WHITWASH FOR DONAHUE'S UTES

Islanders Show Speed; Huenke Wins Great Dual; Walker Is Wild

Those fighting Utes went away last night with two whitewash defeats chalked up against them. The Islanders used the brushes. The second kalsominer came yesterday in a thrilling duel between Huenke and Walker. The latter thinks he is a champ because he won the Tuesday game. Huenke showed him how to pitch.

The best Utica could do was a hit in inning for five innings. Something like a stonewall was back of the local twirler and if one ball did get away other hits were snatched from the fringe area in a sensational manner.

Walker is wild but he too had a fast fielding back of him. Mills was the local hitting star. His two bagger in the fourth started the trouble. Elliott sacrificed and Walter Blair directed a fly ball to rightfield that allowed Mills to score. In the sixth Downey was passed. Gough sacrificed and Mills singled scoring the third sacker who cleared the plate notwithstanding this bad pair of leats.

PITT MEN WORK UNDER WARNER

Varsity Players Out Early; New Men Keep Busy; Need Good Punter

Special to the Telegraph
Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 8. — The football squad of the University of Pittsburgh, which last year divided honors with Cornell in the struggle for the collegiate championship, began active preparations for the 1916 season this week. On Tuesday Coach Warner led his men to the training camp in Somerset county, near Windber, and on the following day the first practice was held. Six lettermen and a half dozen substitutes from last year's squad are missing, but in their places the coach has seven or eight men who starred on the 1915 freshman team, or who were unable to take part in football last year.

Many Varsity Men

There are about 35 men in the varsity aggregation, which includes 17 players who won the varsity letter in 1914 or 1915. Almost all the athletes reported in excellent physical condition, and it is probable that Coach Warner will institute regular scrimmages within a few days.

Special to the Telegraph

Peacock's record was made here yesterday when St. Frisco won the classic Charter Oak stake for 2:08 trotters after six of the most exciting heats of light harness racing ever witnessed at Charter Oak Park. The second heat was declared by the judges a dead heat, the time 2:07 1/2, displacing the world's record set in 1904 on the Brighton Beach track, New York, when the famous Marie and Aristo raced a dead heat in 2:08 1/2. The other record established was the fastest six-hat race, the average time for the six heats being 2:07 1/2, against 2:07 1/2 set at Lexington, Ky., in 1910, in a race won by Spanish Queen.

Bits From Sportland

Huenke is some pitcher. Blair was moving with precision yesterday. That boy Mills is always there when needed. He handles the bat nicely. He has had little time to size up the pitchers and looks like a comer. Two whitewash victories. Manager Donahue did take kindly to the results. Listen to Cook. He is there with the orders and a regular second man. Never too late. He was cheated out of several hits because of typographical errors. He will get them officially. There is no denying McConnell's ability. Erusky got ugly with the ump. He was put off the field. He moved too slow and umpire pulled the watch on him. McConnell was notified. He called out, "fine him $25 but don't take the game away from us. A fan yelled, "you never had this game."

Humble Boston in Two Thrilling Pitcher Duels; at New York Today

Special to the Telegraph
Boston, Mass., Sept. 8. — Open water and lots of it gaped between Pat Moran's Phillies and second place when the sun sank over the Charles river last evening. There was noticeable locally a great falling off in the rush to get orders in for world's series tickets.

Wins Two With Ease

He allowed but five hits, and, encourage, by wonderful fielding, he was never in danger. Golf Titleholder Winner Over Atlanta Boy Champion

Special to the Telegraph
Philadelphia, Sept. 8. — Youth was served with defeat yesterday in the national amateur golf tournament at Merion, but not until his name was graven indelibly on the tablets of American golf history. Young Bobby Jones, aged 14, from Atlanta, with the scalps of Eb Byers and Frank Dyer, doughty golfers both, dangling from his belt, teed off against the reigning amateur golfer of the time in his third round, and it was too large an order for the young 'un. At 3:21 p. m. a beautiful putt from a far corner of the green brought Gardner to the very rim of the cup, and when he sank it for a five the match was his, for it was the thirty-third hole, and halving it kept the champion's lead four up.

Mike O'Neill with his Syracuse champions are here to-day and tomorrow. They wind up the season at Island Park. With odds against him Manager O'Neill developed a wonderful baseball team and the congratulations are due him and his entire bunch.

Red Calhoun has been given the pink slip as manager for Binghamton. For some reason unknown to the backers of the team Calhoun was unable to keep his team going at a regular pace. There has been trouble in Binghamton and it looks as if the popular manager is the "goat." Calhoun has been trying to get out of the game for sometime. He has little hope for minor leagues unless there is a prolonged wave of prosperity over the country.

An Associated Press dispatch from Philadelphia to-day says: "Chick Evans, of Chicago, the national open title holder, met D. Clarke Corkran, of Baltimore, while in Binghamton, another Chicagoan, the present title holder, played Jesse Guilford, the Massachusetts champion, in the semifinal matches for the amateur golf championship of the United States yesterday afternoon. Evans' wonderful ability in match play made him a favorite in the betting but each of the three other contestants had numerous supporters. A large gallery of spectators was present when the players teed off for the morning round. Eighteen holes were played this morning and another eighteen will be played this afternoon. The final match for the championship will be played to-morrow."

Under the parliamentary regime the presence of men not members of parliament in the government is not looked upon with favor. Premier Briand was obliged to overcome considerable resistance in order to get the chamber of deputies to accept such specialties as General Gallieni in the war department and Admiral Lacaze at the head of the navy.

The administration has no use for savants," is a remark attributed to bureaucrats of the war and navy departments. Both those portfolios have been held by civilians at most critical periods of the history of the Third Republic.

Previous to the Rouvier administration in 1905, there had always been a soldier at the head of the war department and a remark attributed to administrators of Charles de Freycinet, who was, however, a technician of the highest competence. Since that period the departments have been in the hands of civilians seven years out of eleven.

The navy department has been administered by a naval officer only three years out of the last twenty. The rest of the time it was in the hands of lawyers or journalists.
