MINORS TABLE PLAYERS' PLANS

National Association of Baseball Leagues Consider Constitution Changes

New Orleans, Nov. 16.—Proposed amendments to the constitution of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues were considered at last night's session of the fifteenth meeting here. Among the amendments were propositions to reduce the membership of the national board from nine to five, providing for representation by the minor leagues in the National Baseball Commission, changes in rulings of the national board, reclassification of leagues and other matters involving relations between players and clubs.

The minor league clubs voted unanimously to table four demands of the Baseball Players' Fraternity submitted in writing by President David L. Fultz. The demands were as follows:

Regarding Injured Players—Elimination of alleged contracts permitting clubs to suspend injured players; giving players the right to sign new contracts immediately after their unconditional release; allowance to minor league players of traveling expense from their home clubs to the club's city or its Spring training camp, and changes in the procedure of the national board in players' claims cases so as to give the fraternity notice of the club's defense and opportunity to reply.

The convention acted upon the fraternity's demands after Secretary Farrell, of the association, had urged against them. There was no argument in support of them.

Almost all the leagues which are members of the association held conferences but no important action was announced by any of them.

Hurry-Up Yost Stars Play on Snow-Covered Gridiron

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 16.—Genuine winter has arrived in Ann Arbor and is making practice for the Wolverine gridiron squad anything but pleasant. Ferry Field is covered with more than an inch of snow and there is reason to believe that it will have a bad effect on Yost's tactics next Saturday in the Pennsylvania game.

Yost has been expected to use much forward passing, but unless there is a decided change in the weather, open football will not be of much advantage.

Yesterday's drill was short and light. There was a brief signal practice and then some kicking and a little passing. Jimmie Watkins, the second former gridiron star to arrive this week, joined the athletes this afternoon and will stay with them until after Saturday's game.

Johnny Dundee Wins in Battle With Leonard

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—Johnny Dundee, Brooklyn's representative in the lightweight division, scored a decided hit last night when he conquered the knockout wallop from New York, Benny Leonard, in six slashing rounds, at the Olympia A. A.

Fully 5,000 fans were stunned by the clear-cut victory of the little Italian, who never gave the New York sensation a chance to get set and land his knockout punch. It was a terrific right-hand punch to the left cheek in the fourth round that really gave Dundee the big edge. He caught Leonard flush on the jawbone with the smash and the Gotham entry staggered back several steps.

It was their fourth meeting, the other three taking place in New York, and according to the dope, each now has two victories.

The Keystone Athletic Club has organized a basketball team. The manager is Harry Ebert, 1503 North Sixth street.

The seat sale for the Gettysburg-Bucknell game on Saturday is on at J. Harry Messersmith's, 212 Market street. The sale yesterday was beyond expectations. Indications point to a record crowd.

Gannett Submits Plans For Sewage Treatment to City of Williamsport

The engineering firm of Farley Gannett, consulting engineer, of Harrisburg, which was retained last summer to report upon the best method of purifying the sewage of Williamsport, has recently submitted its report and plans to that city. This work was done in response to a decree and order of the State Department of Health similar to the order which has been issued to the city of Harrisburg.

The Williamsport plans include a large intercepting sewer along the water front of the city. Three miles and a half of this intercepting sewer is to be 24 inches in diameter and one and a half miles will be 48 inches. The sewer, after collection in the intercepter, will be carried under the West Branch of the Susquehanna river in a 48-inch cast iron pipe to a pumping station, where it will be lifted about forty feet to the sewage treatment works.

These will consist of Imhoff tanks, constructed of concrete, where the solid floating matter will be removed. After passage through these tanks the sewage will be treated with disinfectant and discharged into the river.

The plant is designed to treat ten million gallons of sewage per day, with provision for doubling this capacity when necessary. Provision is also made for the construction of sprinkling filters, when conditions make them necessary, to obtain a more complete purification.

The total cost of the works to be built at present under these plans, including the intercepting sewer, pumping station and treatment plant, is estimated at $300,000.

Jack McCarron Ready to Meet All Middleweights

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16.—As the result of his sensational bout with Jackie Clarke and Knockout Brennan, Jack McCarron, the Allentown, Pa., middleweight boxer, has won recognition all over the country as a real contender for the championship of his division. McCarron, who is under management of Ray Bronson, of Indianapolis, outfought Jackie Clarke in a slashing bout in Allentown on November 7 in fifteen rounds and three days later boxed a draw with Knockout Brennan in Dayton, Ohio. Despite his long railroad trip, McCarron was in good condition and carried the fight to Brennan in every round. A sweeping challenge to all legitimate middleweights has been issued by Bronson.

WILKES-BARRE AFTER O'NEILL

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 16.—Mike O'Neill, who led the Syracuse Stars to a pennant in the New York State League last year, has virtually decided not to accept the terms offered by the Stars' management for 1917 and is now in line for the leadership of the Wilkes-Barre Barons. He has been made a very good offer by the champions, so of his division, the Stegmaler's, who are the principal owners of the team. The only rival for the job that O'Neill fears is John Calhoun, who successfully managed the Binghamton club.

DENY COAL JUMP RUMOR

Officers of the Harrisburg Coal Exchange, denied to-day that the price of anthracite coal would take a sensational rise in this city after December 1. Between 80,000 and 100,000 tons of hard coal of various sizes, are now stored in the sheds of the local dealers.

The scarcity of soft coal in the city is acute on account of the shortage of cars.

BUCKNELL OFFERS REGULAR LINE-UP

All Players Out of Hospital; Waddell Is Captain; Rote Is Gettysburg's Hope

The seat sale for the Gettysburg-Bucknell game on Saturday opened yesterday. Indications point to a big crowd. The students will be on hand as usual with bands and cheer choruses. Special trains will bring 300 rosters from Lewisburg at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, and the Battlediel crowd will arrive a few minutes later. Each school will parade over the principal streets and will march to Island Park at 2 o'clock. The game starts at 2:30.

For the first time this season Bucknell will present a regular varsity backfield intact. Up until this game one or more of the combination have been in the sidelines because of injuries. In Hopler, Hendren, Herbine and Waddell as a second line of defense, Bucknell places great confidence. The veterans, Hopler and Hendren, have had several years' experience and have always given a good account of themselves on the island. Herbine and Waddell will appear for the first time as the defenders of Bucknell, and as they are natural players much is expected of them.

Waddell Is Captain

The Lewisburgians, when on the field, have as their marshal, Waddell, a heady and speedy youth. In him Coach Johnston has a general, who can be depended upon. If Waddell should not be selected to direct the team, then Hall, the Harrisburg boy, will get the call. Although this is his first year at Lewisburg, still, during his short stay, he has impressed the coaches as a player of no mean ability.

In comparison, the Gettysburg backfield consisting of Captain Stratton, Stoney, Houtz and Rote, is as strong as that of Bucknell. This combination is by far the fastest quartet that has ever represented the Battlediel school on the island. Captain Stratton and Stoney made their appearance in this city several years ago and can be depended upon to keep up their good record. Houtz will be remembered as the former Central high player, who, for the first time, will be seen in college football.

"Rabbit" Rote, the former Central captain. As Harvard has her Horween, Cornell her Shaverick, and Pennsylvania her Berry, so Gettysburg has her Rote. Around him, Berryman has built his whole team, every play is centered about him and depends upon him. He is an inestimable asset to the eleven, his punting is reliable and accurate and his natural instincts make him a great ground gainer. The alertness with which Rote intercepts forward passes makes him a dangerous man, for once the pigskin is tucked under his arm, and gets started he is sure to score.

WELLY'S CORNER

Williamsport High is anxiously waiting for Saturday, when they meet the Tech High eleven. The Bill-towners have some team and hope to put a crimp in Tech's winning stride. The local eleven will include "Snitz" Snyder and all the regulars. This has brought much encouragement, and they hope to add another scalp on Saturday.

The Harrisburg Academy eleven has a hard game for the wind up of the season. On Saturday Gettysburg Academy comes here for the annual battle. The result will be awaited with much interest. The local eleven has been winning laurels every week and will go into Saturday's battle full of pep and confidence.

The Hancock team, of Philadelphia, will be the attraction at Chestnut Street Auditorium Saturday night. Manager Ike McCord, of the Harrisburg Independents, will introduce the visiting players. This is a new feature and will be greatly appreciated.

Central High's football squad is back in form. While the score at Steelton last Saturday will never be forgotten, local players have settled down to work for future games. Central coaches have been touching up weak spots and Central promises to give Reading a hard battle.

ing demands upon his time made by the larger cities, have compelled him to add more courses in them each season, thus making it compulsory for him to drop from his annual lecturing tour many of the smaller cities. To-day his appearances are confined to only ten cities, which take all the time he can spare from his foreign travels. Burton Holmes (himself) will come to this city with the first of his series of five travelogues, entitled, "Canada, From Coast to Coast," on Friday, November 20, at the Orpheum Theatre.

Blanche Ring comes to the Orpheum next Wednesday's matinee and night, appearing in her latest success, "Broadway and Butternut," by Willard Mack, the author of many present day plays and vaudeville sketches. Now for the first time she will be seen as a Broadway matinee girl, who exchanges her smart city hats for a calico sunbonnet, and appears at Killbuck Falls, Me., just as full of romance and adventure as it is in New York City.

It is no small task for a young Scotch girl, just arrived from the old country, to go into an American lumber camp and win the affectionate regard of the rough men. That is the task which Jean MacGregor faced in "The Daughter of MacGregor," now being shown at the Regent with Valentine Grant in the stellar role.

To-morrow and Saturday — Charlie Chaplin will be presented in his newest and latest release, "Behind the Screen," said to be the funniest picture that Charlie ever stumbled through. You don't dare draw a breath for fear you'll blink your eyes, and if you blink your eyes goodness only knows what you'll miss.

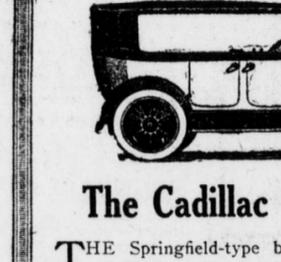

"The Power of Mind" will also be shown. This unusual drama treats of the influence of a master criminal on the mind of his daughter, who believes she has inherited criminal instincts until informed that her real father was an honest man.

Fair femininity is holding sway at the Majestic the last half of this week. Margaret Woodrow Wilson at the Orpheum, Friday evening.

ORPHEUM—Friday evening, at 8:20, Margaret Woodrow Wilson. Monday evening, November 20 — Burton Holmes. Wednesday, matinee and night, November 22 — Blanche Ring in "Broadway and Butternut."

MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. CENTRAL—"Fifty-Fifty." REGENT—"The Daughter of MacGregor." VICTORIA—"Her Surrender."

MELVILLE CLARK

Traveling each summer, the vogue for Burton Holmes' Travelogues increased so rapidly that for several years he gave an unusual series consisting of five different subjects each, in twenty-one of the principal cities of the east and Middle West, beside a similar series in San Francisco and Los Angeles. Since 1910, however, the increase

Norma Talmadge, the pretty Triangle star, has been seen at the Colonial Theater many times in many different characters, but it remained for Robert Shirley, author of "Fifty-Fifty," the new play in which she appeared at the Colonial Theater yesterday, to furnish her with a story that surpasses anything in which she was ever shown. The photoplay, which will be shown for the last time to-day, shows her in the role of a young wife whose husband has tired of her and is trying to divorce her, and she is trying to win back her only child. How she defeats both him and the law makes it, it is said, one of the finest and most interesting pictures ever screened. Chester Conklin, in a new two-reel Keystone comedy, called "A Tugboat Romeo," will keep you convulsed with laughter for a period of thirty minutes. "A Vagabond Prince" is the title of the new feature starring H. B. Warner, booked for Friday and Saturday.

A sex problem play that treats with this much discussed subject in an entirely different manner, "Her Surrender," presented at the Victoria Today, is the attraction for to-day, with Anna Nilsson in "Her Surrender." Anna Nilsson will be remembered for her work in the "Who's Guilty" picture play shown a few months ago. An all-star cast play in support of Miss Nilsson, to-day, will also show the "Romance of Harrisburg," played by a cast of local people, together with the fact that every scene was taken in and about our city has caused a great deal of interest in this picture. For to-morrow, a six-act drama, "The Iron Woman," featuring Nance O'Neil.

The Cadillac Convertible

THE Springfield-type body on the marvelous Cadillac eight-cylinder chassis makes a truly enviable car. For fair weather, winter or summer it is an open body touring car. But with the rain or snow comes the enclosed feature. By merely lifting the windows from their hiding places in the side panels, the open body (shown above) is immediately and effectively transformed into a closed car which is weather-tight and practical.

Let us give you the details of this new model.
