

Peggy Alerts Christmas Chat

The Ladies' Home Journal, this month, suggests gifts of home made candles and cookies arranged in gift baskets, and no better baskets can be used for this purpose than the fragrant Indian sweet grass baskets shown at the Woman's Exchange, Third street at Herr, in every conceivable shape and size and including every possible price. Of course they are so delightful in themselves, that the filling of them is really superfluous. The new square and oblong baskets are particularly desirable for certain purposes, while the deep sewing baskets are always most useful.

STATIONERY OF DISTINCTION
If you want stationery of distinction, stop at Cotterell's, 9 N. Market Square and ask to see the clever and beautiful stationery they carry. Some of it is on display, but their stock is so large that it is impossible to show it all, and I was amazed at the assortment of unique and exclusive designs that was shown to me from the reserve stock, such as the lovely Nebulose lawn, a mottled effect in buff, the very thin Highland linen bond, the dainty simple blue paper and correspondence cards with panel border, the lovely tints of green and mauve with gilt bevel edge, and the stunning paper of unusual sizes with envelopes lined in contrasting shades, but all of these give just a hint of the variety offered at popular prices.

THE ERA OF SPECIALIZATION
"The Era of Specialization" is what holiday will say of this age, and it is certainly true that specialization has given us many of the worth-while things of to-day. The Studebaker Store, (now owned by Mr. George Barnes) Second street at the crossing of State, has specialized for years in "quality" groceries, and one of their "quality" products is coffee. Here again they have specialized on the Studebaker Blend of coffee, which they sell for 32c a lb. and while they offer some excellent grades of coffee at 25c a lb. or 5 lbs. for $1.00, and extra fine coffees up to 40c a lb., they specialize in the blend at 32c, because it is such a universal favorite.

SUGGESTIVE SAMPLES
I saw the loveliest bag, cleverly joined to form double points, and finished with a bit of crochet, at Astreich's, Fourth and Market streets, and I feel sure that a visit to this ribbon counter would be profitable to every woman who wants to make clever and unique Christmas gifts at very small expense. Astreich's offer not only an enormous assortment of truly beautiful ribbons, but they also have on display samples of many novel gifts to be made of ribbon, showing just how much material is used, how they are made, and just what the completed gift will cost. You will be delighted at the quality and beauty of the ribbons offered for just 25c.

HEADS UP!
"Cast your eyes upward!" is always a good motto, but especially good when you can see such stunning new sweaters as are shown in the upper sections of the windows at the Douthett Store for Men, 304 Market street. You will see many different styles in the window, but these are just a hint of the variety that awaits you inside the store. Of course, we all know Douthett's reputation for always having just what you want at just the price you want to pay, but when it comes to sweaters, Douthett's seem to try to beat their own record, — so large and so complete are the assortments.

THE NEW WHITE GOLD
You have probably read of white gold, — the new metal which looks like platinum, and yet is within the reach of "limited incomes." If you have not yet seen it, stop at the H. C. Claster Jewelry Shop, 302 Market street, and see the exquisite little wrist watch, in 14-kt. white gold, hand-engraved and beautifully shaped, which sells for $50.00. Claster's offer a splendid assortment of wrist watches in daintiest shapes and sizes, ranging from a fifteen jewel watch, with gold-filled bracelet and case, and 20-year guaranteed movement for $12.00, while another special, a seven jewel watch, also gold-filled and guaranteed, is offered for $7.50. You will fall in love with the cute little wrist watches for children, for just $3.50 with leather bracelet strap.

PICTURES OF HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES
Holiday festivities are fleeting pleasures which, however, often leave lasting memories of pleasant moments, and there is no better way to treasure these pleasures than by having a picture of the party. The Roshon Studio, 8 N. Market Square specializes on work of this kind at moderate prices, and gives most satisfactory results. They are glad to go outside the studio, to one's own home, or any place where a special event takes place, to photograph a group or a single individual, and an especially clever idea is to have a photograph taken of the family group who gather at the Thanksgiving board.

THE VOGUE OF SPATS
Have you noticed in all the pictures of the smart set, at the races and the horse show, fashionable women are wearing light colored spats? A clever girl, buys one pair of well-made black patent leather pumps, and several pairs of spats,—perhaps one pair of white, another of pearl gray, and another of the stunning new chamouis shade,—all of which are shown at the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, and in this way a variety of footwear is attained at minimum expense. The spats sell for just $2.00 a pair, cut high enough to cover a ten-inch boot, and finished with the usual Walk-Over attention to correct detail. The new chamouis color is extremely smart and looks well with costumes of almost every color.

WILL SURPRISE CHURCH SOCIETY

Sixty Singers of Moorhead Company Organize; Concert December 15

For, lo, these many moons some sixty odd employees of the Moorhead Knitting Company have harbored more than a sneaking suspicion that the Harrisburg Choral Society ranks do not contain ALL the good singers of the city and to prove it, the crowd has organized its own choral society with the intention of giving the first big concert December 15.

Friday, December 15, ordinarily would stick out pre-eminently in Moorhead Company's history under any circumstances—it's the day the annual Christmas savings fund is distributed. The chorists are going to give the occasion a little special class, that's all.

The concert will be held in the big recreation room of the Moorhead building and the singers will be trained by Prof. A. W. Hartman, one of the leading vocalists of the Messiah Lutheran Church choir. Mrs. Hoffman will be the pianist.

The coming song fest, by the way, isn't the only thing that the Moorhead folks do in a recreational and fun-producing way; for instance, there are the dances. There's to be one tomorrow evening, and the annual Thanksgiving dance. Music will be a feature, too, and an able orchestra will produce just the right kind. But to go on about the Choral Society.

Those Who Will Sing
G. W. Deiker was chosen president of the society and Miss Vera VanHorn is the secretary and treasurer. And here are the chorists: Sarah Arnold, Fannie Alberts, Ruth Bishop, Bess Beistline, P. H. ### You Can't Brush Or Wash Out Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. Do this to-night, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.—Advertisement.
