President Judge Kunkel Hands Down Comprehensive Opinion in Zinn Case

REFUSES TRIAL IN WILL ACTION

In a brief opinion handed down to-day President Judge Kunkel refused the petition for judgment in spite of the verdict and for a new trial in the action decided some months ago in the suit brought by Catherine Marshall against the Central Trust company, administrator for Catherine Zinn. Mrs. Marshall, who is a niece of Mrs. Zinn, was willed some mortgage bonds by the former for services rendered during the older woman's illness. The Trust company, however, refused to pay over the interest pending a decision of the court and the jury decided that the company should pay Mrs. Marshall the interest of $38,222.
