The Fortunes of Emily

By HAL COFFMAN

CHAPTER XI. The night before Emily's ship reached Liverpool Emily came back to her stateroom after dinner. The contents of her suitcase were tossed all about as if someone had been searching for something. As she closed the door someone lurched against it and it flew open. The man who did it apologized, saying the motion of the ship had thrown him against it.

Emily's trip back to New York was uneventful. She arrived at the office and resumed her work where she left off before starting for London. As she went into Mr. Grimshaw's office all the old gentleman said at first was: "About time you got back here." I fired Forbes. The rest of 'em are 'nough to drive a man crazy," then he started dictating letters, never saying a word about her London trip.

Ringworms On Arms Itched and Burned Till Almost Crazy Healed By Cuticura

"The first sign of ringworms on my arms was little pimples and blisters. I scratched them and they got very large and red, and the skin around them would be all inflamed. They spread all down my arms to the wrists, and I could not sleep. When my clothes rubbed against them they itched and burned so that they almost set me crazy. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment which gave me relief. Then I bought one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Ointment and in four weeks the ringworms were completely healed." (Signed) Miss Gertrude Kile, 1845 Harold St., Philadelphia, Pa., June 13, 1916.

Cuticura Soap not only works wonders in all cases of skin troubles but its properties are so mild and so delicately combined that it is ideal for use in the toilet. Cuticura Ointment will do more than the majority of expensive creams in keeping the skin smooth and clear.

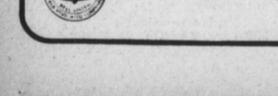

For Free Sample Each by Return Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. H, Boston." Sold everywhere.

WHERE IS THE MOTHER with a child who is rundown, has pale cheeks or thin blood, who will hesitate to give that child the very thing it needs to start it growing and keep it going? For over forty years the concentrated liquid-food in Scott's Emulsion has been changing thinness to plumpness—changing poor blood to rich blood.

There is nothing better for growing children—whether they are weak or well—than Scott's Emulsion, but see that you get the genuine Scott's. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

SLATER SCHOOL MAN IN CITY

J. P. Rawley, of Washington, Tells of Work of North Carolina Institution

J. P. Rawley, of Washington, D. C., a native of North Carolina and greatly interested in the advancement of the colored people, was here a few hours yesterday in the interest of a negro industrial school which has been largely supported by Northern people. He made this statement: "There are very few institutions in our great nation that are doing more good in upbuilding the colored race and making them self-reliant and self-respecting citizens than the Slater Industrial School for Colored People at Winston-Salem, N. C., and perhaps it would not be overstating the case to say William A. Blair, who is treasurer of the school and vice-president of the People's National Bank of that town, is doing more to help the poor, handicapped negroes of the South than any other white man.

"The school buildings, land and appliances have cost $70,000. It is the third colored school in importance. So great is its influence that the State Legislature has offered the trustees $12,000 if they can raise the same amount. It is totally impossible for them to meet this offer, as they have strained themselves to the extreme limit to bring it to its present worth. If each reader of this article will slip one dollar into an envelope and mail it to the treasurer, William A. Blair, Winston-Salem, N. C., the money will be raised and the school buildings erected. This small amount will not hurt anyone and will very greatly aid a most worthy national cause.

"It is a sad sight to see the number of colored children turned away from this school for lack of accommodation. If our readers knew the facts in detail concerning this school, it would give them much pleasure to respond to this call and send the $1 immediately, thus helping the trustees raise $12,000 to meet the offer made by the State Legislature. Any donation made now will multiply four times when it becomes brick and mortar, as the students and friends of the school will do the construction work when the materials are furnished. Let it be remembered that the colored citizens are loyal citizens. Not one of them has ever raised a hand against our flag, and many of them are now in our army, and brave soldiers. Should the President call for volunteers, the colored people would do their full share.

"If every reader who sees this item would send in $1 to Treasurer Blair, the school equipment and efficiency could be increased to the extent of $48,000."

Be Careful in Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mulsified coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a quantity will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful of all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, lustrous, wavy, and styled. It besides it cleanses and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

LADES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know. The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Whenever her hair took on that dull, colorless tinge, she applied our simple mixture with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore your natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Dr. Ferdinand King says: EVERY WOMAN EVERY MOTHER EVERY DAUGHTER NEEDS IRON AT TIMES

To put strength in her nerves and color in her cheeks.

There can be no beautiful, healthy, rosy cheeks, unless the women with-out iron. The iron that you need is not the iron that you get in the ordinary medicine. It is the iron that you get in the Nuxated Iron. It is the iron that you get in the Nuxated Iron. It is the iron that you get in the Nuxated Iron.

NOTE: NUXATED IRON recommended above by Dr. King can be obtained from any druggist, or from the National Iron and Steel Company, 100 South Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Without a physician's prescription, on an absolute guarantee of a full refund of money if not satisfied.—Advertisement.

Less Coal in the Yard

THE coal shortage has not been exaggerated. Homekeepers who have heeded the warning have filled their bins with a full winter's supply. There are many as usual, who only buy as they need it. With less coal being mined because of the lack of cars to haul it to the market, and shortage in the yard as a consequence, there is not going to be enough to go around if the winter is severe.

What will you do if you can't get coal when you need it? H. M. Kelley & Co. Office, 1 North Third Yards, Tenth and State
