

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?

There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.

BRAND "GROWN IN PENNSYLVANIA"

This Is What the Farmers Should Raise and the Housekeepers Should Buy

"Grown in Pennsylvania" is the new brand which officials of the State Department of Agriculture are urging Keystone State farmers and fruit raisers to place upon the market, and judging from what is stated in a bulletin from the department to-day J. Aldus Herr and E. B. Dorsett, "who are helping Pennsylvania farmers and fruit growers to find ready and profitable markets for their products, have met with hearty co-operation from both the producers and the commission men in many sections of the state."

6,155 TREES IN THE UPPER HALF OF CITY

Need More Money

With an appropriation sufficiently large to carry on the tree maintenance and development work, backed by a competent shade tree commission to conduct the necessary legislative work, municipal cities generally figure that City Forester Gipple could give the trees all the attention required.

Of all the variety of trees that were counted, according to City Forester Gipple few of them were of the proper species, most of them showed the results of poor trimming, butchering, lack of pruning, disregard of relative distances for planting, absence of guards to prevent the ruining of the trees by gnawing horses.

Few Good Trees

Here and there there are some rare old trees although Forester Gipple admits that the choice for planting should be selected from any of these families—Norway, silver and sugar maples, oriental planes, pin and red oak, American elms and European lindens.

Elms however, are advised only for the broader streets and boulevards, principally Front and State streets. Tussock and other moths do irreparable damage among the trees and this could be minimized in the opinion of Mr. Gipple, by instituting a city-wide campaign against the caterpillars, even in the cocoon stage. The co-operation of the city school children, the Civic Club or kindred organization could well be obtained in this fight.

Good Results on Little Funds

Lack of money has brought the tree work almost to a standstill now as there is no longer any money to pay for assistance and the work that has been done, had to be paid for out of the regular maintenance fund of the park department. With the exception of his salary of $1,000 Mr. Gipple has had no appropriation for his department.

"City Forester" Mueller asked for an appropriation of $27,000 and he could have used every cent of it," said Forester Gipple. "However, I should be tickled to death if I got, say three or four or five thousand more. I just like to have enough money to pick out an average section of the city and show to Council and the people what can be done in the way of properly caring for the trees."

Passing of Park Trees

While the trees on the streets, generally speaking, are in poor shape, the park trees are positively in a bad way. "Unless our river park is given attention, the trees there will be absolutely no good twenty years from now," declared the forester. "We should plant trees now, and we could use fifty or seventy-five of them very easily to replenish the groves."

Notwithstanding his lack of funds the forestry department accomplished mighty good work this summer for in addition to his other duties Mr. Gipple had to give much of his attention to the island nursery. More than 200 permits for new trees were issued and in each instance, personal investigation of the site was made; more than a hundred complaints for tree trimming, pruning, etc., required the forester's personal supervision.

The Caterpillar War

While spraying is necessary to prolong the life of the trees, Mr. Gipple believes as much good can be accomplished at least so far as the caterpillars are concerned—by waging a decided war against these pests. By offering small cash prizes to the school children and paying for egg-masses and cocoons by a method similar to that adopted by the Civic Club in the fly-swatting campaigns, the forester believes admirable results may be obtained.

The tree census completed to date shows the distribution of trees as follows:

- East side of Front street, 336; Second, 557; Penn., 187; Green, 450; Susquehanna, 45; Third, 231; Capital, 301; Fifth, 252; Sixth, 427; Seventh, 143; Lexington, 37; Logan, 48; East, 33; Jefferson, 136; Cowden, 27; Wallace, 87; James, 37; Williams, 9; Marion, 9; Montgomery, 19; Grand, 11; Fulton, 45; Agate, 7; Moore, 28; Emerald, 88; Seneca, 74; Walnut, 37; Locust, 29; Pine, 45; South, 50; State, 78; North, 90; Foster, 96; Briggs, 90; Boas, 132; Herr, 66; Cumberland, 100; Verbeke, 78; Calder, 138; Rely, 131; Harris, 179; Hamilton, 149; Kelker, 146; Muench, 176; Peffer, 193 and Maclay 171.

Prominent Men Attend Funeral of James Brady

Men prominent in the affairs of the city attended the funeral services for James Brady, president of the First National Bank, which were held at St. Patrick's Cathedral this morning, being followed by burial in a vault at the Harrisburg cemetery where they will repose until the Brady family vault in Mt. Cavalry cemetery is finished.

Mr. M. M. Hassett, rector of the cathedral, was celebrant of the mass with the Revs. D. P. Reardon and W. V. Dalley assisting. A number of beautiful floral tributes, including some magnificent wreaths were grouped about the casket.

The honorary pallbearers were: Edward Bailey, John Criswell, W. M. Donaldson, David Fleming, Spencer C. Gilbert, Edward J. Clancy, W. L. Gargas, Richard J. Head, D. C. Herr, W. T. Hildrup, Jr., William Jennings, Charles A. Kunkel, Donald McCormick, Hiram McGowan, W. M. Ogelby, J. Grant Schwarz, David E. Tracy and T. Wierman.

The active pallbearers were: A. E. Aunst, A. S. Banniller, Charles Meekley, of the First National Bank; James McLaughlin, Clarence Sigler and J. Frank Leonard, of the Commonwealth Trust Company.

SEEKS GAS LEAK; FINDS IT
While looking for a leak in the gas pipe in the cellar of his home, 314 Cumberland street, last night, Louis Bush narrowly escaped serious injuries when the gas exploded and set the kitchen on fire. An alarm was sent to the Goodwill Fire Company who extinguished the blaze before any material damage had been done.

URGES LAWS TO ABOLISH STRIKES

Railroad Counsel Advocates Orderly Method of Settling Disputes

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 4. — Legislation which will provide an orderly and responsible method of settling railroad labor disputes as a substitute for the "terrorism of the strike," was urged as the prime need of the public and railroads, in an address delivered before the fifth annual convention of the Investment Bankers' Association of America here to-day by Walker L. Hines, chairman of the advisory committee and general counsel of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company.

LOCAL FIREMEN GO TO SCRANTON

Rev. Worden Mentioned For Chaplain of State Association

Harrisburg firemen are taking a big part in the Scranton anniversary celebration. The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's Association opened yesterday. Delegates from this city number ninety-five. In the list of nominations the Rev. John M. Worden, a member of the Shamrock company, is mentioned for chaplain. He has but one opponent, Samuel H. Stein, of York.

The firemen will parade to-morrow and according to reports the number of men in line is expected to be near that of the high water mark made in Harrisburg two years ago. The Royal company of this city, with a band of sixty pieces, in charge of Lincoln Dillon and Millard Tawney, left this morning for Scranton. Companies from Middletown, Coatesville, York, Philadelphia and the Cumberland Valley passed through the city this morning and afternoon. The nominations made yesterday are as follows:

President, Eugene C. Bonniwell, Philadelphia; George S. Weir, Sharpsburg; vice-presidents, H. P. Holstein, Harrisburg; Daniel Harris, Catawissa; Carl W. Gerbich, Archbald; Harry A. Carney, Monroeton; Peter J. Rosar, Scranton; George H. Matthews, Uniontown; W. W. Smith, Altoona; financial secretary, I. A. Hahne, Philadelphia; secretary and treasurer, O. T. Weber, Allentown; chaplain, Samuel H. Stein, York, and the Rev. John Martin Worden, Harrisburg.

Pittsburgh Hog Market Breaks, but Hotels Advance Price of Bread and Butter

Pittsburgh, Oct. 4.—The first important break for more than a year in the steadily rising market for meat in the Pittsburgh district was forecast to-day when hogs were quoted at Herr's Island stockyards 70 cents per hundred lower than yesterday, with highest price at $9.50. Heavy receipts and falling demand were given by brokers as the cause of the slump.

Any saving which might be effected from this cause, however, was balanced by the announcement of leading hotel managers that 10 cents would be added to all checks for meals to cover the cost of bread and butter. One manager declared these items cost him approximately $100 a day, and he could not afford it. The rule becomes operative next Monday.

University Training

For the Ambitious Man

It is not necessary for him to leave home or give up his present position. He can attend the evening classes of the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania, in Harrisburg.

This school will give him the identical courses, under the supervision of the same faculty, that are given at the University in Philadelphia.

His development should be fast—he has opportunity to apply in the day the principles discussed in the evenings. Business is not only his work, but his study; his office becomes his laboratory.

Classes held at the Technical High School. Session begins Monday evening, October 9th. Call at the Chamber of Commerce any evening, except Saturday, and talk with a member of the faculty.

Conference Fails to Bring About Settlement of N. Y. Milk Price Differences

New York, Oct. 4. — A conference to-day between Mayor Mitchell and representatives of the New York milk distributing companies in an effort to bring about a settlement of the differences between the companies and the Dairymen's League over the price of milk failed of result according to an unofficial announcement after the meeting adjourned.

The announcement was made by George W. Alger, one of the counsel for the companies who said they had voted "to have nothing to do with the league." It was understood prior to the meeting that the Mayor was to place before the distributors the proposition that they pay the price demanded by the farmers for their product, the farmers as a concession waiving recognition of the dairymen's league.

Governor of Danish Isles Believes People Do Not Want Sale to United States

San Juan, P. R., Oct. 4.—"With friendly feelings toward the United States and with no desire to criticize or to offend, I do not believe the inhabitants of the Danish Islands would be made happier by American purchase," said L. C. Helweg Larsen, governor of the Danish West Indies, on his arrival here to-day from St. Thomas.

The governor is on his way to New York and Copenhagen where he probably will appear before a committee of the Danish Diet to give information with regard to the islands before the question of their sale to the United States is determined. The governor added:

"The islanders are almost wholly negroes, restless and anxious for any change. They would be greatly disappointed in the event of American purchase." The governor will arrive in New York next Monday and will sail for Copenhagen three days later.

STAR PLAYERS Of the National Game!!

Are beginning to have visions of success, and Baseball Fans, everywhere, are anxious for the final contest. Many are in good shape for the pleasure of watching their favorites play—others lack that vigor and spirit that enables them to get the pleasure to be had out of the Great National Game. Their vitality is gone to smash and their enjoyment is seen only in visions. Get out of that class! In nearly all cases where vim and vigor are lacking the fault can be traced to an impure condition of the blood—this can be corrected by setting the blood corpuscles to work throwing off the impurities. There is one remedy that can be depended upon for results at such a time. That remedy is S.S.S., the Great National Blood Tonic, purely vegetable. It has stood the test for fifty years, and has been the means of setting thousands on the road to health. Every person should take S.S.S. occasionally as a tonic. Buy a bottle of S.S.S. from your druggist today and get in shape to join the happy and vigorous crowd at the games. Remember only the genuine S.S.S. will do the work. So beware of substitutes. If your blood trouble has become stubborn, medical advice will be given you without charge.

Don't let visions answer for the Real Game—Get yourself in shape by using S.S.S.
