Approved Fashions in Men's Autumn Clothes

Not the Designing of One Maker, But the Best From America's Leading Tailors

Such a showing of suits as we have gathered this Fall may truly be said to be a representative stock, for it embodies the best styles of many famous tailoring establishments, and expresses more individuality in styling and handicraft and more diversity in patterns, models and colorings.

These are the approved fashions in men's and young men's suits and overcoats. There was no haphazard selection in assembling this stock, no guessing as to what was good style, no taking anybody's "sayso" for it. We first satisfied ourselves of the true status of the clothing situation, and then carefully selected what we knew would have the call. The result—the most inviting display of approved clothes fashions that any man has ever been asked to inspect in Harrisburg.

The Suits at $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00

—are all worthy examples of good fabrics, good styles and good workmanship, assuring the best in clothes value at these prices. Incomparable variety of patterns, styles and colors assures a quick solution of the average man's Fall clothes problem.

Suits at $18.00, $20.00, $25.00 and $30.00

—encompass all that's noteworthy in the essentials of higher-priced clothing. Richness of patterns, quality of fabrics, perfection in fit, dignity and style in cut and design and expert workmanship. All these things combined make for distinctiveness and desirability. These are the things that will make you glad that you bought your new suit here.

What a wealth of patterns and cloths—Mixtures in grey and green and numerous other combinations. Dark grey, green overplaid and other styles in cassimere. Carlton checks, shadow stripe and plain serges. Unfinished blue worsteds, flannels and fancy velours.

A Fine Top Coat at $15.00

Plain black and oxford, grey mixtures, plain grey cassimere, blue homespun and fancy styles in light weight top coats—a splendid value at ..... $15.00
