

GOOD BASEBALL ON SCHEDULE FOR TOMORROW --- IMPORTANT GAMES IN THE CITY

NEW MANAGER AT MARYSVILLE

Will Start With Regular Line-up; Anxious to Come Back

Saturday's card in the Dauphin-Ferry League contains what promises to be interesting games. Players on the various teams on the hospital list have recovered from recent injuries and the disorganized conditions due to enlistments and illness have been satisfactorily adjusted. Marysville will entertain Millersburg on the Seidel Park grounds, Newport will be at Duncannon, and Halifax at Dauphin.

cently joined the benedicts, back of the bat. King Lear, soon to become a benedict, will be held in reserve for pitching duty.

Halifax seeks revenge for the heart-rending seventeen-inning defeat at the hands of Dauphin last Saturday and will use Harry Biever in the box with Minnich catching. Several new faces may appear in Manager Clemson's line-up. Manager Harry Lyter will send back Gilday and Ducky Rhoads, who worked last Saturday.

Rosewood Hitters Were Factors in Close Victory

Rosewood nine batted out three hits and as many runs in the first inning last evening, enough to win a 3 to 2 score from the Galahads in an Allison Hill League contest. During the other five innings the winners were able to score neither a hit nor a run.

In the meantime the losers knocked out five hits, but could land only two runners across the pan. The contest was witnessed by the largest crowd of the season, all corners of the lot being filled by spectators. The score by innings:

R.H.E. Rosewood, ... 3 0 0 0 0-3 3 2 Galahad, ... 1 0 1 0 0-2 5 2

FRENCH LOSSES SMALL

Parla, June 15. — Four French ships of more than 1,600 tons, one under that size and three fishing boats were sunk by mine or submarine during the week ending June 14. Six ships were unsuccessfully attacked during the same period, while 1,024 vessels of all nations entered French ports and 1,015 left.

Trophies Won in Pennsylvania Railroad System Meet Posket Billiard Champions Reside in Harrisburg

Silver cup trophies and medals won by Pennsylvania Railroad athletes in last year's series, are being distributed. Harrisburg made a big showing and the Eastern division, of which this city is a part, came off with many victories. On account of calling of the big final meet at Baltimore last April many of the championships were decided in various cities along the main line.

INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIP—SEASON 1916-1917 PENNSYLVANIA LINES EAST

Table with columns for Philadelphia, Central Division, P. E. & W., New Jersey Division, Northern Division, Eastern Division, Western Division, and Philadelphia Division.

WILLARD QUILTS HIS CIRCUS JOB; MORRIS IS STAR

New York, June 15.—Jess Willard, world's heavyweight champion, severs his connection with the circus to-morrow and Carl Morris, his foremost rival for the title, will replace him. It is reported that Willard is being "let out" by his manager as a box office attraction having waned because of his evident unwillingness to defend his championship. Since he won the title from Jack Johnson in Havana on April 5, 1915, he has engaged in but one battle, the ten-round no-decision affair with Frank Moran in Madison Square Garden more than a year ago, and almost a year after his Cuban conquest.

Former Benchwarmer Now Star in National League

A benchwarmer is the star of the National League. After wearing out more trousers than shoes for three years on the bench in the Giants' dugout, Freddie Schupp has come into his own and promises a career that no southpaw to-day, with the possible exception of "Babe" Ruth, can expect to duplicate.

Advertisement for Dr. Phillips, Dentist, featuring a portrait and text: 'Absolutely No Pain My latest improved appliances, including an x-ray, makes extracting and all dental work painless and is perfectly harmless. (Age no objection.)'

Baseball Summary

SCORES OF YESTERDAY National League Cincinnati, 6; Philadelphia, 5. New York, 2; Pittsburgh, 0. Chicago, 5; Boston, 3. St. Louis, 5; Brooklyn, 4.

American League St. Louis, 3; Boston, 0. Other games, rain. New York State League Elmira, 4; Harrisburg, 2. Binghamton, 4; Reading, 0. Scranton, 1; Utica, 3. Wilkes-Barre, 5; Syracuse, 0.

Blue Ridge League Hanover, 2; Chambersburg, 3. Hagerstown, 3; Chambersburg, 3. Martinsburg, 6; Gettysburg, 2. International League Rochester, 3; Buffalo, 0. Providence, 2; Newark, 1 (1st game). Newark, 3; Providence, 4 (2nd game).

Allison Hill League Rosewood, 3; Galahad, 2.

WHERE THEY PLAY TODAY National League Philadelphia at Cincinnati. Philadelphia at St. Louis. Brooklyn at Pittsburgh.

American League Cleveland at Philadelphia. St. Louis at New York. Detroit at Washington. Chicago at Boston.

New York State League Harrisburg at Binghamton. Reading at Elmira. Wilkes-Barre at Utica. Scranton at Syracuse.

WHERE THEY PLAY TOMORROW National League Philadelphia at Cincinnati. Boston at Chicago. New York at Pittsburgh. Brooklyn at St. Louis.

American League Cleveland at Philadelphia. Detroit at Washington. St. Louis at New York. Chicago at Boston.

New York State League Harrisburg at Binghamton. Reading at Elmira. Wilkes-Barre at Utica. Scranton at Syracuse.

Motive Power League Trenton at Harrisburg. New York at Washington. Boston at Chicago. Wilmington at New York.

Dauphin-Ferry League Newport at Duncannon. Millersburg at Middletown. Halifax at Dauphin.

Philadelphia and Reading League at Rutherford—Locomotive Shop vs. Rutherford. At Philadelphia—A. C. R. R. vs. General Managers.

At Reading—Shamokin Division vs. Reading Division. At Philadelphia—Accounts vs. Port Richmond. At St. Clair—Car Shops vs. St. Clair. At Philadelphia—Transportation vs. Spring Garden.

Bethlehem League Sparrows Point at Steelton. Wilmington at Bethlehem. Fore River at Lebanon.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS National League W. L. Pct. New York ... 29 16 .644 Philadelphia ... 28 16 .638

American League W. L. Pct. Chicago ... 30 17 .660 Boston ... 30 17 .638 New York ... 26 20 .565

New York State League W. L. Pct. Binghamton ... 21 10 .677 Wilkes-Barre ... 21 13 .615

Allison Hill League W. L. Pct. Stanley ... 6 3 .666 Rosewood ... 6 3 .667

Dauphin-Ferry League W. L. Pct. Newport ... 7 0 .667 Duncannon ... 4 2 .667

Blue Ridge League W. L. Pct. Martinsburg ... 21 7 .750 Hanover ... 13 13 .480

MRS. FERTIG IS HOSTESS Dauphin, Pa., June 15.—Last evening the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church was entertained by Mrs. Charles Fertig at her home above town.

TO START RED CROSS WORK Dauphin, Pa., June 15.—Special arrangements have been made by the Red Cross Auxiliary to start work at Harrisburg on Tuesday afternoon with materials. All members are requested to be present.

GOOD GAMES ON SATURDAY BILL

Railroad Contest at Island Park; Big Battles For West End and Steelton

Fans need not beg for baseball to-morrow. Every game scheduled promises to furnish all the thrills necessary to prove that the national sport is still popular. At Island Park "Red" Owens and his Motive Power aggregation will meet Trenton. The West End A. C. is scheduled for a battle with Baker A. A. at Fourth and Seneca streets, and "Shorty" Miller's team at Steelton will meet the crack aggregation from Sparrows Point, Md.

The railroad game will bring to Harrisburg a large aggregation of rooters. Trenton has twice won the championship, and this season as in the past recognize the Harrisburg contingent as their strongest opponents. The Steelton team will give Elmsberg a chance to show his ability on the mound. The game starts at 3 o'clock.

At Fourth and Seneca streets the West End A. C. will meet probably A. A. of Steelton. This game is one of the most important in the local series. The end is hoping for increased crowds. Whites in general admission fee is charged games played by the West End aggregation have been strong attractions and worthy of more liberal starts at 3 o'clock.

Second Game at Steelton The second game of the Bethlehem Steel aggregation will be played at Steelton to-morrow, with Sparrows Point plant team as the attraction. The game last week was closed and it took ten innings for Bethlehem to come through on top.

Manager "Shorty" Miller has put the team in every department. Practices this week in preparation for this week's contest, as he wants the team to even matters in its league standing. The lineup this week will be the same as last week, probably Odgen, the young twirler, occupying the mound for Steelton.

The team in every department, Manager Miller believes, is in good condition, and with a little practice they should carry off honors in the league during the remainder of the season. Many Harrisburgers will week attend the game and the crowd this week is expected to surpass that of last week, when at least 1,200 witnessed the contest.

The Hick-A-Thrifts will go to Middletown A. A. cancellations have been crimping the schedule and it took A-Thrifts, but now they hope to keep going. An interesting game is looked for. On June 30 the local nine will play West End, and games are wanted by the Hick-A-Thrifts for July 4.

"Comebacks" This Season So Many They Become Bore No one has been able to explain it thus far, but it seems that a great season for comebacks is being had during the remainder of the season. Many Harrisburgers are being week attend the game and the crowd this week is expected to surpass that of last week, when at least 1,200 witnessed the contest.

Some of these have only gone in for the comeback during this season, while others have been coming back more than anything else for some while. Ballplayers themselves begin to realize that "comebacks" are being a bit overdone, but it's usually that way and there are always some to spoil a good thing. Whoever first thought up the comeback idea got a big hand and now many number of players are trying to cop his stuff.

A big league veteran can be sure of getting the comeback during this season. He will manage to stage a sport and play first rate ball for a while. Then some sport writers will dash off lots of new stuff about the comeback, and the game that made him a star when he first came up from the brush. If he slumps again no one will notice it. Every one will be reading about some other old bird who is skipping about as in his youth.

At the same time there have been an unusual number of fast showings made by the game's star players this season and if lots of the younger ones are taken away to the wars the old stars will have to do their best to keep the game going.

TRAMPLED ON FLAG By Associated Press Lynchburg, Va., June 15.—Rather than take a dare, Warren Utterback, a young railroad clerk here, tread on the Stars and Stripes and was arrested. To-day he was out on bail awaiting hearing on a charge of desecrating the flag.

RUTH LAW FALLS St. Louis, Mo., June 15.—Avoiding sudden death only by the quick exercise of nimble brains and equally quick muscles, Ruth Law, famous aviator, yesterday afternoon saved 2,000 feet to earth with her machine ablaze following an explosion of the gasoline tank of the plane.

DIXON'S GRAPHITE AUTOMOBILE LUBRICANTS This sign says: "Here is a garage man or supply dealer who knows gears and bearings go bad in spite of plain oil or grease. He won't force Dixon's on you, but he is prepared to sell 100 per cent lubrication if you want that kind." Ask him what Dixon's selected flake graphite adds to lubrication.

Ask for the Dixon Lubricating Chart JOSEPH DIXON CRUCIBLE CO. Jersey City, N. J. Established 1827

WELLY'S CORNER

The American Association has added forty-two more games to its schedule to make up for the losses of the post-season series called Inter-national League teams called off when war was declared. This is one announcement. Another is that the players will quit soon because of cut in salaries.

Tom Downey, writing from his home in Bridgeport, Conn., denies that he was paid his salary in full. He refers his case to Manager George Cockill. Both Downey and Cook did get some money, as well as Manager George Cockill. Death made it necessary for Cook and Downey to return home. What money was advanced was enough to pay their expenses.

Penn's last baseball game will be with Lafayette to-morrow. Captain Berry has been ordered to report for duty in France within twenty-four hours. College baseball in many parts of the country will also end to-morrow.

Reports from the Farrell league show Harrisburg wanderers still doing business. Yesterday Elmira won by a score of 4 to 2. This year's pennant winner will have an easy game if the Orphans continue in the game.

Muggsy McGraw is not pleased with his punishment. He claims that his side of the case has not been heard and that President John K. Tener has not given him fair consideration. His team yesterday walked the Pirates and moved into first place.

Major Arnold N. S. Jackson, the famous English mile runner of Oxford University, is among the latest victims of the war, having been struck by a fragment of flying shell and seriously wounded during the fighting on the French front. Jackson will be remembered by American followers of athletics as the man who defeated the American quartet composed of John Paul Jones, the American intercollegiate champion; Norman Taber, of Brown University; Abel Kivian and Miltie W. Sheppard, of the Irish-American A. C. in the 1,500-meter race at Stockholm in 1912.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Major Jackson visited this country in 1914, when he ran as anchor on the Oxford University four-mile relay team at the Pennsylvania relay carnival on April 26. On that occasion Jackson chalked up another remarkable performance, winning the race in a driving finish with Wallace McCurdy, the intercollegiate two-mile champion, right at his shoulder. In winning this race for his team Jackson carried off the American intercollegiate four-mile relay championship to Great Britain.

Schleisner's Men's Shop 28-30-32 N. 3rd St. You can wear a Schleisner suit ever so carelessly and the distinctive lines will reveal themselves. Getting down to fine points Schleisner Hot Weather Suits are Right. There is a way of putting materials together that requires artistic temperament as well as experience. That's why Schleisner hot weather suits make their strong appeal to the fellows who demand style along with comfort. No man would expect to wear a hot weather suit that would make him sit up like a board in order to hold the lines of his clothes correct. Schleisner Hot Weather Suits In All The Conceded Best Materials $7.50 to $12.50 for men of all ages, sizes and proportions.

Every PUFF of A King Oscar Cigar Is a "PUFF" For King Oscar 26 Years in the Smoke "Ring" 5c Contributed John C. Herman & Co. Makers

Absolutely No Pain My latest improved appliances, including an x-ray, makes extracting and all dental work painless and is perfectly harmless. (Age no objection.) Dr. Phillips, Dentist 329 Market St. Harrisburg, Pa. It didn't hurt a bit

Baseball Summary Scores of Yesterday National League Cincinnati, 6; Philadelphia, 5. New York, 2; Pittsburgh, 0. Chicago, 5; Boston, 3. St. Louis, 5; Brooklyn, 4. American League St. Louis, 3; Boston, 0. Other games, rain. New York State League Elmira, 4; Harrisburg, 2. Binghamton, 4; Reading, 0. Scranton, 1; Utica, 3. Wilkes-Barre, 5; Syracuse, 0. Blue Ridge League Hanover, 2; Chambersburg, 3. Hagerstown, 3; Chambersburg, 3. Martinsburg, 6; Gettysburg, 2. International League Rochester, 3; Buffalo, 0. Providence, 2; Newark, 1 (1st game). Newark, 3; Providence, 4 (2nd game). Allison Hill League Rosewood, 3; Galahad, 2. WHERE THEY PLAY TODAY National League Philadelphia at Cincinnati. Philadelphia at St. Louis. Brooklyn at Pittsburgh. American League Cleveland at Philadelphia. St. Louis at New York. Detroit at Washington. Chicago at Boston. New York State League Harrisburg at Binghamton. Reading at Elmira. Wilkes-Barre at Utica. Scranton at Syracuse. WHERE THEY PLAY TOMORROW National League Philadelphia at Cincinnati. Boston at Chicago. New York at Pittsburgh. Brooklyn at St. Louis. American League Cleveland at Philadelphia. Detroit at Washington. St. Louis at New York. Chicago at Boston. New York State League Harrisburg at Binghamton. Reading at Elmira. Wilkes-Barre at Utica. Scranton at Syracuse. Motive Power League Trenton at Harrisburg. New York at Washington. Boston at Chicago. Wilmington at New York. Dauphin-Ferry League Newport at Duncannon. Millersburg at Middletown. Halifax at Dauphin. Philadelphia and Reading League at Rutherford—Locomotive Shop vs. Rutherford. At Philadelphia—A. C. R. R. vs. General Managers. At Reading—Shamokin Division vs. Reading Division. At Philadelphia—Accounts vs. Port Richmond. At St. Clair—Car Shops vs. St. Clair. At Philadelphia—Transportation vs. Spring Garden. Bethlehem League Sparrows Point at Steelton. Wilmington at Bethlehem. Fore River at Lebanon. STANDING OF THE CLUBS National League W. L. Pct. New York ... 29 16 .644 Philadelphia ... 28 16 .638 American League W. L. Pct. Chicago ... 30 17 .660 Boston ... 30 17 .638 New York ... 26 20 .565 Cleveland ... 26 26 .500 St. Louis ... 24 24 .500 St. Louis ... 20 28 .417 Washington ... 18 29 .383 Philadelphia ... 16 28 .364 New York State League W. L. Pct. Binghamton ... 21 10 .677 Wilkes-Barre ... 21 13 .615 Utica ... 21 13 .615 Syracuse ... 16 17 .485 Reading ... 17 19 .472 Elmira ... 15 15 .500 Scranton ... 17 18 .486 Harrisburg ... 6 23 .207 Allison Hill League W. L. Pct. Stanley ... 6 3 .666 Rosewood ... 6 3 .667 Reading ... 4 3 .600 Galahad ... 2 7 .222 Dauphin-Ferry League W. L. Pct. Newport ... 7 0 .667 Duncannon ... 4 2 .667 Dauphin ... 4 2 .667 Marysville ... 2 5 .286 Halifax ... 2 5 .286 Millersburg ... 1 6 .143 Blue Ridge League W. L. Pct. Martinsburg ... 21 7 .750 Hanover ... 13 13 .480 Frederick ... 13 15 .464 Gettysburg ... 12 15 .444 Hagerstown ... 17 18 .486 Chambersburg ... 12 16 .429 MRS. FERTIG IS HOSTESS Dauphin, Pa., June 15.—Last evening the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church was entertained by Mrs. Charles Fertig at her home above town. After the regular business meeting, refreshments and a social evening were enjoyed by Mrs. W. F. Reed, Mrs. H. I. Gerberich, Mrs. William B. Sheets, Mrs. Charles Lebo, Mrs. W. H. Ege, Mrs. Harry C. Miller, Mrs. A. C. Cable, Mrs. George R. Kinler, Mrs. Harry B. Greenawalt, Miss Sallie Shaffer, Miss Anna Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Fertig and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fertig. TO START RED CROSS WORK Dauphin, Pa., June 15.—Special arrangements have been made by the Red Cross Auxiliary to start work at Harrisburg on Tuesday afternoon with materials. All members are requested to be present.

Do Your Duty to the Red Cross If Real Goodness Means Anything To You Your Next Suit Should Come From The Hub If every man in Harrisburg could see how carefully we select HUB CLOTHES — how carefully we consider not alone the question of Price, but the quality of the fabrics — the character of the trimmings — the kind of workmanship that goes into every garment we buy, we feel certain that this would be the logical store for their next suit. You'll understand our enthusiasm when you see them — the superiority of HUB CLOTHES is instantly apparent. Your size in your style is here, at $15 $17 $20 $25 54 SUITS, EXTRA SPECIAL AT For to-morrow we offer one special lot of Suits of odd sizes—in Cassimeres, Worsteds, Cheviots and Serges — not all sizes in each material but all sizes in the lot — suits that sold regularly at $18 — $20 — $22.50 and $25 will go to-morrow at only $15. GENUINE PALM BEACH SUITS $7.50 Whew, but it's hot, says the man who wears a heavy suit—the man who tries to beat the hot weather is the wise fellow who wears a Palm Beach Suit. Every suit bears the genuine Palm Beach Label. With or without belt. All sizes. The fellow without a Staw Hat these days looks sort of out of place—the fellow who wears a HUB STRAW knows he's right in line with all good dressers—here for all good styles as well as many new and exclusive styles—Panamas in a big variety—Milans and Leghorns in natural and tan and green shades. Boys' Kool Kloth Suits Worth to $6.50 at $3.75 Dress your boy just like his dad—let him wear one of our Kool Kloth Suits—they're cool, comfortable and dressy. We offer a lot of Pinch-back models worth up to $6.50 to-morrow at $3.75. BOYS' WASH PANTS AT 75c Made of stout army linen and khaki cloth—all sizes from 8 to 17 years. The Hub Nachman & Hirsh Prop's