AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM—To-night—Leopold Godowsky, assisted by Belle Story. Saturday, matinee and night, December 9—"The Prince of Pilsen." Monday evening, December 11—The German Fatherland, with Burton Holmes.

MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"Jim Grimsby's Boy." REGENT—"Witchcraft." VICTORIA—"The Common Law."

Godowsky's program for his recital at the Orpheum this evening, when he will be assisted by Miss Belle Story, the charming American prima donna, includes the numbers to which his name is forever associated. These include the Etude of Chopin's for one hand, the left hand alone; the Etude on the black keys only is another one. Then for the opening sonata he gives "Chopin's op. 8, in E Minor." A very popular number will be his own arrangements of "Symphonic Metamorphoses" of John Strauss' waltz, "Wein, Web and Gesang." Among the numbers on the concluding part of his program are to be found, "Marche Militaire" by Schubert-Tausig; "Campanella," by Liszt; "Berceuse," by Henselt, and "Tocatta," op. No. 11, by St. Saens.

At the Orpheum to-morrow, matinee and night, the tuneful and familiar airs of that most virile of musical comedies, "The Prince of Pilsen," will be heard again. The beauty of these songs, such as "The Message of the Violets," "The Tale of the Sea Shell," "The Stein Song," with its swinging Heidelberg refrain, "The Song of the Cities," lectures in Smoke, and others, have served in a large measure to maintain a lasting popularity for this entertainment.

One of the most important attractions coming to the Orpheum this season will be Cyril Maude in "Grumpy," at the Orpheum on December 13. The actor has gained a remarkable degree of favor with theatergoers in this country in the past three seasons. Mr. Maude is now making his fourth and final tour of the country in this delightful comedy-drama, and the occasion of his coming visit to Harrisburg will be the only opportunity that local playhouse patrons will have to witness the actor's charming characterization of the octogenarian lawyer's "Grumpy."

An all-star cast, headed by the popular comedian, Barney Williams, is employed in the musical comedy, "Hello Honolulu," appearing at the Majestic Theater the last half of this week. There is lots of fun and good singing, which consists chiefly of popular Hawaiian melodies, while much that is favorable can be said of the beautiful costumes and attractive stage setting. Another act on the bill is that of Heager and Goodwin, who offer a bunch of nonsense that is seemingly endless and which keeps everybody in good humor. Other pleasing acts are: Jarvis and Harrison, presenting their comedy vehicle, "Shooting the Moon"; the Yamamoto Brothers, in an excellent wire-walking act, and Thomas and Henderson, clever song and dance entertainers.

Enid Markey and Frank Keenan will be starred in a new Triangle production at the Colonial Theater to-day and to-morrow. "The Common Law," a gripping story of the mountains which tells of a rugged old gold miner, whose great desire is for a son. He marries only with that expectation. Great is his wrath when fate gives him a daughter. The mother dying, Jim tries to correct nature's blunder by naming his child "Bill" and raising her as a boy. But "Bill" can't be fooled by the mere fact that she wears trousers and into believing that things are as they ought to be. When she finds a tattered magazine one day she reads the name of a handsome young sheriff takes her eye shortly afterward it becomes certain that Jim is going to lose his son. There is considerable love-making, plenty of excitement and a little shooting before "Bill" is going to lose her. Her fall gowns, but father finally takes his medicine with good grace. A new two-reel Keystone comedy, the title of which has not yet been announced, will complete the program.

The great crowds who witnessed the initial presentation of the three-day engagement of "The Common Law" at the Victoria Theater yesterday and will be shown again to-day and to-morrow, speaks volumes for the character of the Victoria shows as well as for the popularity of Clara Kimball Young as an actress. "The Common Law" is the first of the Selznick picture plays and is considered by eminent critics to be one of the best yet cast upon the screen. Admission: First floor, 30 cents; balcony, 10 cents; children, 10 cents. Shown every two hours commencing at 9:50 a. m.

The main attraction at the Regent to-day and to-morrow will be the paramount attraction, "Witchcraft," a weird and fascinating drama, today and tomorrow. The ancient New England superstition of the innocent by unjust and ignorant persecution and the final end of the folly by the Governor's proclamation in 1693, are shown. This thrilling drama, by Dr. R. Falcon Reed, won the prize in the photodramatic contest held at Columbia College. "Purity" the sensational photoplay to be seen the first three days of next week, is in distinct contrast to the usual feature production. One hundred and fifty pretty girls, dacing in diaphanous robes, is said to be one of the strikingly beautiful scenes in "Purity." Audrey Munson, the world's greatest artists' model and famous beauty, appears in the stellar role.

RUB YOUR BACK! STOPS LUMBAGO

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica, or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief at the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drugstore, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt you again. No more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years. Stop drugging kidneys! They cause backache because they have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain.

MOVIE ARGUES AGAINST WORLD WAR

Thomas H. Ince's cinema spectacle, "Civilization," will be shown for an entire week at the Victoria Theater, commencing Monday, December 11. In some quarters it has been thought that the great Ince masterpiece was merely a production of war pictures, but this is not the case. "Civilization" does show war in all its horrors, but on the other hand it is an argument for permanent peace and points out the surest way to obtain it. Thomas H. Ince spent $1,000,000 to produce "Civilization" as a protest against war. In the picture he shows peace, then war, and peace restored. He did this to make the contrast and show the futility of sacrificing men to the cannon. The peace scenes are those that can be found in all countries not at war and are followed by great battles on land, in the air and on the sea. A passenger steamship is destroyed, a submarine sunk, aeroplanes are brought to earth, a city is destroyed, all to show war's horrors. Thomas H. Ince has gained the commendation of the clergy for introducing the Nazarene in "Civilization." Generally it is not regarded as advisable to go to this extreme, but in "Civilization" the introduction is not only a novelty, but a wonderful lesson that instantly wins approval. "Civilization" is to be presented twice daily. A special orchestra will play the music, which was written specially for "Civilization."

Paid $2,200 For Gold Dust; Finds It Brass

Allentown, Pa., Dec. 8. — For the first time in twenty years or more the gold brick swindle was worked here according to a loud wail made to the police. J. A. Rind, a jeweler from the Bronx, was the victim, and he spent the afternoon swearing out warrants.

Rind is a Dutchman from Amsterdam, descendant of a long line of jewelers and diamond cutters. He came here and visited a brokerage office conducted by Irving von Schwartz. He had learned that Von Schwartz had a big pile of gold dust, procured through the crew of the entered German cruisers, and he came on to test it.

The reaction showed gold beyond a doubt. He accordingly paid $2200 for the pile, which he supposed worth a great deal more. The howl came when he learned he had bought some brass filings worth $2.

Besides, Rind's money, Von Schwartz is said to have taken the proceeds of many small checks, mere loans for a night, which customers had gladly cashed for him.

Francis Joseph Left $50,000 to Actress

London, Dec. 8. — A Berne dispatch says that the will of Emperor Francis Joseph, which was opened the morning after his death to ascertain whether it contained directions for his funeral, was found to make a bequest of $50,000 to the actress Katharina Schratz.

This part of the will, the dispatch says, was dated some years back, while other clauses had been added during the war. Princess Elizabeth, the emperor's granddaughter, inherits the same amount.

Katharina Schratz, formerly of the Imperial theater, for years was an intimate of Francis Joseph. At Schoenbrunn Castle, Frau Schratz was accustomed to appear nearly every afternoon to keep the emperor company for an hour or two. He in turn called at her town house, where he was able to meet friends of his own choosing and not guests imposed on him by etiquette or reasons of State. The relations between the two continued in the emperor's old age, and became accepted in Vienna, where the severe criticism they caused in earlier years, before the death of the empress, gradually died away.

SHOULD MAKE A MILLION FOR HIM

Cincinnati man discovers drug that loosens corns so they lift out.

Local druggists are having a tremendous call for freezeone, the drug which is said to shrivel a corn, root and all, without any pain.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness at once, and shortly the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out with the fingers.

This new drug is being dispensed at small cost in quarter ounce bottles, which is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn from one's feet. It is a sticky substance which dries at once, and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue one inviting death by infection or lockjaw from cutting their corns now.
