A Good, Warm Overcoat, Mr. Man

The First Taste of Real Winter Weather Is Only a Forerunner of What's to Come, So Get That Overcoat Without Further Delay

A Fresh Lot of Styles at $12.50, $15, $18, $20 and $25

Men who have been indifferent to the need of a good, warm overcoat were suddenly brought face to face with the proposition this week when the temperature dropped to a lower and more seasonable level.

When the "North wind blows" there are other creatures besides the robins who need warming—particularly the careless man without an overcoat.

So now that it is agreed that further delay is out of the question, drop in to-morrow and get acquainted with our stock of overcoats. See the dressy conservative styles, the smartest pinbacks, the big ulsters that fairly radiate warmth, the box-backs and other overcoat fashions of the hour.

Some are full lined and others are one-eighth, one-fourth and half lined. Both single and double-breasted styles. Some are English form-fitting, others have loose skirts. And all styles of pockets—slanting, patch and half moon.

To name the patterns and the fabrics is unnecessary. What's What In Overcoats is the easier and simpler way of telling the story.

In the stock of more conservative styles are dressy black and oxford overcoats from $10.00 to $50.00

B-r-r-r! You're Safe in An Ulster

There Are Men and Young Men Who Will Be Interested in This Clearance of Suits at $17.75

In the lot of suits taken right from our regular lines of $22.50 to $25.00 suits and reduced to $17.75 are styles almost too numerous to mention. Plenty of those popular belted backs and pin-backs in English two and three-button sacks and a liberal assemblage of the most conservative sacks. To be sure, in individual styles sizes are broken, but in the entire lot the range of sizes runs from 33 to 40. Plenty for men! Plenty for young men!
