery was examined by the men who will have charge of its operation with a view of familiarizing themselves with the new ideas.

The old wreck cranes used by the Reading crew comes to the Harrisburg division and the one on the Harrisburg division goes to the Shamokin division. The Wilmington and Columbia division gets the one now at Tamaqua.

TIRED LOOKING WOMEN

Some women always wear a worn, tired look. It is the outward sign of nervousness, neurasthenia, perhaps, with its characteristic symptoms of worry, headaches and sleeplessness. Overwork, grief, undue excitement, the late hours and nervous strain of a strenuous social season, lack of outdoor exercise, any or all of these may be responsible for the trouble but the most common cause at this season of the year is the grip.

Whatever the cause, if you feel the need of more strength try the great non-alcoholic tonic, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood the treatment must be directed toward building up the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and with proper regulation of the diet have proved of the greatest benefit in many cases of neurasthenia. A tendency to anemia, or bloodlessness, shown by most neurasthenic patients, is also corrected by these tonic pills. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50.

Write for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and a diet book. Address: Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.
