

MARKET CAUTIOUS AT IRREGULAR PRICES

Week Opens With Absence of Irregular Influences Which Provoked Saturday's Heavy Liquidation; Munitions Are Higher

New York, April 9. — (Wall Street) — The week in the stock market opened with an absence of the unsettling influences which provoked last Saturday's heavy liquidation, although the irregular trend of prices suggested further caution. Munitions and equipments were higher by 1 to 2 points. U. S. Steel also responded to an extensive demand with metals, Mexican Petroleum, shippings and some of the motors. Coilers featured the railway group and Ohio Gas more than recovered last Saturday's setback, rising six points. Recessions of 1 to 2 points were made by Texas Company, American Tobacco, Cuban-American Sugar and Sloss Sheffield Steel. Over one-third of the first hour's trading was in United States Steel, that ratio being materially reduced later. Steel made an extreme gain of 1 1/2 with four for Nova Scotia Steel and 1/2 for New Bethlehem Steel, while Driggs-Searby, a minor munition issue, rose 9 points. Shippings, metals, sugars and numerous war contract or supply stocks were 1 to 4 points over last week's final prices. Union Pacific and New York Central were added to the strong rails, but elsewhere in that quarter increasing heaviness was shown. Dealings in international bonds were unusually extensive at substantial gains.
