

MAIL ENTRY BLANKS FOR STATE HIGH SCHOOL MEET - TRENTON HERE TOMORROW

MAIL ENTRY BLANKS FOR STATE HIGH SCHOOL MEET; SIXTEEN EVENTS ON LIST

Entry blanks have been mailed out by George W. Hill, Jr., secretary of the Harrisburg track athletic committee inviting the members of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Association to send track teams to the meet that will be held on the island May 26. The meet is expected to surpass all other in point of attendance.

Sixteen events are on the schedule including the special event—throwing the javelin. The letter to the high school of the State is as follows:

Letter to Principals

"At this time the Harrisburg Track Athletic committee wishes to announce that the Pennsylvania Interscholastic championships will be held at Harrisburg, May 26. This date was selected so as not to conflict with any other important high school meet and give ample opportunity for the highest development of any individual or team. This meet at the Capital City has become the championship class of the State. The records established here stand out above any other, and compare favorably with those of the National championships.

The prizes offered by the committee for the coming meet are: First a trophy shield to be contested for, for five years. The Harrisburg Technical high school has two plates on this shield. In addition a large silver loving cup will be awarded the team winning the meet, to be held permanently. Also a team prize of a loving cup will be awarded to the winner of the relay championship. A loving cup will be given the individual scoring the highest number of points. Gold, silver and bronze medals of a new and beautiful design will be given in each event.

Special Event

The javelin throw will be included for the first time; prizes same as for regular events, but the points not to count.

This meet will be open to the students of all schools which are members of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association, and to be eligible each entrant must be certified to have conformed to the scholastic and amateur rules of the above association. All entries must be in by the first mail Monday, May 21.

The Bethlehem Steel Company, Steelton, will be represented in the Bethlehem Steel Company Baseball League this season. Final plans have not been completed for the league, but it is expected that a schedule will be mapped out within a week. The teams which will be represented in the league are Steelton, Lebanon, Sparrow's Point, Bethlehem, the Harland and Hollingsworth Mills, Wilmington and the Fore-River Shipbuilding Company, Quincy, Mass. It is likely that each team will play the other twice during the season, with the two leading teams playing a series for the championship.

GIANT WALTER HOLKE COMING STRONG

There is one Giant who is coming strong. His name is Walter Holke. He made a sensational spurt last season and indications are he will repeat his record this year.

MCCORD'S FIVE MEETS TRENTON

"Doc" Newman and League Stars Will Play Here Tomorrow Night

Manager Ike McCord and his independent five will play one of the hardest games on their schedule to-morrow night when Doc Newman, the sensational Eastern League star, will bring the Trenton League team to town.

The locals defeated the Trenton team earlier in the season and are on the warpath to duplicate the feat. Yesterday the Independents had a hard workout with the Central high school quintet. A great deal of stress was laid upon the defensive play and the team work of the locals. Both Trenton and Harrisburg will put the regulars in the game and as both are anxious to win—one to keep the slate clean and the other for revenge—the contest should be one of the fastest of the season. The appearance of Doc Newman alone assures the fans of a good exhibition.

Ike McCord and his men have made an excellent record this season and will work hard to put the remaining games on the schedule in the win column. There will be no respite in the practices and the Independents will go after the Rosewoods hard in the final game of the season. This contest will be for the independent championship of the city.

Juniors Trim Sophs In Tech Class League; "Dutch" Miller is Star

The Junior team waxed the Sophs yesterday afternoon in an interclass basketball game played in the Tech gymnasium by a score of 27 to 24. The victory put the Juniors within half a game from the lead and another win from the Freshman this afternoon will deadlock the series. The result will then give each team four out of possible six victories.

The first half ended 12 to 11 with the Juniors in the lead. "Dutch" Miller was the big gun for the victors, tossing in four field goals. John Beck did good work from a guard position for the second year lads.

The line-up and summary:

Sophomores: Miller, f. Bihl, f. Ebert, f. Holland, f. Frank, c. Huston, c. Beck, g. Lloyd, g. Moore, g. Frock, g.

Juniors: Field goals, Beck 3, Frank 2, Miller 4, Holland 3, Huston. Goals from foul, Holland, 9 out of 15; Bihl, 14 out of 20. Referee, Grubb. Scorer, Fortna.

RICKEY BELONGS TO BROWNS

St. Louis, March 23.—Branch Rickey's assumption of the presidency of the St. Louis Nationals will not be sanctioned by the National Commission if it is in violation of Rickey's old contract with the St. Louis Americans, according to a telegram received here yesterday from President Ban Johnson, of the American League.

Rickey asserts he had a verbal agreement with President Ball, of the Americans, permitting him to leave whenever he had a chance to better himself. His salary with the Nationals, it is said, would be double his $7,500 stipend as business manager of the Americans.

WELLY'S CORNER

Baseball boosters are busy in Harrisburg. Announcement from Manager George Cockill that he will have a winning team in the game this season has brought about increased interest. On his next visit to Harrisburg Manager Cockill expects to have more good news.

The schedule committee of the Dauphin-Perry League will meet in this city to-night. The season will open in May and activity in the various towns indicates a successful season.

Harry Parrott, left guard on the Rensselaer Poly five, has been elected captain for next season. He is a high school recruit and has been prominent in athletics, winning his letter on the football team.

The Rutherford Y. M. C. A. will again be represented in the Philadelphia and Reading Baseball League this season. It is probable that General Secretary George W. Sweigert will be manager. Candidates are working hard daily and will soon take up outdoor practice.

Hans Wagner has been offered the position of sheriff of Allegheny county. The term of office would be four years at a salary of $12,000 each year. More money could not be made in baseball. Honus ought to be able to fill the position with credit.

Bob Folwell, coach at Penn, will have to go it alone unless the directors change their decision. By Dickson, assistant coach, has not been re-appointed and it looks as if there would be no help this year.

In Far Off Lands

In Far Off Lands to-day where lost paths run
A Little Boy looks up into God's sky
Through apple blossoms swaying in the sun
That drift as summer southwinds whisper by;
And as he looks upon his face there comes
The light that only fame's white dream can yield,
To him who hears far off the roll of drums,
The silver bugle calling to the field.

In Far Off Lands I see him take the path,
With outstretched hands that reach forth for his dream;
Unmindful of the dark—the tempest's wrath,
New Cumberland,

Through all the bitterness and stress of years
That may not turn him back nor dim his faith,
Unknowing, as he looks through mists and tears,
He follows but the phantom of a wraith.

I watch him leave the happy fields he knew,
The waving grasses and the wide, kind sky,
The harvest song that winds and echoes through
Lost summer days of sunshine drifting by;
The paths of faith and honesty and truth,
To follow through the mire of doubt and greed
And tangled ways that lead so far from youth,
That sent him forth to where his dream might lead

From Far Off Lands that hold their place apart
I see him take the gray trail of the years—
Struggling and stumbling—worn, sick at heart,
Groping in blindness through the night of fears
With outstretched hands that still reach for a dream
That lures and leads and beckons—yet still keeps
Dim in the distance—as a light that streams
Beyond far valleys where endless darkness creeps.

Nearer and nearer, from the throng apart
I see him fighting blindly in the fray,
With mighty pity surging through my heart
That one should be so far from off the way,
So far from that dim dream youth left behind,
With none to show the proper road to fare,
Until, with sudden start, I waked to find
Him whom I pitted sitting in my chair.

Stray Observations

"It is as easy to drive a ball over water as it is over land if you use your imagination." Golf proverb. There is one word out of gear in this sentence, it should be "lose" in place of "use."

There is only one barrier against the Giants romping home for the next National League championship. This is the fact that every one is picking them to do just this thing.

The golfer spends months and years learning the correct grip and the correct stance and the correct swing. Then the entire program vanishes in the flash of a second as he lifts his head at the stroke. And then he begins to work on a new grip and a new stance.

While Jess Willard is waiting for some rival to come along, Doc Time is swinging for the jaw. When the final knockout comes some other will get the credit, as the Old Doc steps back with a grin and a wink.

Dear Sir: You left out the greatest fighting machine of them all—pound for pound and inch for inch—his name is Terrible Terry McGovern.

FIGHT FAN.

Pound for pound and inch for inch, umpires, a few years ago, would have awarded this laurel to John J. Evers, the Battling Trojan.

The Carolina 75

Sir: Here's a tip you can enter as a cliché. It is Joe Jackson's time to reach the top this season, as he is long overdue. He has an average for five or six years above .350. He came back again last year after a slump, and if he doesn't finish in front of Cobb and Speaker this time I'll eat his hat.

CAROLINA PETE.

Being overdue and always getting into port are not necessarily one and the same thing.
