Your Chance to Get a Fall Weight Coat and Suit at a Price

Tomorrow, Friday, and Saturday, No. 2 Old-Time Bargain Sale of Fall Weight Coats, Suits, Dresses, Waists & Odds and Ends to Clean Up Effectually

Read Every Word of This Ad if You Want a Medium Weight Coat or Suit at a Bargain

It was too early two weeks ago when we had No. 1 Old-time Bargain to allow these garments to go at such prices. If you examine carefully, you will vote these most Wonderful Bargains, in the face of all materials advancing.

Our large stocks of SUITS, COATS, WAISTS, TOP SKIRTS, SILK PETTICOATS; street, afternoon and evening Frocks and Gowns are crowding and forcing this sale two weeks earlier.

None on approval, laid away nor exchanged. We advertise colors and sizes that you may know just what to expect—if you are here Friday morning at 8 o'clock.

Not one garment will be shown, nor sold, before 8 o'clock Friday morning; beyond that we cannot promise anything, except that what is not sold on Friday will be on sale Saturday at the same prices.

MARYSVILLE MINISTER WEDS IN LITTLESTOWN

REV. AND MRS. RALPH E. HARTMAN

One of the prettiest of autumn weddings was that of Miss Aurelia Hornberger, daughter of William B. Hornberger, of Littlestown, and the Rev. Ralph E. Hartman, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, Marysville. The ceremony was performed in the Reformed Church of the Redeemer at Littlestown by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Stewart Hartman, of Hoffman's Orphanage, assisted by the Rev. Milton Whitener, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large gathering.

Decorations of ferns, cosmos, asters and other fall flowers were used and the bride wore white satin with duchesse lace and pearls. Her tulle veil was crowned with lilies of the valley and she carried a shower of bride roses and lilies. Miss Anna Hartman, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Cora Motter were bridesmaids, and Allan S. Hartman, of this city, and William E. Griffen, of Altoona, attended the groom. The ushers were Alfred Sayres, Owen T. Bricker, John S. Tifer, Stanley M. Mumma, all fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Floyd Hornberger, of Steelton, gave his sister in marriage and Miss Stella K. Menges, of Spring Grove, sang "O Perfect Love."

A reception and wedding supper at the bride's home followed the services in the church and later the newlyweds left for a southern honeymoon. They will be "at home" in Marysville after October 15.

The Rev. Mr. Hartman is a graduate of Mercersburg Academy and Franklin and Marshall College and Seminary. Since his graduation he has been pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, Marysville.
