

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

SEND GREETINGS TO OLD CITIZEN

Jacob R. Miller Always Glad to Give Reminiscences of Early Harrisburg

JACOB R. MILLER

Harrisburg loves to honor her oldest citizens, and so to-morrow on the 84th birthday of Jacob R. Miller, many old friends and neighbors will send gifts and greetings to him at his home, 1216 North Sixth street.

The day will be quietly spent with his family and he will be glad to see all callers.

Mr. Miller was born in Halifax and came to Harrisburg when a lad of nine years, and possessing a wonderful memory, he has many reminiscences and much historical data stored away which he is delighted to relate to any who ask for it.

Mr. Samuel C. Todd presided at the tea table at the Harrisburg Country Club this afternoon.

Miss Anna Longenecker, of 577 Macloy street, is home after a pleasant visit of three weeks with friends and relatives in Galesburg and Chicago, Ills.

Mr. and Mrs. William Orville Hickok, III, and children, Avis Anne and Orville, Front and Locust streets, are home after a visit in Atlantic City.

Charles H. Payne and Frank Payne are enjoying a stay at the Grand Atlantic Hotel, Atlantic City.

Miss Mary Koons, of Boas street, is home after an operation of the throat at the Harrisburg Hospital.

William R. Shisler and Miss M. E. Shisler are among the Harrisburg arrivals at the Bothwell, Atlantic City.

Miss Fanny M. Eby entertained members of a card club to which she belongs at her country place, 'The Lilacs', Grantham, yesterday.

Frank Davis has gone home to Philadelphia after a fortnight's stay with his aunt, Miss Fannie M. Poorman, 619 North Second street.

Miss Sallie Van Horn has gone home to Morristown, N. J., after visiting relatives in the city for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hartman and small son, Hartle Hartman, have returned to Akron, Ohio, after a brief stay among old friends in the city.

Mrs. J. Fred Orth, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spicer, 2043 North Second street.

MEADE OUTDOOR MEETING Mrs. John H. Bolan, the president, presided at an outdoor meeting of the Meade W. C. T. U. held yesterday afternoon in Reservoir Park.

IN NEW ENGLAND The Rev. James F. Bullitt, Miss Priscilla Bullitt and Miss Janet Bullitt of Bellefonte, Pa., are at Marlinton, Mass., August 1st and 2nd.

BOY SOPRANO TO SING William Webster, boy soprano, will sing two solos to-morrow evening at the service of the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Todd-Hammelbaugh Bridal Event of This Morning

The marriage of Miss Katharine G. Hammelbaugh, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Hammelbaugh of this city, to Harry E. Todd, of 11 South Third street, took place quietly this morning at 10 o'clock, at the bride's home, 264 Forster street.

The bride wore a dainty white summer frock with a corage bouquet of sweet peas and was unattended. Following a wedding journey to the mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Todd will spend the remainder of the summer at their Mount Gretna cottage, and in the autumn reside at 264 Forster street.

Honors For Stewart Koser Who Accepts High Position

Stewart A. Koser, son of Dr. A. S. Koser, 214 North Second street, has accepted a position as bacteriologist for the Lederle Antitoxin and Serum Laboratory, of Pearl River, New York. This is one of many honors that have come to Mr. Koser, since he graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1914.

Honoring Israel Wolmer in the U. S. A. Service

The delightful little party held last evening by Mrs. Margaret Zelders in honor of Israel Zelders, who leaves to-morrow for service with the United States Army, was among those in attendance were: Mrs. Harry Zelders, Mrs. Harry Forster, Mrs. Charles E. Zelders, Miss Catherine Walmer, Miss Freda Falk, Miss Anna Stober, Miss Mary Zelders, Miss Ruth Zelders, Miss Grace Felker, Miss Marie Stern, Miss Genselder, Mervin Matter, William Zelders, Robert Zelders, Robert Beck, Russell Deardorff, John Witman, Charles Wright, Harry Keller and George Blair.

Soldier Husband Dined by Wife and Relatives

Mrs. Harry G. Miller, 547 South Front street, gave a family dinner Thursday evening in honor of her husband, Harry G. Miller, who will be called out in Uncle Sam's service.

TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH BOILING SPRINGS PICNIC

The annual picnic of Trinity Lutheran Church, of Harrisburg, will be held on July 24 at Boiling Springs. Special cars will carry the picnickers to and from the park.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE Mr. and Mrs. H. Farmer, 2113 Derry street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen Catherine Farmer, to Chester L. Robeson, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Robeson, 1628 Green street, on Friday, May 11, at Bellefonte, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Newton Herb and Miss Randa Lerch, of 1207 Derry street, are spending some time in Hagerstown, Md., as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller.

Miss Rebecca Kline, of Muench street, has returned from Carlisle, where she visited her niece, Mrs. W. R. Kline.

Miss Helen Shope, of 704 Green street, is spending some time in Roaring Springs as the guest of Miss Mary Mauk.

SUMMERDALE PARK DANCES

Uddegrove's big band orchestra, Thursday evenings. Admission 25 cents, and 50 cents Tuesday and Saturday evenings admission 15 and 25 cents.—Adv.

ANOTHER SOLDIER GIVEN FAREWELL

Inspiring Patriotic Talks at Little Party in Honor of Daniel Werner

DANIEL WERNER

Amid festoons of red, white and blue, and American flags of all sizes, friends of Daniel Werner, a member of the National Guard, gave him hearty greetings last evening and bade him Godspeed in his army experiences, as he leaves to-morrow in the service.

Patriotic speeches were made by the three Guardsmen, Leon Leidich, Paul Miller and Daniel Werner, and a large cake, beautifully iced and decorated with the letters U. S. A., was presented to the guest of honor by his brother, Gilbert Werner.

Members of the immediate family and a few personal friends of Daniel's were among the guests who included: Mrs. Emma Werner, Mrs. Schwarz, Miss Thelma Schwarz, Mrs. Ruth Schwarz, Mrs. J. J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore, Miss Helen Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Cleckner, Mrs. Sarah Cleckner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Werner, Miss Viola Werner, Mr. and Mrs. William Werner, Miss Mildred Werner, Eugene Werner, Master Allen Cleckner, Gilbert Werner, Andrew Werner, of Duncannon; Leon Leidich and Paul Miller.

TWO WEEKS VACATION

Miss Clara Vaca, of Bellefonte, Pa., and Miss Emma E. Leib, of 204 Herr street, both State Capital employes, started this morning for a two weeks' vacation trip, including New York City and Stony Brook, Long Island.

Miss Thelma Gladfelter and Miss Marian Hoopes motored to Sunbury yesterday.

Miss Helen Albright, of Columbia, is visiting relatives in this city and Enola.

Mrs. Walter Barton and small daughter, Helen, of 13 North Fifteenth street, are spending some time at her home in Thompsonstown.

George Schutt, of Enola, who has enlisted as a member of one of the army bands, spent yesterday with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Schutt, of Enola, who are home after an extended stay at Riverview Cottage, Riverview.

Farewell Party For Soldiers at New Cumberland Home

New Cumberland, July 14.—On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Naus, of Second street, gave a farewell party in honor of their sons, William and Charles Naus, who were enlisted in Company C, Eighth Regiment, and leaves for Chambersburg to-morrow, and the latter joined with the machine gun company of the Eighth Regiment at Lemoyne and goes to the island at Harrisburg to-morrow. Games and music were entertaining features of the evening.

Refreshments were served to Misses Elizabeth Lutz, Helen Gulstwhite, Margaret Diven, Bertha Shenck, Miss Helen Capello, Pearl Edelberger, Ann Attick, Edith, Ethel and Mary Meakonnell, Sara Naus, Ethel Killmaier, Edith Conley, John Edwards, and the reading public at B. M. Sover, Man Atticks, Ed Killhafer, William Naus, Charles Naus, John Naus and children, Mrs. Tolbert Gulstwhite and children and Miss Clarine Gulstwhite.

County Fair No Place For Liquor License, Says Court

Philadelphia, July 14.—In an opinion which may become the basis of attack on all county and state fairs in Pennsylvania, the state supreme court, today, held that the sale of liquor, Judge Trexler, of the superior court, knocked out the saloon which the reading public at B. M. Sover, Man Atticks, Ed Killhafer, William Naus, Charles Naus, John Naus and children, Mrs. Tolbert Gulstwhite and children and Miss Clarine Gulstwhite.

Country Club Popular Among Prominent People

Prominent people of taste who want a car out of the ordinary, yet one in a record for consistent and satisfactory performance, are buying the Overland Country Club, announced by Willys-Overland Inc., as the only sport model in the small car class.

May Robson is another stage star who has shown decided preference for this unusual gray sport model.

Out on the coast a well-known figure in Northern California is Mrs. Bertha M. Sinclair, well-known to the reading public as B. M. Sover, author of many delightful western tales.

Mrs. Sinclair uses a Country Club exclusively to carry her from her "Pocket Ranch"—as she calls her country home in the Sierra foothills to San Francisco and other centers. She also uses it in her ramblings through the picturesque country for local color.

Young Folks Enjoy Party Given in Soldier's Honor

Miss Kit Irene Porter, 1502 North Sixth street, entertained a number of young people at her home last evening in honor of her brother, Ralph E. Pollock, of Company I, Eighth Regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania.

Invited to meet the honor guest were: Miss Martha A. Cook, Miss Jennie Grove, Miss Katherine Grove, Miss Arvilla C. Cook, Roy Gallagher, Lawrence Burns, A. Porter, Herbert Stauffer, Lieutenant Peters, Charles B. Porter, Clarence Stauffer, Porter Van Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter, Mr. and Mrs. George Helm, Mr. and Mrs. William Windan, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Porter, Mrs. William Pollock and Mrs. William Lynn.

BOWMAN & CO. EMPLOYEES ENJOY OUTING AT HERSHEY

The office force of the Bowman department store held their annual outing at Hershey Park the other day, enjoying boating, swimming, various amusements, and a most delightful dinner and supper in the open air.

Those attending the outing were: Miss Helen Snodgrass, Miss Marie Coan, Miss Lillian Mahon, Miss Irene Coble, Miss Marguerite Colestock, Miss Anna McCoy, Miss Bertha Foster, Miss Pearl Carson, Miss Mary Morgan, Miss Anna Glass, Miss Helen Storey, Miss Margaret Musselman, Miss Bessie Montgomery, Miss Helen Eiler, Miss Ella Shaffer, Miss Catharine Hoppes, Roy Kilgore, John Yowler, Alton Snyder and Mr. Fitzpatrick.

Social and Personal News of Towns Along West Shore

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Zeigler, of Bellefonte, Mrs. George Ebersole and daughter, Miss Ruth Ebersole, of Harrisburg, returned home after being entertained by Mrs. Martha Miller at her home at Shiremanstown. This was Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler's first visit for thirty-eight years.

Mrs. James Shepley and son, Charles, of Vandergrift, are visiting the Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Rupp at Shiremanstown.

Master Albert Bates of Shiremanstown, has returned from a four week visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Campbell at Mt. Joy.

Mrs. H. F. Greenawalt of Harrisburg, is visiting her sisters, the Misses Louise and Kate Noel at Shiremanstown.

The condition of Mrs. Harry Sheas, of Harrisburg, who has been seriously ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Martha Miller at Shiremanstown, is at present much improved.

John G. Bentz, of Mechanicsburg, was a recent guest of Miss Lydia Grubb and Ira Grubb at Shiremanstown.

Mrs. Charles Griesinger of Mechanicsburg, spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gribble at Shiremanstown.

Mrs. George Wolf, of Mechanicsburg, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Neberger, at Shiremanstown.

Mrs. J. J. Walker, of Akron, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Neil D. Deob, of Baltimore, G. Park Singer, daughter, Miss Emily Singer, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. H. F. Greenawalt, of Harrisburg, were recent guests of the Misses Louise and Kate Noel, at Shiremanstown.

Ralph Bates of Shiremanstown, is home from a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Campbell at Shiremanstown.

Jacob Longenecker, of Delta, O., and Mrs. Florence Strohm, of Pittsburgh, have returned home after being guests of Mrs. Longenecker at her residence at Shiremanstown.

Jack Harman, of Shiremanstown, has gone to Enola to spend several days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Carl.

Mrs. Henry Snavely has returned to her home at Sparrows Point after being entertained by Mrs. Jacob Rupp and Mrs. Orrell Klink at their residence at Shiremanstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Deob, of Bowmansdale, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. David Cline, Mrs. John Bender and Miss Clara Bender of Gardner's Station and Mr. and Mrs. W. Tolbert Abbott, of Shiremanstown motored to Gettysburg.

Miss Emily Strong of Shiremanstown, attended the Nineteenth Annual Commencement of Mrs. E. B. Sheeder's Musical Kindergarten, held in Franklin Hall, Mechanicsburg. She also attended the alumni banquet held at the residence of Mrs. Edna Smith, Miss Strong being an alumni member.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Zimmerman, of Harrisburg, spent Friday at Shiremanstown are home from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Russek at Shippensburg.

Samuel H. Klugh of Dillsburg, was a visitor at Shiremanstown yesterday.

CHRISTINE DAPP HAS A BIRTHDAY

Celebration Attended by Little Girls and Boys Who Have Jolly Time

CHRISTINE DAPP

One of the merriest little parties of the week was that given by Mrs. Edward Dapp, at her home, 1831 North Fourth street, in celebration of the sixth birthday of her daughter, Christine Dapp.

The children enjoyed music and games followed by refreshments. There was a birthday cake bearing six tall candles and the young hostesses received quite a number of gifts from her playmates.

Those present were: Dorothy Dinger, Dorothy Bobbs, Josephine Bobbs, Helen Emboden, Lura Irrellich, Ruth Adams, Christine Dapp, Wilson Weiser, Raymond Sellers, Charles Griffin, Paul Griffin, Donald Adams, Charles Jones, Jacob Emboden, Luther Dapp, Kathleen Dapp, Edith and "Bobbs" Dapp.

Twenty-Six Boys Taken to Summer Camp on Farm South of Linglestown

Twenty-six boys loaded on a big auto truck were taken to-day to the Bunker Hill Boys' Camp which will be conducted this year by the Associated Aid Societies on a farm five miles south of Linglestown.

The youngsters, all of whom are not in the best of health, will be under the care and supervision of Harry Eaker of Shippensburg, who had charge of the camp near Chambersburg last year.

The boys will be given small patches of gardens to care for; will be given regular play hours, and training. Those who will be in charge in addition to Mr. Eaker include the Rev. E. P. Robinson and Harry Peiffer.

Wife of Bishop Heil Dies After Operation

Allentown, Pa., July 14.—Mrs. Anna Louise Heil, wife of Bishop W. F. Heil, of 1107 1/2 Turner street, died late Thursday afternoon at the Allentown Hospital, where she had been a patient since Tuesday, February 27, for treatment for tumors on the brain. During the time of her stay at the institution her husband was also operated upon at the same place and it was only two weeks ago that he returned home cured.

Mrs. Heil was a native of Lansdale and was a daughter of Mrs. Mary and the late James W. Reed. Her mother survived at the age of 87 and was a member of her daughter's household until her daughter was compelled to enter the hospital when she made her home with a son, T. Allen Reed, in Philadelphia.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Heil were married March 16, 1882, her husband having then been a clergyman of the Evangelical Association. They have had their home in this city for a number of years, while the Rev. Mr. Heil was pastor of Trinity United Evangelical Church, as well as presiding elder. They lived at Highland Park, Ill., for eight years, during which Mr. Heil's incumbency of the bishopric of his church, whereupon they returned to this city.

Reception to Pastor and Bride at Yeagertown

Lewistown, Pa., July 14.—The Rev. A. H. Spangler has long been the pastor of the Lutheran church at Yeagertown and for some years has been at Yeagertown. The pastor was married a few days ago. A big reception was decided upon and was given on Thursday evening in the Lutheran chapel at Yeagertown under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society. Prof. J. E. Harmon, presided and congratulatory addresses were made by the Rev. Mr. Derr, pastor of Burnham, the Rev. Whitley of Yeagertown and the Rev. Cressman of Lewistown. A number of Lewistown people were present.

Three Miners Burned by Explosion at Tower City

Tower City, Pa., July 14.—A serious gas explosion occurred at the West Brookside mine yesterday injuring three miners. Allen Horn and James Raver and William Smith, were burned and bruised, the latter being the most seriously injured.

CAMP AT DICKINSON COLLEGE

Carlisle, Pa., July 14.—Company G of the Eighth Regiment will follow mobilization to-morrow, be under canvas during the remainder of their stay here. The tents will probably be pitched on the Dickinson College campus. A movement for a farewell for the men when the leave for Augusta, Ga., has been arranged for by the members of the Dickinson Post 201, G. A. R. The company is now within six weeks of strength.

A movement has been begun here for the formation of a motor truck company with headquarters in Carlisle. Efforts are being made to get 54 men by next Tuesday.

LAWYER MUST PAY $300

Carlisle, Pa., July 14.—In a special opinion handed down to-day, Judge Sadler rules that Robert Rosenberg, a Harrisburg attorney must pay the $300 forfeited as the recognizance of M. Shiffman, Shiffman was charged with receiving stolen goods and was bonded by the attorney. The man failed to appear in court and the recognizance was ordered forfeited. Rosenberg petitioned for this to be set aside on the ground that he had forgotten the date, but Judge Sadler ruled he must pay.

CHURCH OF THE BRETHERN

Hummel Street—The Rev. William K. Conner, pastor, will preach at 11 on "We Would See Jesus." Sunday school 9:45.

ROYAL PIANO

Just returned from a rent. Used only a few months. A big bargain at $175. John Bros., 8 N. Market Square.—Advertisement.

FIRE APPARATUS RECEIVED Goldsboro, Pa., July 14.—A new chemical truck was received and housed by the Goldsboro fire company to-day. A big parade was held, many people coming from York, where the apparatus was built.

SUMMIT GROVE CAMPMEETING Marietta, Pa., July 14.—On July 27 the Summit Grove campmeeting will open at New Freedom, York county, and will continue ten days. This association has been holding annual camps for forty-five years.

Come In The Water's Fine. The finest recreation spot in the city and most easily reached is—Independence Island, Harrisburg's favorite bathing beach. 500 new Iron Lockers just installed, together with Shower Baths and Dressing Rooms. New Bathing Suits for rent—all sizes. Playgrounds for the children, with latest play equipment.

Go To Independence Island. The steam paddle boat "Susquehanna" formerly running to West Fairview is now in service, making the trip to the island in three minutes. For real pleasure go to Independence Island.

Work That Every Woman Dreads. is sheer play for our modern machinery and expert organization. And we launder equally well, in less time and at a money-saving. If the housewife considers the time, fuel, materials and equipment necessary to do her own laundering she'll see the wisdom of giving up this back-breaking task.

Sanitary Family Washing Co. 16th and Regina Sts. Both Phones. We Call and Deliver.

Strick's Monday Dollar Day Sale of Hats. Hats Regularly Sold At $4, $3 and $2 Will Be Sold This Monday at $1.00. As in previous sales of this character we will not describe any of the styles or exceptional values of the Hats to be sold at ONE DOLLAR. They will be displayed on tables in our Millinery Department on the second floor of our new store—15 tables in all, 11 of which will be in the center aisle and 4 side tables—and any hat on any of these tables is yours for ONE DOLLAR. The sale includes Black Hemp Hats—White Milan Hats—White Hemp Hats—Black Lisera Hats—Hairbraided Hats—Tuscan Hats—Panama Hats—Trimmed Sailors—Colored Trimmed Hats—Trimmed Sport Hats—Trimmed Felt Sailors—Children's Milan Hats—Children's Panamas and Children's Trimmed Hats. For this Monday only—one special lot of Hats, worth $1.00 and $1.50, to go at 19c. For this Monday only—one special lot of Hats, worth $1.98 to $2.98 to go at 39c. Attend Our First Clearance Sale Now in Progress. This great selling of Women's and Misses' Suits, Coats, Waists, Skirts, Sweaters and high grade Millinery Trimmings, Ribbons, etc., provides the most remarkable saving opportunities of the year. Attend it—you'll be sure to save money.

MECHANICS TRUST COMPANY HARRISBURG, PA. INEXPERIENCE IS COSTLY. The average individual Executor lacks the necessary experience in the many details arising in the settlement of an estate and such inexperience is frequently costly. The combined experience of our trained officials and our representative Board of Directors insures against this. Consultations invited. CHARLES A. KUNKEL, President. JOHN E. FOX, Vice-President. JOHN C. MOTTER, Secretary-Treasurer. JOHN F. SWEENEY, Trust Officer. 3% PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS. CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $600,000.00.