

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

MISS DECEVEE IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Member of the Younger Set Entertains Prior to Returning to Her Studies

Miss Alice Marie Decevee, daughter of Professor and Mrs. Edwin J. Decevee, of the Harrisburg Conservatory of Music, invited some of her young girl friends to a luncheon this morning at her home prior to resuming her studies at the Ossining School, New York, next week.

In the party were Miss Marian Hean, Miss Mary K. Boas, Miss Helen Vickery, Miss Sara McCulloch, Miss Helen Gurnett, Miss Elizabeth Ross, Miss Helen Hensinger, Miss Martha Fletcher and Miss Eleanor Etter, all of whom took pleasure in fancy work and friendly chat prior to the luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper Thorne and small son George H. Thorne, of Pittsburgh, started for home to-day after a week's visit among relatives in the West End.

DeForrest Lescure, of Second and Briggs streets, has returned to Easton to resume his studies at Lafayette college.

Miss Kathleen Walters and Miss Sara Marie Walters have gone home to Cleveland, O., after visiting their cousin, Miss Edna Houser for a week.

Mrs. William H. Bishop, of Riverside, is home from Lutherville, Md., where her daughter, Miss Esther Bishop has entered Maryland college.

Miss Katharine Silver gave a dinner at her home, 1324 North Sixth street, in compliment to Miss Rebecca Wankley, who will be an Autumn bride.

Mrs. Benjamin E. Long and son, of Landisville, are visiting Mrs. Marie Nicholas, at 216 Herr street.

Miss Pearl E. Johnson, of 2329 North Sixth street was hostess for the Wednesday card club, of which she is a member, at this week's meeting.

James Henry Thomas has gone home to Pittsburgh, after spending several weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. Olive J. Henry, of State street.

Miss Martha M. Tomkinson and her sister, Miss Ellen Tomkinson, are spending a month with relatives in Rehoboth, Del.

HARRISBURG D.A.R. STARTS MEETINGS

Rev. Dr. Appleton Speaks to Patriotic Women on Thursday Afternoon, Oct. 5

A special feature of the first fall meeting of Harrisburg Chapter, D. A. R., next Thursday afternoon, October 5, at 3 o'clock, in assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A., will be an address on "The Relation of War to the Future of a Country" by the Rev. Dr. Floyd Appleton, rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church. Dr. Appleton has spent much time abroad as well as traveling in this country and is especially fitted to speak on this broad subject.

Other numbers of a most interesting program will be a paper on "Molly Pitcher, the Heroine of Monmouth," by Miss Caroline Pearson; a brief account of the recent unveiling of the Molly Pitcher monument in Carlisle, by Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr.; musical numbers by Mrs. Charles H. Hunter and Mrs. Guert W. Ensign, and the election of delegates to the annual State conference, D. A. R., in the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia, Oct. 13, 1916. Harrisburg Chapter is entitled to ten delegates and any of the members who would like to be in the Quaker City at that time may be in the city on Green street, where their name to the regent, Miss Cora Lee Snyder, or the secretary, Mrs. Mary Boyer McCrea.

Pretty Autumn Luncheon With Miss Claire Brown

Artistic appointments of golden brown and yellow made the luncheon of Miss Grace Weaver, given to-day at her home on Green street, one of the prettiest of fall events.

A basket centerpiece of autumn flowers and foliage had yellow and brown ribbons radiating to each corner, ending in corsage bouquets tied in tulle of the same colors.

Ten young girls had the pleasure of meeting Miss Mary P. Clark, of Baltimore, a cousin of the hostess, and hearing her give some clever readings after the feasting.

Thomas Lyter, a student of Princeton Theological Seminary, is a weekend guest of his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph A. Lyter, 1508 Derry street.

Miss Clara Neale, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. George W. Rogers, of Green street.

Mrs. D. Luther Jauss, 111 Boas street, has returned to the city after a several months' visit with her sisters, the Misses Derr, in Lewisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Embury Jackson, of Jersey City, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Jackson, of State street, for a few days.

Miss Anne U. Wert, principal of the Teachers Training school, is home after a trip to the Bermudas.

Miss Amelia Amman of Tarnetown, Md., is the guest of Miss Katharine Silver, 1324 North Sixth street.

DR. CUPP'S HOST TO THE CARNEYS

Dinner of Handsome Appointments at Harrisburg Club Last Evening

Dr. John F. Culp of 410 North Third street entertained at a dinner party last evening at the Harrisburg Club complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Carney who leave Monday for South Bethlehem, where Mr. Carney will be chief metallurgist for the Bethlehem Steel Company.

The dinner appointments with Utley as decorator were unique and cleverly arranged. Autumn tones predominated throughout with dull tinted crotons, unusually wrought candles in rose design on silver dips, showers of autumn tinged leaves, and a gorgeous centerpiece of orchids, sunburst roses and larkspur. The dinner favors for the ladies were quaint colonial bouquets. Covers were laid for fifteen.

Around the table gathered Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Carney, Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robbins, Mrs. Barry Cann, of Orange, N. J., W. Walley Davis, of Chicago and Dr. John F. Culp.

Mrs. Whichello and three children of 2444 Jefferson street left this morning for Buffalo, N. Y., to visit her father, the Rev. Mr. Stone, pastor of a Methodist church in that city.

Mrs. James I. Chamberlin and Miss Jean Bosler Chamberlin leave Monday for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where Miss Chamberlin will enter Vassar college.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Campbell of 2128 North Seventh street with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis of 624 Ross street, attended the Lancaster fair on Thursday.

THIRD SERMON OF SERIES Shiremanstown, Pa., Sept. 30.—Tomorrow evening in Keller Memorial Church the Rev. H. K. Lantz will preach the third of the series of sermons on "The Priceless Pearl."

WIENER ROAST ALONG RIVER New Cumberland, Pa., Sept. 30.—A party of New Cumberland young people, chaperoned by Mrs. D. Y. Lenhart and Mrs. J. W. Wright, hiked to the Kerlin farm Thursday evening, where they attended a wiener roast along the Susquehanna. At two fires wieners, sweet potatoes, corn and apples were roasted and marshmallows toasted and served to the merry crowd. The party included Mrs. Wright, Pauline Wright, Helen Guist-white, Dorothy Lenhart, Alda Snyder, Marjorie McIvor, Mary Kerlin, Esther Kerlin, Ralph Karns, Harold Whitman, Daniel Pyfer, James Dessenberger, F. N. Burns, Frank Kerlin, August Kerlin, Mrs. J. W. Wright, Mrs. D. Y. Lenhart and Mr. and Mrs. Kerlin.

PADEN-GRASS WEDDING New Cumberland, Pa., Sept. 30.—Miss Hattie Grass, of New Cumberland, and Martin Paden were married at Mr. Paden's home at Blosseridge on Thursday. They will live in New Cumberland. Mr. Paden is employed at Steelton.

Miss Ruth Payne, of 1901 North Front street, and Miss Elizabeth Knisely, of Front and McClay streets, motored to Chambersburg to-day.

Mrs. Charles Harlan, of 1329 Vernon street, is home after a visit with relatives in Lebanon.

Mrs. William Kitzmiller and daughter, Miss Blanche Kitzmiller, of 1617 Regina street, have returned home after a motor trip to Chambersburg and Mont Alto.

HOME FROM WIANNO Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Maguire, of 5 South Front street, and children, Miss Susan and Miss Maguire, returned home after spending the months of July, August and a part of September at their summer home at Wianno, Cape Cod.

Mr. and Mrs. William I. Reed, of Palmerton, are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Stucker, of 208 Rely street, of New York.

Mrs. Joseph Brunner and daughters, Miss Madeline and Pauline Brunner, of 1721 Fulton street, are spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shaffer, of New York.

Mrs. Harry E. Fox, of 334 Boyd street, and Mr. and Mrs. John Kirk, of 326 Boyd street, are visiting in Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stultz and children, of Newark, N. J., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Baumman, of North street.

Announce August Bridal of Couple on Vacation

Mrs. Catherine Pierce, of 76 North Eighteenth street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ella Fox Pierce, to Harry Brehm Jacobs, of Loysville, Perry county, now a resident of this city. The wedding took place in the Reformed church of Carlisle with a relative of the bridegroom as officiating clergyman, on August 26. The wedding was made public within the last week, on the return of the young couple supposedly from their vacations but in reality after a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Asbury Park and other resorts in New Jersey. The bride formerly resided with her mother and sisters in Philadelphia, but for the past two years the family have made their home in the Capital City. The bridegroom who is a graduate of the business college at Carlisle is connected with the Bell Telephone Company in the bookkeeping department.

WILKES-BARRE VISITOR

Mrs. G. R. Deatrick, of Wilkes-Barre, is spending the week-end with her father, John W. Alworth, at the home of her sister, Mrs. James A. Hartman, in Summerdale.

R. D. I. SUNSHINE SOCIETY IN ANNUAL MEETING MONDAY

The annual meeting of the Roberta Dabrow Lloyd Sunshine Society will be held Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock in assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A., Second and Locust streets, with the president, Mrs. Homer Black, presiding.

FAMILY DINNER

New Cumberland Pa., Sept. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. George Mowery, who live along the river above New Cumberland, entertained at a family dinner last evening for their son Marshall and bride. The guests were their daughter, Mrs. William Hovetter, and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth, of Hazel Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mowery and family of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mowery, of New Cumberland; and Mrs. Boyd Lantz, of Hillside, and Paul Mowery.

Mrs. I. A. Elmer of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting her son, I. W. Elmer at his home, 229 South Nineteenth street.

MONDAY, THE BUSY DAY at ASTRICH'S

Every Monday our Millinery Department is crowded because you can buy HATS and TRIMMINGS FOR LESS MONEY than on any other day—and besides, we do not offer just one or a few items as a drawing card, but give you the choice of selection from the largest and best selected stock in Harrisburg. THE SALE COMMENCES AT 9 O'CLOCK, AND THESE PRICES GOOD FOR THIS MONDAY ONLY.

UNUSUAL OFFER FOR THIS SALE $2.66 10 dozen Large, Broad Brim, Silk Velvet Hats, in four shapes, with French grosgrain binding; usual price $4.50. On Monday

LYON'S VELVET HAND-BLOCKED HATS—in the very newest turned-up shapes; usual price $6.00. On Monday $4.44

BLACK VELVET SAILORS and small shapes; usual price $1.50. On Monday 79c

BLACK SILK VELVET TURBANS—four shapes for middle-aged women; usual price $2.50. On Monday $1.66

SILK VELVET SAILORS—medium shapes; usual price $2.00. On Monday $1.29

LARGE VELVET SIDE ROLL SAILORS—very popular; usual price $3.00. On Monday $2.22

GIRLS' SHIRRED VELVET HATS—black and all colors; usual price $3.00. On Monday $1.66

Another Great Sale Special! Large Hatter's Plush Sailors $3.66 Best quality—also Roll Sides, Roll Back, Tricornes and Novelty Shapes. An immense assortment to select from. Usual prices $5.00 to $6.00. On Monday

GIRLS' COLORED VELOUR HATS—trimmed with band; purple, green, navy, etc.; usual price $5.00. On Monday $3.66

FEATHER TURBANS—assorted colors; usual price $4.00. On Monday $1.79

PURPLE FELT SAILORS—trimmed and broad brims; usual prices $2.50 and $3. On Monday, 98c

LARGE COLORED SILK VELVET SAILORS—in all the bright colors; usual price $4.50. On Monday $2.66

Flowers, Pompons, Wings and Fancies at Special Prices marked with RED MONDAY TICKETS. OTHER ITEMS NOT ADVERTISED HERE WILL BE MARKED OUT ON OUR TABLES AND COUNTERS.

Our merchandise does not consist of left overs and seconds but is first class, up to the minute merchandise which cannot be duplicated anywhere at these prices. Watch this department grow! $1.00 and $1.25 New Lingerie Waists The very newest styles with large collar effects, etc. Monday only 89c Limit—Only 2 to a customer.

$2.50 Wool Serge Skirts Cut full and nicely tailored. Black and navy. Extra Special Monday $1.98 only

$12.50 All Wool Mixture Coats Gray and brown mixtures. Monday only, $8.98

Women's $25.00 Extra Size Suits Made of all wool poplin, guaranteed lining. Sizes 35 to 51. Monday only, $19.75

Blair Smith and Wm. L. Kay Joint Hosts For Evening

"Justa" party was held Thursday evening at the home of Blair E. Smith, 433 Peffer street. It was one of the prettiest events of the kind with the rooms decorated in red and white. Invitations were sent out jointly by Blair Smith and William L. Kay, who assisted in entertaining. When the guests arrived they were ushered into dimly-lighted rooms, red candles producing a fine effect on the decorations. Each arrival was given a small card, those of the boys entitling them to a nice young lady for the evening, and the girls each a fellow. After the lights were turned on, each had to find his corresponding card number. Games were played, Russell Zimmerman, Daniel Pyfer, James Dessenberger, F. N. Burns, Frank Kerlin, August Kerlin, Mrs. J. W. Wright, Mrs. D. Y. Lenhart and Mr. and Mrs. Kerlin.

Old-Fashioned Party With Miss Miriam Carl

Pretty girls wearing their grandmothers' costumes with big hoops, fichus and quaint hair dressing attended Miss Miriam Carl's old-fashioned party last evening at her home, 404 South Fourteenth street.

Games of long ago and a supper with warm gingerbread, cider, mince pie and apples as features were enjoyed by the following people: Miss Mabel Bright, Miss Helen Bright, Miss Fay Wrenn, Miss Katharine Carl, Miss Hope Wrenn, Mr. and Mrs. L. Laurence Shepley, Harold Hamilton, Harry Hamilton, Harry Marks, Earle Wrenn and Grant Wrenn.

Polyclinic Auxiliary Will Sell Receipt Books

At a meeting recently held the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital adopted a novel plan for raising much needed funds. It was decided to compile and distribute cook books made up from the best-known and home-tried receipts that can be secured in Dauphin county. By this plan every buyer of the books not only adds valuable assets to her culinary department, but assists materially in the laudable project of the auxiliary while uniting the idea is exceedingly simple. It is requested that all ladies of Dauphin county, sufficiently interested in the purpose will send a tried and favored receipt, with her name attached to Mrs. Elizabeth J. Miller, No. 15 South Third street, Harrisburg, Pa. If especially wished the name will not be printed, but it is desired that all names as well as receipts may be recorded for so commendable an undertaking. From these receipts a book will be made up having such an binding and exterior appearance as will conform to the valuable information contained inside. It is to be hoped that such interest will be accorded this worthy movement as will make it a glowing success.

Miss Bergdoll's Classes in Interesting Musicals

Violin and piano students in the advanced summer classes of Miss Lila Bergdoll held a musicale last evening at her studio, 1315 Swatara street. The program comprised sonatas, barcarolles, tarantelles and nocturnes. Palms, ferns and flowers made pretty decorations for the house.

WILKES-BARRE VISITOR

Mrs. G. R. Deatrick, of Wilkes-Barre, is spending the week-end with her father, John W. Alworth, at the home of her sister, Mrs. James A. Hartman, in Summerdale.

R. D. I. SUNSHINE SOCIETY IN ANNUAL MEETING MONDAY

The annual meeting of the Roberta Dabrow Lloyd Sunshine Society will be held Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock in assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A., Second and Locust streets, with the president, Mrs. Homer Black, presiding.

FAMILY DINNER

New Cumberland Pa., Sept. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. George Mowery, who live along the river above New Cumberland, entertained at a family dinner last evening for their son Marshall and bride. The guests were their daughter, Mrs. William Hovetter, and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth, of Hazel Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mowery and family of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mowery, of New Cumberland; and Mrs. Boyd Lantz, of Hillside, and Paul Mowery.

Mrs. I. A. Elmer of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting her son, I. W. Elmer at his home, 229 South Nineteenth street.

Current Events Class Taught by Miss Anne Wert

The class in Current Events at the Young Women's Christian Association will meet for the first time this season on Tuesday, October 17th, at 4:30. Miss Anne U. Wert is the leader. This class is a membership privilege and has been for the last few years the largest class of its kind in the country.

GUESTS OF MISS LIART

Miss Anna Katharine Hart, of Maplehurst, Duncannon, gave an informal luncheon yesterday at the Country Club of Harrisburg with appointments of yellow. In the party were Miss Emma Fleming, of Atlantic City; Miss Sarah Denehey; Miss Martha Fletcher; Miss Julia Stamm; Miss Elizabeth Ross; Miss Mary E. B. Sponsler; Miss Maude Stamm; Miss Sara McCulloch; Miss Mary Jane Wills and Miss Jean Duncan, both of Duncannon.

C. W. E. Yoder of Herr street, who has been seriously ill for several months is able to be out.

Miss Costello's Friends Enjoy Outdoor Frolic

As the guests of Miss Marena M. Costello, 50 North Seventeenth street, about forty young people participated in a hike and wiener roast, chaperoned by Mrs. J. C. Costello and Mrs. F. E. Gottshall, to Crumb's cottage, near the Colonial Country Club. Arriving at the cottage, the party gathered around a large, crackling bonfire beneath the trees to play games and enjoy a delicious roast.

In attendance were the Misses Irene Ball, Ruth Huntsberger, Anna Rau, Nook Costello, Mary Shunk, Anna Simmons, Lillian Koch, Della Costello, Martina Mullen, Esther Gruber, Florence Everts, Edith Mullen, Margaret Gottshall, Maude Daniels, Fannie Mullen and Margaret Wingert, George Shunk, Claud Olewille, Lester Wolfe, Charles Grobe, Joe Bless, Harold Wolfe, Albert Ramey, Clyde Dunlap, Paul Huntsberger, Elvin Crumb, Frank Stelner, James Costello, Sr., James Lutz, Wayne Crumb, William Crumb, Harry Crumb, Isaac Crumb, Russel Crumb and Martin Corsnitz.

For an Appetizing Breakfast Lea & Perrins' Sauce has many uses. For example, it adds a piquancy and zest to eggs. LEA & PERRINS SAUCE The only original Worcestershire Sauce Send postal for free kitchen hanger containing 100 new recipes LEA & PERRINS, Hubert Street, New York City

Let Us Do Your Dirty Work!

Away with the muss and fuss of Blue Monday—wash day! Away with rough chapped hands and red skin caused by wash day—Quit tempting fate with the coughs and colds that follow home wash-day. With us, each wash is washed separately—no ink marks for identification. Fine goods washed in net prevents tearing. Ironing done by air pressure machines saves wear and tear. Costs less than the laborious method of home washing and our delivery service passes your door. Sanitary Family Washing Co. SIXTEENTH AND ELM STREETS Bell Phone 733-734. Cumberland 160-Y

Where fashion displays, there is Scripps Booth in the foreground of attractiveness Universal Motor Car Co. 1745 N. Sixth St.

DISEASES OF CHILDREN A SPECIALTY ALBRA W. BAKER, M. D. Homoeopathic Physician and Surgeon 1433 MARKET STREET Harrisburg, Pa. Bell Phone

Percy Vinton Ritter Instructor in Water Color Painting STUDIO: 1835 N. 6th Street Classes Now Forming

William W. Lott Piano Tuner Calls attention to the opening of the Fall and Winter tuning season. Orders for Grand, Upright and Player work will now be received. Reasonable rates for high class work. Reliability unquestioned. Many years' experience. Bell Phone 2967-R Office: 701 N. Seventeenth St.

ALL departments of the Pine Street Presbyterian Sunday Schools will open to-morrow. This includes the Pine Street Schools, Bethany and Division Street.

Special Sunday Dinner (11 A. M. to 8 P. M.) 50c New PalaceCafe No. 2 South Fourth St. Soups Cream of Chicken, Princess Consomme Julienne Olives Celery Roast Stuffed Young Chicken Roast Duckling, French Dressing Chicken Fricassee, with Rice Phila Capon a la Creole New String Beans Waldorf Salad Stewed Corn Apple Sauce Mashed Potatoes Pudding Pies or Ice Cream Tea Coffee Milk "The Palace—of Things Good to Eat."

Kolbensschlag's Harrisburg invite your inspection of the Fall Opening of Model Hats on October the third and fourth - nineteen hundred and sixteen in the Millinery Shop 208 North Third Street KNOX HATS FANCY BAGS POCKET BOOKS FEATHER BOAS HAIR ORNAMENTS FURS