 - Thrd gardener.....Miss Margaret McClain
 - Gardener's boy.....Miss Eleanor Earle
 - Tenor, a hired singer.....Mrs. Roy G. Cox
 - Love, a statue.....Miss Nell Payne

One of the features of the amateur performance of "Prunella" or "Love in a Dutch Garden," which the above cast will give on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week, September 26 and 27, in the gardens of the Civic Club's home at Front and North streets, will be the singing of "The Serenade" by Mrs. Roy G. Cox. The popularity of the talented local singer at past productions of this sort should prove a big draw for the next week's entertainment. Nor will there be any lack of dancing, for Miss Frances Bailey has improvised steps for the dance at the end of the second act, music for which is Scherzer's "Momen Musicale." The dance will be executed by the mummies.

"Prunella" will be given with permission of William Ames of the Little Theater, New York, where this attractive romantic comedy had such a successful run last year. Heavy royalties were placed on the production, but the enthusiasm of the managers of the play, headed by Miss Dora W. Coe, overcame all obstacles and a substantial gift to the Civic Club made possible the enterprise. A push of the amateur actresses who compose the cast. A big advance sale of tickets makes it advisable that those who desire to reserve seats in the limited space allowed shall secure them at the earliest possible moment from Miss Virginia King, 1605 North Second street; Miss Frances Morrison, 615 North Front street, or Rose's confectionery store.

Miss Trostle Hostess For Lancaster Guest

Miss Mary Trostle, of 123 South Fourteenth street, entertained a number of young people at her home last evening in honor of Miss Margaret Kuzler, of Lancaster, who is visiting here. The guests enjoyed a delightful evening with music and games. A buffet supper was served to Mrs. J. Schnader, Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. Gobin Vollerchamp, Mrs. Christiana, Mrs. Schell, Miss Mary McGeehan, the Rev. Homer Skyles May, Stanley Backenstoss, Robert George, Lewis May, William May, and Mrs. Charles B. Sauer. John Gillan, Russel Zimmerman, Simeon Goodfellow and Mr. Peters.

Mrs. Imogene Kieweg, of Green Bay, Wisconsin, will arrive in the city in a day or two for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Hunter, of 1515 Allison street.

Mrs. M. E. Cathcart and daughter, Miss Bessie Cathcart, are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. William Buehler in Germantown.

Mrs. O. K. Kines of Market street, entertained members of the Thursday Embroidery club, at a corn roast and wienertost at Peters' mountain, yesterday.

Miss Maude Wheeler gave an informal luncheon of ten covers to-day for her guest, Miss Millicent Rogers, of Washington, D. C.

James Hartley and Samuel G. Dolger, of Baltimore, are in the city for a short visit with their cousin, Howard Anderson, of State street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jenkins and small son, Richard T. Jenkins, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Howard of North Third street, for a few days.

Mrs. S. A. Hoffman entertained Mrs. David Swope's Sunday school class yesterday at Tuscarora.

Miss Nolle Richardson was hostess to-day at a small sewing party in honor of her guests, Miss Lucy Deane and Miss Sue Deane, of Washington, D. C.

Prof. Wm. E. Strawinski, a former teacher in the Technical High school with Mrs. Strawinski and their small son, spent several days with his aunt, Mrs. Albra W. Baker, 1433 Market street.

Mrs. A. G. Woodrig, of Renovo, has returned home after visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. H. Heller, of 127 South Fourteenth street.

Dr. Albra W. Baker, 1433 Market street, spent Thursday in Millintown, Pa.

Civic Club Entertains Mothers at Outing

The Harrisburg Civic Club entertained thirty-eight mothers of the summer free milk station and their children, at an outing at Sunshine Park Wednesday, Mrs. Mary Kennedy, Mrs. Mary Bock, Mrs. Mary Brooks, and Mrs. Lucretia Brubaker, four of the mothers assisted Miss Mary Miller, superintendent of the society and Mrs. Ella Sehnor, of Philadelphia, the overseer of the local milk station who had charge of the outing.

Flowers cleverly arranged effected a pretty table arrangement for the luncheon of sandwiches, hot corn, peaches and cake. Addresses by Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones on "Babies of Other Lands," Mrs. William Henderson, President of the Civic club on "Clean Babies," Dr. A. Z. Ritzman, on "Baby Hygiene" and Dr. J. E. T. Oxley, on "Work of the Milk Stations," followed the luncheon.

The Shade of John Harris Has Reason to Be Proud

The opinion seems to be prevalent, judging from the names that have been suggested in letters to the Telegraph for Harrisburg's new hotel, that the name of John Harris ought somehow to be included in the name that shall finally be adopted. "Whether it be Penn-Harris or Harris-Penn, it seems that Harris should be distinctively in the name," writes a citizen this morning. "A fine solution of the problem would be reached if the proprietor of the Harris House would come forward and volunteer to surrender the name of his hotel for use by the new one."

"Cap-Hanna" writes Florence V. Foote, "emphasizes the town as the State's capital, which is our most important object of interest, next to the glorious Susquehanna." Miss Dorothy Harsh wants the hotel to be named any of these following: "Green Willow," "Algonquin," "Capital View," "La Grande," "Liberty," or the "Hotel Populus." Miss Harsh very properly figures that it is to be the hotel of the people of Harrisburg, and should be so designated in the Latin tongue.

"The Citizens' Hotel" is the thought of Miss Lois Booker, and one who wishes to be known simply as "a subscriber" is in favor of "View" as an adequate solution of the problem.

Harrisburg Boy on Border Promoted to Corporal

CORPORAL V. A. STAKLY

Corporal V. A. Stakly, when the Guardsmen were ordered to the border was a private, but has recently been promoted to corporal of Company L, Sixteenth Regiment. He was formerly a Harrisburg boy, working as a printer at the Evangelical Printing Company.

Mrs. Percy Daniels and small son, Richard Daniels, left for their Pittsburgh home this afternoon after a week's stay with relatives in suburban Harrisburg.

Mrs. Charles S. Reback and son, Lawrence Reback, spent the day in the Cumberland Valley.

Miss Marie Gale and Andrew Gale, of Wilkes-Barre, are in town for a few days visiting relatives.

RED LIPS AND HEALTH

The first place that anemia, or thin blood, shows is in the lips and gums and the membranes that line the eye lids. You may be naturally pale and still be healthy but when these membranes lose their bright red color your blood is deficient in quantity or color. Thin blood is a danger. It invites disease. The organisms of the blood fight off disease germs. Thin blood means less power to do this. For instance, when you cut yourself it does not heal so quickly if your blood is thin and weak.

To build up the blood there is one remedy that has been a household word for a generation, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They tone up the entire system, make the blood rich and red, strengthen the nerves, increase the appetite, put color in the cheeks and lips and drive away that unnatural tired feeling. Plenty of sunlight, good wholesome food and fresh air will do the rest.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" give just the information that every mother of a growing girl needs. They are free. Write for them today to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
