GHOSTS, WITCHES AND BLACK CATS

Hallowe'en Celebrations Take in Several Evenings of the Week Nowadays

Hallowe'en celebrations nowadays are not confined to one night, but for a week all sorts of parties are held. Last night, as ticktack, was one of the biggest events and there were gay masqueraders on the streets, at dances and private entertainments. Cornstalks, jack-o'-lanterns, autumn foliage and flowers formed the decorations with myriads of witches, black cats, goblins and pumpkins, as well as festoons of black and yellow. Pumpkin pie, gingerbread, apples, nuts and cider figured prominently in the refreshments.

Two Large Dances
The largest dances were those in Cathedral Hall and Winterdale, each attended by more than a hundred guests. The Morgan orchestra played for the former and on the committee of arrangements were Joseph A. Duchene, chairman, John P. Gohl, Charles Schmidt, James A. Coleman, Thomas J. Cleary, Jr., J. J. Monroe, Augustus Waldschmidt, J. A. Donegan, C. N. Lawrence, H. T. McFadden, Peter Vanderloo, Jr., V. F. Salerno, C. A. Fornwald, L. A. Schiltzer, John Berry and T. T. Burns.

Wendell Taylor's Guests
A merry party of girls and boys gathered at the home of Dr. Louise H. Taylor, 1900 North Third street, last evening to attend the Hallowe'en party of her son, Wendell Hertz Taylor, "really righty" witch told fortunes in a cave and there were supper favors for the guests, who enjoyed contests and singing to accompaniment played by Julian DeGray.

Children in Masquerade
The children attending a little masquerade at the home of Mrs. Scott Cornelius, 539 Maclay street, last evening with Mrs. C. I. Trullinger and Mrs. Cornelius, hostesses, wore the cleverest of costumes. In the party were Helen Cless, Mildred Cless, Julia Reese, Pauline Shuman, Theon Hoffman, Kathleen Greek, Ula Henry, Mildred Selbel, Dorothy Selbel, Merlema Selbel, Sara Miller, Helen Quensler, Violet Shakespeare, Dorian Cornelius, Pauline Ruch, Sara Trullinger, Virginia Trullinger, Norman Reese, William Eisenberg, James Trullinger, Harold Miller, Miss Stella Shupp and Miss Marguerite Hummel.

Merriment at Penbrook
One of the most enjoyable Hallowe'en functions was that held last evening at Penbrook with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Longenecker hosts. The party included Mrs. E. M. Longenecker, Edward Reidel, Ruth Reidel, William Mullen, Mildred Fromm, Miss Francis Hain, Pauline Fromm, George Saunders, Mary Longenecker, George Ritter, Evelyn Morris, Walter Eby, Flora Kreiser, William Mader, Mildred Mader, Alvin Martin, Mary Mader, Ira Koons, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Garman, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wilhamson, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Grubb, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoeker and sons Reese and George, Mrs. Alfred Lauver.

Harrisburg Circle's Party
One of the largest and most successful masquerade socials held this season was given by Harrisburg Circle, W. L. M. C. No. 85, at their hall, Sixth and Cumberland street Saturday evening. Over one hundred and eighty persons in fancy costume were in the march, and the hall was crowded with spectators. Prizes were awarded and the evening closed all too soon for the many dancers.

The Sunday School Classes
The Sunday school classes of Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Foutz of 528 South Sixteenth street were pleasantly entertained by the teachers at a Hallowe'en masquerade. In attendance were the Misses Helen Love as Court Lady; Helen Rahn, yama yama; Catherine Schwarz, witch; Grace Hillmore, yama yama; Lena Eichelberger, Lady Yellow Pumpkin; Mrs. H. T. Lyter, Atlantic City bather; Mrs. R. W. Sutch, Dutch girl; Mrs. M. L. Foutz, Fair Domino; Miss Scherz, A Spirit; Messrs. Charles Ditzel, Vernon Ditzel, Lady-in-Furs; Maurice Fillmore, Alarm Clock Tramp; Wilbur Ditzel, football player; Emanuel Zack, bald-headed clown; Edward Bartels, clown; Harvey Deal, Mexican; Martin L. Foutz, court jester; Fred Koenig, student; Harvey P. Lyter, doorkeeper; Ammon Schwarzbach, lady-in-white; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Lyter and Master Lloyd Lyter.

Contests With Miss Sherman
Games and contests and refreshments added to the pleasure of the guests of Miss Lillian Sherman last evening at her home, 1014 Cowden street. In attendance were the Misses Mimeriva Smith, Helen D. Ritter, Fanny Williams, Rose Hoffman, Rose Aronson, Lillian Sherman, Lena Levin, Blanche Pruss and Hilda Baturin. Isador Levinsky, Harry Orstein, Hyman Kincoan, Albert Smith, Albert Morris, Paul Lackey, Samuel Sherman, David Sherman, Hyman Orstein.

Miss Shull Honor Guest
Miss Mary Rineard, of the Vernon school building, arranged a clever little masquerade last evening for Miss Claire Shull held at 1425 Vernon street. Autumn flowers and foliage adorned the house and a delightful evening was spent by the following guests all in fancy dress: The Misses Katharine Bentley, Kathryn Bradigan, Mildred Kline, Miriam Winters, Elsie Dare, Kathryn Hilton, Jennie Zelders, Ruth Crabbe, Pauline Fishman, Eliza Shook, Dorothy Saul, Cleo-

The Froehlich Studio. Mr. and Mrs. George Daniel Van Kirk who were married in this city yesterday morning will make their home at the Hotel Watkins, Atlantic City, where Mr. Van Kirk, formerly an attache of the Corporation Bureau of the department of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, has personal interests. The bride was formerly Miss Anne Elizabeth Fissell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Fissell, North Sixth street, and one of the most popular girls of the younger set.

Mrs. Henry Lauver and daughters
Mary and Ruth, Mrs. Harry Ludwick and son George, Mrs. Charles Eichelholz and son Eber and daughter Jessie, Mrs. William Mader, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Longenecker and daughters, the Misses Mildred and Ruth Longenecker, Leroy Smetzer, Harry Lenker, Mabel Walter and Harry Fisher.

Fun at Bonnycrest
Janice, Richard, Rollin Steinmetz entertained a few of their friends Monday evening. In mask and Hallowe'en costume they arrived. The hearthfire flamed while games and refreshments, candy, music and refreshments were enjoyed.

The little folks were Miss Evelyn Rice, the Misses Edith and Frances Bishop, Master Charles Bishop, Miss Helen and Master David Opperman, Master Franklin Musser, Janice, Richard and Rollin Steinmetz, all of Washington Heights. Miss Louise Steinmetz in witch's costume, assisted in entertaining the young folks.

Miss Keet Is Hostess
Guests of Miss Helena Keet this evening at her home, 1845 Regina street will appear in fancy dress and after games, dancing and a real old-fashioned Hallowe'en supper, will join the midnight street dancers. In the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Reese Reed, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Keet, the Misses Irene Coble, Sonia Zeeger, Helen Hampton, Grace Cook, Sara Faunce, and Helena Keet, Jacob Garman, Anthony Wiltschlag, Lawrence Faunce, Jr., Reese Lloyd, Samuel McIlhenny, Paul Faunce, Kenneth Patterson and William Holmer.

With Pumpkins and Foliage
Masses of autumn leaves and decorated pumpkins made a pretty decoration at the home of Mrs. Mumma's party at his suburban home in Penbrook. After music and games refreshments were served to the Misses Ruth Hoeker, Mary Hoffmeyer, Kathryn Heintz, Blanche Heckard, Letha Wilson, Clara Garverich, Ellen Garverich, Mabel Bobbs, Ruth Mumma, Violet Gill and Margaret Fisher. Ellis Packer, Paul Rosenberger, Eliza Mullen, George Sollenberger, Harold Fickes, Warren Weiser, Joe Mumma, Nelson Mumma, Assisting Mrs. Mumma were the Misses Max Hoerner, Ruth Hoerner and Esther Hoerner of Harrisburg.
