LIVE BIRD SHOOT FOR ALL COMERS

Will Be Held at Reading Thursday, February 8; Trophy For Eastern Championship

Reading, Pa., Jan. 26.—The fifth annual midwinter live bird shoot of the Hercules Gun Club of Reading, a member of the Pennsylvania State Sportsmen's Association, scheduled for Thursday, February 8, over the Spring Valley traps, this city, promises to be the largest attended live bird shoot of the season. The feature event of this annual shoot will be the great eastern live bird handicap at 20 birds, 215 entrance, sliding handicap 27 to 30 yards. All shooters killing their first ten birds straight will be moved back two yards, while all who miss two birds in their first ten will be moved up two yards.

For Eastern Championship
The purse in this classic blue ribbon event of trapdoor will be divided 40, 20, 20 and 10 per cent, the high gun to receive the handsome Hercules Gun Club trophy, a chest of silver, emblematic of the live bird championship of the East. The Hercules Gun Club has also donated a handsome trophy to be awarded the lady scoring high of the fair sex competing, while the three low guns will also receive trophies. Shooting in the great eastern handicap will be started promptly at 10:30 a. m., the shoot to be held rain or shine.

Eleven Miners Overcome by Gas Rescued From Death

Mahanoy City, Pa., Jan. 26.—While fighting the fire in the Glendon section of the Primrose mines, yesterday, Fred Benfield, Richard Benfield, Thomas Lamb, James Doyle and James Bradley, of Centralia; Hugh Roland, Dennis Gallagher, Comdy Gallagher, Harry Valentine and William Rupert, of Audenried, and Thomas Matthews, of Mahanoy City, were overcome by the fumes of white damp and dropped unconscious in the mine. A searching party later found the eleven men and brought them to the surface, where they are being treated in the mine rescue car. It is thought all will recover. The men were sent out from the supply base properly equipped with helmets, and when they failed to return rescuers were sent over the same route. It is believed that the oxygen failed to work properly. The fire is still raging with unabated fury, though volumes of water are being poured in upon it.

Players Vote to Sustain Action of David Fultz

New York, Jan. 26.—Baseball players from many clubs in both major and minor leagues at a meeting here last night voted to sustain the action of President David Fultz, of the Players' Fraternity, in calling a strike of the players next month unless their demands are granted. Twenty-five men attended the meeting. President Fultz, who presided, read telegrams from Tris Speaker, of Cleveland, and Al Demaree, of Chicago, pledging their support. Paul H. Turner, attorney for the Actors' Equity Association, described the benefits the association obtained by virtue of its affiliation with the American Federation of Labor. He asserted that their connection with the federation did not necessarily mean standardized pay for actors. This, he added, also would apply to baseball players.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Marietta.—Franklin Freehafer, of Adamstown, aged 68, died Wednesday from a stroke. He was a painter by trade and is survived by his wife and several children.
Marietta.—E. R. Green, aged 68, died at the Brethren Home after an illness of several years from a complication of diseases. He is survived by two children.
Reamstown.—Mrs. W. M. Hurst, wife of Dr. Hurst, aged 74, died Wednesday night of pneumonia. She is survived by her husband and six children.
LICENSE APPLICATIONS FILED
Middleburg, Pa., Jan. 26.—License court will be held in Middleburg February 9. Applications have been filed in the office of the prothonotary of Snyder county for fifteen retail and one wholesale liquor license.

Became Bigamist "to Save Children"

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Ellen K. Allgood Netterville became a bigamist so that her four children might not starve, she told Judge Barrett the other day. Her husband, Frank Allgood, left her, she said, so she married Jack Netterville for the sake of her children. Judge Barrett has deferred a decision in the case, pending investigation.
THE STRAPHANGER IN TOKYO
After one has ridden for a few weeks on Tokyo trams, he realizes that more than two million people, living within a radius of three miles of the Imperial Palace, require many trams to carry them. Seats are always at a premium. Even the New York subway is not as continually crowded. The trams are fast, well handled and plentiful. But a moving stairway or sidewalk covering all the tram lines in the city would scarcely fill the bill.
There are five or six stations from which trains depart for different parts of the empire, but these stations are only joined by city trams, so that if one wants to go from Tokyo station, the terminus of the Shimonoseki line to Europe, to Ueno station, whence trains depart for Nikko, Karuizawa, Sendai and Hokkaido, he must take a ricksha, a taxicab or a street car, or else circle the city for more than twenty miles in more than an hour to reach a station that is only a mile and a half away as the crow flies.—Maynard Owen Williams, in the Christian Herald.

Carrie's Hatchett Is Still Working

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 26.—Ten years ago Carrie Nation, the militant Kansas prohibitionist, now departed from earth's activities, delivered an address on a square in Memphis, and at its conclusion presented Police Captain John M. Couch with a hatchett as a souvenir of her visit. The hatchett had been used in many a barroom raid. Captain Couch threw the hatchett in a locker at police headquarters. Prohibition was not thought of for Memphis in those days. The town was wide open. Carrie was not taken seriously. Recently Captain Couch headed a blind tiger raid, and finding it necessary to batter down a door, sent to headquarters for a hatchett. Carrie Nation's old hatchett was removed from the locker and with it the captain battered his way into the dive, where a vast quantity of liquor was stored. Since that raid the hatchett has been in almost constant use, breaking flasks and knocking heads out of cracks and barrels of contraband liquor. Memphis is dry legally, and is being made dry in reality by the aid of Carrie's hatchett.
