COST OF MILK IS GIVEN ATTENTION

State Calculators Show What It Costs the Farmers to Put Out Their Product

Many farmers throughout the State have started to figure on the actual cost of production of milk, following the movement for better prices for the farmer, says the bulletin of the State Department of Agriculture issued today. "In many cases it has been shown that with the increased cost of feed and labor, the old prices paid to the farmers did not pay for the production of the milk," says the bulletin.

"In many parts of the State farmers were discouraged and were quitting the dairy business. The following statement furnished to the Department of Agriculture by a Western Pennsylvania farmer of the investments, stock and equipment of a 400-acre farm devoted to dairying for the past twenty years will show the consumers of dairy products of the state the real conditions of the dairy-men and on which they are basing their claim for an increase in the price of milk. The statement covers every item that goes into or is invested in the above mentioned farm:

Four hundred acres of land	$32,000
Eighty cows	5,800
Equipment (including improved farm machinery)	4,500
Total	$42,300
Interest on investment	$2,560
Labor	2,000
Depreciation on equipment at 12 per cent.	540
Depreciation on value of cows	800
Taxes	200
Insurance on buildings	75
Corn silage	980
Ninety tons of hay at $12 per ton	1,080
Eighty tons of grain at $30 per ton	2,400
Twenty tons of straw bedding	120
Pasture	800
Sundries (light, utensils, etc.)	50
Total	$11,605

"Considering the other side, the above herd of cows produced in twelve months 60,000 gallons of milk at an average price of 14 cents per gallon. Sixty thousand gallons of milk at 14 cents per gallon $8,400. Seventy calves at $10 per head 700. Five hundred tons of manure at 75 cents per ton 375.

Total $9,475. "It will be shown on the above mentioned farm when counting the cost on the investment and the depreciation on value of stock and farm equipment, the loss is $1,530, based on the prices prevailing for the year 1915. After keeping a correct account of expenses of delivery to both wholesale and retail consumers, the statement shows an average expense for delivery of 1 1/2 cents per quart to wholesale trade and 3 cents per quart to retail customers."

BIDS TO RIPRAP THE RIVER SLOPES

Preparing Specifications. Specifications and blue-prints are now being prepared so that no time may be lost in advertising for proposals immediately upon the return to the city of Park Commissioner E. Z. Gross and City Solicitor D. S. Seitz. Prior to leaving for Easton to attend the Pennsylvania Presbytery gathering, Commissioner Gross said he would confer with Mr. Seitz as to whether the city is legally required to ask for bids. Mr. Seitz however, is in New Haven with his son, a Yale University student. Both officials are expected home by the latter part of the week.

If it is decided to ask for bids it is probable that the work cannot be started before November 1 as Park Commissioner Gross has expected, as the request for sealed proposals must be advertised for at least ten days. Whether or not the weather might interfere with the work, the whole job before winter sets in is problematical although it is generally believed that a great deal of the work can be completed before freezing prevents.

Advertise 10 Days

In the absence of Park Commissioner Gross, Assistant Superintendent Forrer discussed briefly the possibilities for an early start of the work, the method of procedure and so on. "Plans and specifications are being prepared now so that we can be ready to ask for bids as soon as Mr. Gross and Mr. Seitz return. I understand that Mr. Gross wants to consult Mr. Seitz about this problem first. Whether we can get under way by November 1, however, is doubtful. We must advertise ten days. "I doubt, too," continued Mr. Forrer, "as to whether two months of work could possibly be completed before the 'snow flies' or before the ground freezes."

At Last

"That the job can be started and be well under way within the next month or so, is certainly assured. The suggestion for obtaining bids on the work as a whole as well as on the block work, was made to overcome any possible difficulty that might be met with if the prices are too high. "Park Commissioner Gross has decided to riprap the river front slopes and our department is arranging to go ahead with the work at the earliest possible moment."

Pays $20,000 Mortgage With One Potato Crop

Jamesburg, N. J., Oct. 25.—A $13,000 potato crop on 48-acre farm is the banner yield for this year reported by J. Lester Ferris, of Rhode Hall. The total crop was 13,600 bushels, or an average of over 280 bushels to the acre and the average selling price was 98 cents a bushel. Henry Cross, of Holmdel, had an average of 115 barrels an acre on eight acres and paid off a $20,000 mortgage with the proceeds of the crop.

"Solemnly Declare I was Never Dead; Am Not Now"

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 25.—Arthur George, a painter, appeared at the county clerk's office recently and filed a solemn declaration that he was not dead. He objected to the probate court's action in declaring him dead and turning over $750 worth of Seattle estate to Mrs. George, now dead, after he failed to claim his property or his wife after seven years' absence. "I solemnly declare that I never was dead and am not now," he swears in this statement filed with the county clerk.

G. A. R. PROTESTS BAKER SPEECH

Present Secretary of War's Comparison of Patriots With Villa Bandits

Washington, D. C., Oct. 25.—Officials of the Grand Army of the Republic have joined forces with the Woman's Relief Corps and other patriotic organizations of women in protesting against the utterances of Secretary of War Baker comparing the soldiers of the Revolutionary War to the bandit Villa's followers in Mexico.

Colonel McElroy, publisher of the official organ of the Grand Army of the Republic, and one of the most widely known officials of the organization, has demanded that the President take summary action to disavow the utterances of Secretary Baker. Colonel McElroy said there was no doubt that Grand Army posts would take action immediately.

"We are in receipt of letters and resolutions," he said, "that have been adopted in Brooklyn and West Virginia and understand that similar action has been taken elsewhere. The President needs to set himself and his administration right in the eyes of the people and to do it quickly."

"I Felt Rotten All Over" Says B. Elston

Couldn't Eat, Couldn't Sleep, Couldn't Work, But Master Medicine Put Him in Fighting Trim.

"I had been suffering for a long time with liver trouble, sluggish liver I guess you would call it," says Byron Elston, an expert steel worker of Steelton, Pa. "I felt rotten all over. I couldn't eat, I couldn't sleep, except on my right side and I couldn't work."

"I was chucked full of gas all the time and I put in some mighty mean days and miserable nights," says Elston. "I tried this and I tried that to see if I could get hold of something that would brace me up but none of the medicines I tried did me any good and I had about given up in disgust when I heard about Taniac and the people it had helped out of the same sort of trouble that I had."

"Well, I began taking it and it has made the biggest kind of a change in my condition. I feel fine. I haven't felt so good in months. "My stomach has been strengthened up until it digests my meals as it should, my liver has been wakened up and is working properly and I eat so much that I don't know where I find room to put it all."

"Sleep! I sleep like a log and I wake up every morning feeling as fresh and vigorous as if I was brand new and I really enjoy working. "That's what Taniac did for me and I know it will do it for anybody who is troubled as I was."

Taniac, the famous reconstructive tonic is now being introduced here at Gorgas Drug Store, where the Taniac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.

I tried Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and got immediate relief, my hands were completely cured. ## MIDWINTER SHOW PLANS OUTLINED

Notable Exhibit of Products of Prize Winning Farms Will Be Made Here

Plans for the midwinter show of corn, wool, fruit and dairy products of Pennsylvania to be held in this city when the State Board of Agriculture and allied organizations hold their biennial sessions in the first month of the Legislature have been worked out and the best products of the fairs held this year have been put into storage to keep them fresh. The show will be the first of the kind ever held and coming in winter will be at a time when it will not interfere with any local shows.

E. S. Bayard, of Pittsburgh, is in charge as chairman of the general committee and the show will run from January 23 to 25, with a series of meetings held in conjunction. The general plan is as follows: Corn, six classes, county exhibits, boys' and girls' exhibits, champion single and ten-car contests; prizes total $261; a county challenge and two silver cups; E. K. Hibshman, State College, in charge of entries.

To keep their classes, including one for full-blooded Merino fleece of combing staple; crossbred wool divided into four classes, ram's fleece into two; prizes $110. Fruit, twelve classes for apples with a grand prize; displays to be plate, box and barrel; plans also made for exhibits of pears, quinces, walnuts, chestnuts and shellbarks, five specimens for fruit on plate displays and twenty for nuts; prizes $300; arrangements to be made to keep fruit in cold storage in Harrisburg until show is given; N. N. Fagen, State College, in charge of entries. Dairy exhibits will be along the same lines, numerous prizes being offered. The organizations co-operating with the State are the Pennsylvania Horticultural Association; Pennsylvania Breeders' and Dairymen's Association; Pennsylvania Holstein Breeders' Association; Pennsylvania State Veterinary Medical Association and others. A number of prominent men of the State have offered prizes for the best displays at the show and it is expected that if it proves successful that it will be an annual feature and bring the best of the exhibits in the various summer and Fall fairs of the State into competition.
