Robertson-Porter Bridal Surprises Their Friends

Major and Mrs. Alanzo M. Porter, of 42 North Seventeenth street, announce the marriage of their daughter Miss Myra Lee Porter to Francis Herbert Robertson of Charleston, S. C. The ceremony took place this morning at 11:30 o'clock at the bride's home where autumn flowers and foliage formed the decorations. The Rev. Thomas Reisch, pastor of the Christ Lutheran Church, officiated in the presence of the families and a few personal friends, and a wedding breakfast followed the service.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a modish traveling costume of dark blue broadcloth with velvet hat and a corsage bouquet of white roses. The young people have gone to their home in Pittsburgh where Mr. Robertson is a civil engineer with a large firm. The bride has a wide circle of friends in this vicinity who will be surprised to see this announcement as the matter has been kept so secret. Mr. Robertson, a son of Mrs. Anna and the late Edward Robertson of Charleston, is a graduate of Clemson College, S. C.

JUNIOR AID PLANS FOR WINTER WORK

Elect New Officers and New Members at First of Their Fall Meetings

The Junior Aid Society began their work this week with full vim and enthusiasm. New officers were elected, new members admitted and the general plans for the year of the organization drawn up. The newly elected advisory board includes Miss Eliza Bailey, president, who succeeds Miss Lydia Kunkel, Miss Alice Virginia Cooper, vice-president, who succeeds Miss Virginia Bishop, Miss Helen Davis, secretary, in the place of Miss Alice Lesquire, Miss Katherine Beideman who takes Miss Dartha Davis' place as treasurer.

Last year the society sent Beulah, the little cripple, who underwent an operation in a Philadelphia hospital to Madam Gap to recuperate from her illness. They also sent small Albert Willy to the country for a two weeks' outing, as well as contributing $50 to the lower end of the Harrisburg Hospital for fully equipping cribs for the children. The money for their work was realized from their play, "The Princess Who Couldn't Dance," from a bazaar and the regular dues.

This year the girls will sew for the poor children making them complete outfits. They also will provide for the children at the holiday season and at Easter time. Money to carry on their work will be netted from the tableaux which they will present about January as well as various other benefit plays and socials throughout the year.

Four new members were elected into the society who were Miss Ruth Dowdell, Miss Harriet Wilman, Miss Priscilla Bullitt and Miss Eltona Patton.

Hold Civic Club Meeting on Monday Afternoon

Reports of the summer work of the Harrisburg Civic Club, garden school by Miss Martha W. Buehler, by contests and curfew law by Miss Rachel Pollock, will be presented on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. The educational department will make announcements through its head, Mrs. E. L. Keffer, and Mr. William Henderson, the president will be in the chair. A revision of the constitution and by-laws will be the most important work of the session beginning at 2:30 o'clock. It was hoped that at least one room of the new club house in North Front street would be ready for this meeting, but the heat and labor question prevented it. The November meeting will probably be held there.

H. A. Society as Guests of Thomas Senseman, Jr.

Astrich's

THIS MONDAY OCTOBER 16 GIGANTIC SALE OF NEWEST VELVET AND HATTERS' PLUSH HATS

The largest purchase of high-class and popular-shaped Hats we ever bought—and at prices which never were nor never will be duplicated at this time of the year—the very height of the busy millinery season.

An immense and almost unlimited variety of Sailors, Pokes, Turbans, Side Rolls, Continentals, High Backs, and Fancy Shapes. These are what we call pick-ups. They are not sold below the original price on account of deficient quality or an account of the shapes being unsalable—but are guaranteed to consist of only the best and most wanted shapes. They are Factory Remnants, small lots of from two to three dozen of a kind, which we pick up at great reductions in price. The lots are too small for the manufacturers to bother with, and to us and our trade they are wonderful trade bringers.

Early Coal Buying Advisable. It's the part of wisdom to buy your winter supply of coal now. Once the frost and ice and snow of winter get busy, it's pretty difficult to keep the coal free of dust and dirt. Summer-mined coal by the very nature of things is cleaner, the screening we give it insures practically a complete absence of dust and dirt. Phone your order now. J. B. MONTGOMERY, 500—Either Phone. Third and Chestnut Streets.

WHEN you want really good corn flakes, don't merely ask for "corn flakes," but tell the grocer to send New Post Toasties. There's as much difference between their delicious crispness and wonderful flavor, as compared with old style flakes, as there is between luscious sweet corn and the hard field corn of autumn. New Post Toasties—at Grocers everywhere.
