WOMAN GIVEN 6 CENTS SAYS JURY IS FIXED

Additional Law Judge McCarrill and shortly before noon to-day it was given to the jury.

In brief, Mr. Atticks charged Mrs. Baer with having said all sorts of scandalous things about the court, "painted and powdered and went down town to meet other men as soon as her husband's back was turned"; "that his husband was not a live-in with her"; "that men went into her house by the front door and came out by the back door."

All of which damaged her feelings and her reputation, she testified, to the extent of at least $500. And that's what she sued for.

The jury deliberated on the case for nearly two hours and then brought in a verdict against Mrs. Baer for 6 cents damages.

Whereupon Mrs. Atticks added the finishing touch to the proceedings.

She declared that Mrs. Baer had been seen talking with Foreman Fisher after the jury was selected; that two witnesses, Mrs. Shotland and Mrs. Bowers, had seen the pair conversing.

Foreman Fisher, suddenly precipitated into the limelight, denied that he had been seen or approached by anyone connected with the case; when he left the courtroom he had a collision at the recorder's office, transacted some business and then went to his hotel.

Recorder James E. Lentz and Deputy Recorder Mumma corroborated this statement.

Then on the witness stand Mrs. Baer calmly admitted that she was talking with a man who might have resembled Mr. Fisher—but that man was Mrs. Baer's brother. That denouement was brought out by her attorney, J. Clarence Funk.

So Additional Law Judge McCarrill dismissed the sudden, if exciting, inquiry.

Deportations of Belgians Worse Than First Invasion, Munitions Minister Writes

Have, Nov. 25.—Emile Vandervelde, minister of munitions in the Belgian cabinet and president of the International Association of Socialist Workers, has written to the members of the committee concerning the deportations of Belgian workmen to Germany, in part as follows:

"We might have believed that after submitting to invasion with its vicissitudes and occupation, with its miseries, our people had suffered all that a people could suffer, but now we see still to come. Despairing of being able to keep that which it had taken in dispersion of its faith and its word, the German government has determined to treat the Belgians as the conquered were treated in the age of Assyria and Babylon.

It was also announced to-day that new members had filed applications but would not sign until after January 1. In the opinion of Chairman Don F. Manahan the results of this campaign will eventually bring 300 new members.

The region covered includes the principal sections of the Middle States and the Central West, together with some portions of the Southern States.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY'S NEW EMPEROR AND ROYAL FAMILY

EMPEROR KARL FRANZ JOSEF, EMPRESS MARIA JOSEPHA, CROWN PRINCE FRANZ JOSEF OTTO, Born in 1912, and the Infant Archduchess Adelaide.

Archduke Karl Franz Josef, twenty-nine years old, will now assume the crown of the polyglot Austro-Hungarian Empire. He is a grandnephew of the late Emperor Franz Josef. The new Empress was Princess Zita Maria Josepha of Parma. Their union, a pure love match, was looked upon unfavorably by the aged Emperor.

While the new Emperor is not well versed in statecraft, he is popular with the masses, as is the new Empress, who was educated by the Benedictine monks. He entered the Seventh Dragoons as a lieutenant. Later he served in minor capacities in the infantry and the artillery. When the great war broke out he went to the front and has been on the firing line ever since, and at different times has held important commands, both in the West and the East.

OUTLINES SYSTEM ON ALL RAILROADS

that regulation of inter-State commerce by the federal government should not invade the rights of the States but merely carry out the express purpose of the constitution. He said: "It was not the purpose of the railroads to inaugurate a policy of abolition or construction of State commissions and that he believed they would occupy a large field of usefulness. But vesting the federal government with the regulating power would make it more business like by removing it from the influence of local politics and politics."

"It would furnish," said Mr. Thomas a surer basis for the confidence of the investing public, because more reliance would be put upon the judgment of the whole nation as affecting a matter of nation-wide consequence than could be placed in the varying judgment of different local authorities but it will be necessary to go much farther than simply simplifying and concentrating regulation.

YALE PULLS AHEAD OF HARVARD IN 2D PERIOD

The Crimson team, headed by Captain Dadmun, raced through the east portal for its short pre-game practice amid the plaudits of its enthusiasts. The Harvard regulars began strutting to the tune "Fair Harvard." Captain Dadmun called the turn of the coin and chose to defend the north goal.

Harvard for Yale, kicked off, the ball being fumbled by Casey on Harvard's five-yard line, but recovered by Captain Dadmun on the 18-yard line. Casey spurned all tacklers for a 5-yard gain against Gates' position. He slipped. Casey, turning to the left, failed to gain. Horwen booted to LaRoche on Yale's 29-yard line, the quarterback running the ball back to Harvard's 48-yard mark.

Legore gained three yards through Caner. Neville carried the ball at the tail of a four-man interference, gaining two yards inside Coolidge's position. Wheeler downed the runner. Neville attempted a forward pass to Legore, but the thrust failed when it fell to the ground unattached. Legore went back to kicking position and booted to Robinson at the Harvard 5-yard line. Only one yard was gained on the run back to the goal.

Both Play Aggressive Game Both teams were playing a hard, aggressive game. Tacher was sent against Yale's left flank, but was stopped without gain. Horwen went far down the field, the ball going out at Yale's 25-yard line. The Blue team set itself for another offensive attempt.

LaRoche, slipping outside Snow, gained three yards. Legore booted it once, Robinson making a fair catch on Harvard's 35-yard line. The Harvard end moved the ball to Casey a bit slow and only a yard was made. Robinson forward passed to Casey for a five-yard advance, Neville making the kick. Horwen then kicked, LaRoche being downed on Yale's 21-yard line.

The Harvard ends were fast down the field. Neville moved three yards against Wheeler before the latter stopped him. Legore kicked, but the ball glanced off his toes and went outside at Yale's 23-yard line. Harvard was now fighting in Yale's territory.

Harvard Penalized Horwen broke through the center of the Blue line for three yards. Then Casey turned inside of Captain Black's position for a four-yard gain. The play, however, was recalled and a penalty of fifteen yards imposed on Crimson for holding. It was Harvard's ball at midfield. A forward pass was tried but Coolidge could not reach the ball in time. Horwen punted to Yale's 26-yard line where LaRoche fumbled, Tacher recovering.

Harvard started another attack from Yale's 26-yard line. Horwen's drive against Captain Black was stopped. On a delayed pass and hidden ball play, Casey sent the ball almost to the 40-yard line. Captain Black called upon his teammates to hold hard. They responded by holding Horwen's rush to less than a yard. He was fouled by Robinson and Robinson went foul and standing on the 28-yard line kicked the ball fairly between the posts.

Yale on Defensive Comerford held Casey who, fumbling on his ten-yard line, knocked the ball into Robinson's hands. The latter made eight yards before he was downed. Robinson punted at once, LaRoche catching the ball and recovering the ball for a three-yard rush. Legore started an end run but was checked by Wheeler. He punted on the 20-yard line, the ball going high but stopping short on Yale's 44-yard line, from which place Harvard started a rush.

A punter was called from his end position to carry the ball, by a fumble. Score end first period: HARVARD, 3; YALE, 0. Taking full advantage of the strong wind at back Harvard kept Yale on the defensive during the first half. The Crimson showed its usual deceptive attack and scored when Yale opened the way with a fumble.

Harvard had the ball on Yale's 41-yard line opening the period. On a forward pass from Robinson, Neville, on Yale's intercept on Yale's 23-yard line, LaRoche gained a yard and a drive against Harle, and added another on a burst through the line.

Fumble Mars Play Fumble on the next play which went for a loss. Legore booted to Robinson, who was downed where he caught the ball on Harvard's 29-yard line. On the next play Casey made a rush through Yale's twisting stride.

He raced down the field back of Yale's goal, but the play was declared foul because of the violation of the line, which enforced a penalty of twenty yards on the Crimson. Harvard from the 15-yard line then took up again its offensive play. After Tacher kicked, Legore downed the ball and Harvard punted to LaRoche, the latter sprawling as he caught it on Harvard's 24-yard line and made no run on the play. Legore slanted against Wheeler for a two-yard advance. Neville kicked a forward pass which was blocked. The ball went to Harvard's 40-yard line.
