NO NEED TO FEAR BALDNESS

Tells How to Make Hair Grow Thick and Lustrous on Bald and Thin Spots

Thousands of men and women are growing bald every day and don't know the reason why. This is indeed a pity, says a hair specialist, who states that baldness usually comes from carelessness, and that anyone who gives the hair just a little attention should always have an abundance of good, healthy hair. Dandruff and dirt cause baldness by clogging the pores in the scalp, and by giving the dandruff germs fertile ground for prolific breeding. The treatment is very simple; remove the dirt by shampooing at least once in ten days and destroy the dandruff germs by frequently applying a little of the real Parisian Sage, a most efficient preparation that the best druggists everywhere are now recommending as one of the quickest and safest treatments to surely stop itching scalp and falling hair, remove all dandruff and to properly nourish and invigorate the hair roots. Parisian Sage is also the discriminating woman's favorite hair dressing because it gives her hair a softness and luster that fascinate and command admiration. A generous bottle costs but little from H. C. Kennedy, who guarantees it to you.

Interesting Meeting of the Daughters of 1812

The December meeting of the Keystone Chapter U. S. D. 1812, will be held at 2 p. m. on Tuesday of this week at the Civic Clubhouse with Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones as hostess. The meeting promises to be interesting. There will be some delightful vocal numbers by Mrs. Jos. A. Hayes with Miss Corbett as accompanist. The Rev. Dr. J. Bradley Markward will give an address on "Martin Luther—The Hero of the Reformation." Current events will be presented by Mrs. Jones, and the Regent, Mrs. Mersereau, will give a report of the recent State board meeting in Philadelphia. It being the annual meeting, election of officers will be held after the chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. Jones, has read her report. Mrs. James J. McCarrell of Denver, Colo., is visiting Judge and Mrs. S. J. McCarrell, at 121 Locust street. Mrs. John H. Campbell of 254 Cumberland street, and her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Allen Bayard, of Crank, Saskatchewan, Can., leave Friday for Greensburg to spend the Christmas holidays.

Sunshine Plans to Send Merry Christmas to Many

When the great day, for which every one is so busily planning, rolls around, there will be many grateful hearts among the poor and shut-ins of the city and many happy faces among the cripples for whom the Sunshine Society is planning a Merry Christmas. At the meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday afternoon a large and enthusiastic gathering of members discussed the ways and means for making this one of the happiest events that they have ever planned. Toys and candy will be distributed among the poor and crippled children, warm clothing will be given to those in need of it and pretty baskets of fruit will find their way into the homes of the shut-ins. Over-shoes will be distributed among the needy children of the open air school and the old ladies of the city will be given a flowering potted plant. Doesn't it make you feel as though you want to help? Well if it does, the society invites you to meet with the members at the Y. M. C. A. building on Thursday afternoon, December 21 at 2 o'clock when they will pack the baskets and fill the stockings. If you have any clothing, toys, fruit or candy or the name of a needy child, please bring it to the office of the Sunshine Society, 117 Market street, where you will be glad to receive it.

Dr. Densler's S. S. Class Enjoys Evening at Club

HERE FOR CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Miss Jane Winkler of Dinghamton, N. Y., will be the guest of Miss Ruth Kinzer Payne during the holiday season and will be here for Miss Payne's coming out party.

Dr. Wilmor H. Balsey, Mrs. Wilmor H. Balsey and daughter, Helen Terry Balsey, have gone home to Altoona, after visiting Mrs. Frank E. Cummings of North fourth street.

Mrs. Bertram Stewart of Chicago is visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter E. Burrows of State street, for a few days.

Give "Over the Rainbow" in Tech School Tonight

The Junior Christian Endeavor Societies of the city will repeat their play, "Over the Rainbow," this evening in the Technical High School Auditorium at 8 o'clock. The Juniors gave this play during the Christian Endeavor convention last July. The cast includes about one hundred children who have been efficiently drilled by the Rev. R. L. Meisenhelder, assisted by Miss Emily Edwards and Miss Ada Wills. A silver offering will be taken tonight and the Juniors will use the proceeds derived in providing a Christmas for the poor of the city. Mrs. Samuel C. Todd of North Front street, leaves Saturday for Reading, Mich., to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Weatherill. Mrs. J. B. Breaux, of Princeton, N. J., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wareham S. Baldwin at 231 Maclay street. Bruce Parker of Fulton, Ill., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ernest at 2119 North Sixth street. Miss Julia Stamm, of Thirteenth and Reese streets was a bridesmaid at the MacMurray-Kilne wedding in Chicago on Saturday.

Tech High School Notes

Earl Sherer announced in chapel a meeting of the Camera Club for this afternoon at the close of school. Any one owning a camera or having access to one has been invited to attend. The executive committee of the school athletic association met this morning in the forepart of next week, to the members of the football squad. President Frank Gipple, Vice-President Joseph Todd and Secretary Victor Snyder, together with the members of the team, will be in charge of the several athletic teams, constitute the executive board. Miss Katharine G. Hammelbaugh, the Tech secretary, missed her first day of school yesterday since being connected with Tech. Her absence was due to the illness of her mother. George L. Stark, editor of the Tech News, has announced that the Christmas number of the school paper will come from the press December 21. Christmas stories, an all-faculty football team and cartoons by Bratton will feature it.

SOMETHING NEW

Soft and silky in its finish, fine and delicate in texture, and smart and graceful in its cut, and the color of a blushing rose, is the new sweater shown at Astrich's, Fourth and Market street, which is one of many shown in holiday assortment, that the old name of sweater hardly expresses all their charm and beauty. There is every style that the well-dressed woman could possibly want for motor or sports wear, while school and college girls will delight in the clever designs shown in rose, delft blue, navy, green and gray, and made with deep sailor collars, small collars to fit snugly at the neck, and with or without the belts. Prices are most moderate at this store.

THE VOGUE OF TAN FOOTWEAR

You cannot be well-dressed this season without at least one pair of tan shoes. The splendid assortment offered at the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, includes all of the smartest designs in the new tan footwear. There are the new cherry tones in deep mahogany tones, the sturdy cord-tans, the fine Russia calf-skins and smart combinations of brown suede and calf, some with English walking heel, some with French heel, some with plain tip and others with wing tip, but each is the smartest of its particular type, and the beauty of this assortment is the wide variety which makes it possible to find just what best suits your need. Prices on tan footwear are $7.50 and $8.00.

FOR MUSIC LOVERS

Music-loving people who have had no time or opportunity to study music will find their greatest joy in playing a player-piano such as those shown at the J. H. Troup Music House, 15 S. Market Square, with which every shading of expression, every delicate change in tempo, and modulation can be accurately reproduced by the person who controls it, and never have the holiday displays of pianos offered more variety than at this store right now. There are upright and grand pianos, players, electrically and pedal controlled in every kind of finish, and representing many makes of pianos, while the name and reputation of this old-established house stands back of their personal guarantee with every purchase.

THOSE MEN!

Men are not really so hard to buy gifts for if one knows where to go, and I found just scores of interesting gift suggestions for men at the H. C. Cluster Jewelry Shop, 302 Market streets, and prices here range from

TO ENCOURAGE "FAMILY SHOPPING"

It is certainly true that busy men have no time for shopping in the daytime, and in consideration of this fact, the Dourich Store for Men, 304 Market street, have arranged to be open every night from now until Christmas. It is a neatly stocked store, consisting of a razor strap, roller compactly in a nickel container, with a hook on which to fasten it for use, a nickel case for shaving stick and a box of toilet powder, and these attractive Christmas sets sell for just $1.00. This is one of the most practical gifts I have seen for a man who shaves, for it contains all the needed articles, neatly boxed for convenience, and the shining nickel makes the gift most attractive.

A CLEVER GIFT FOR A MAN

A very clever novelty to give a man for Christmas is shown at the Golden Seal Drug Store, 11 S. Market Square. It is a neatly stocked store, consisting of a razor strap, roller compactly in a nickel container, with a hook on which to fasten it for use, a nickel case for shaving stick and a box of toilet powder, and these attractive Christmas sets sell for just $1.00. This is one of the most practical gifts I have seen for a man who shaves, for it contains all the needed articles, neatly boxed for convenience, and the shining nickel makes the gift most attractive.

JUST RECEIVED

Just received, and as beautiful as they are new, are the sets of Turkish bath towels, small towel and wash cloth to match, shown at the Woman's Exchange, Third street at Her, attractively arranged in a pretty gift box. They come in white with beautiful borders of blue, yellow or rose. An initial in French knots could be made appropriately embroidered on some of these where a place for initial or monogram is arranged, while some of the other sets are complete and most attractive without the embroidery. These sets are offered for just $1.19, while an exceptionally fine quality set for just $1.50.
