Alas, Poor Hector! When Hector was a wee small pup, some well-intending person presented him with a neat little doghouse. However, being a pup, Hector grew—Hector expanded.

Now, he's tied down to a bit of a two-by-two affair and he's worse off than a dog with no house at all.

Lots of us are in Hector's position. How 'bout YOU? Have you outgrown YOUR house, or flat, or rooming quarters, or neighborhood?

Then sit right down, call Bell phone 4100 and tell your requirements to the courteous and capable young lady, who'll place your Want Ad in the Classified columns of the Telegraph.

Your "want" is flashed before 22,000 readers within a few short hours—readers who have the sort of house, or apartment, or room that you're looking for.
