A Quarter of a Million Dollars More of Gift Things

CHRISTMAS is approaching on winged heels—only 10 more buying days remain, and the last of them will be days of such tremendous activity that this great store will be taxed to its utmost.

Selections are still large and desirable, due to the fact that we have a quarter of a million dollars more of merchandise than we ever presented heretofore.

We urge upon everyone to make full use of the advantages the present week affords for satisfactory shopping.

The store will not be open in the evenings before another week. Shop in the morning, please!
