

INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

TEA GUESTS GET WEDDING CARDS

School Days Romance Culminating For Miss Marian Townsend and Max Reiley

Another of the weddings hastened by the call to arms will be that of Miss Marian E. Townsend to James McKendree (Max) Reiley, a former resident of this city, which takes place on Saturday.

Mr. Reiley, a Cornell student, who has been at Fort Niagara has received his commission as Captain of Infantry and assigned as instructor for six months at Camp Meade, near Annapolis.

This afternoon, Mrs. John Wetzler Jacobs, of Penbrook, the bride's sister, entertained for her, the guests enjoying sewing and chat with tea following. The appointments were of yellow with garden flowers prevailing in the decorations.

As the guests left the dining room little Miss Phoebe Jacobs met them at the door, taking from a pretty basket small notes in white and silver, which invited them to her aunt Marian's wedding. Everyone was surprised and at once extended good wishes to the bride-elect whose romance extends back to Central High school days.

The party included: Miss Williams, Miss LeNora Fry, Miss Elizabeth Dohoney, Miss Vera Longenecker, Miss Miriam Hall, Miss Elizabeth Dill, Miss Gertrude Berry, Miss Evelyn Cumber, Mrs. John Ross Hall, Miss Dorothy Helman, Miss Mary Whitmer, Miss Mae McIlhenny, Miss Katharine Lichtenberger, Miss Ruth Barley, Atlantic City; Miss Martha McLean, of Chester; Miss Margaret Barrow, of Eanton; Miss Katharine Peters, Miss Helen Gaisel, Mrs. H. C. Townsend, Mrs. J. M. Reiley, of Buffalo, Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Wesley S. Townsend, of this city, and Mrs. Henry B. Stock, of Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sweeney, and daughters, Miss Nello, Miss Ida, Miss Irene and Miss Ann Sweeney, of 1 South Eighteenth street, are spending the week in Pen Mar.

The Rev. and Mrs. Homer Skyles May, and children, Betty and Homer, of North Fifteenth street, left yesterday for a two weeks' vacation with her brother and sister-in-law, the Rev. and Mrs. Harnish, of Waynesboro.

Mrs. P. J. Keane, of 1845 Market street, and little daughter, Kathleen, are spending some time in Atlantic City.

Miss Sarah Coover, of Mechanicsburg, is home after an extended trip to Philadelphia, New York and Atlantic City.

Mrs. George Watson and daughter, Josephine and son, Bernard, of 29 North Fifteenth street, are visiting relatives in Biglersville.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR SMALL BOY

Playmates of Franklin Runkle Help Make His Birthday a Merry One

FRANKLIN RUNKLE Mrs. J. F. Runkle, of 1211 Green street, arranged a merry party for her little son Franklin, who celebrated his second birthday. Among those present to help make the event a success were Bernice Mall, Marcus Och, Anna May Yeagley, Elsie Yeagley, Dorothy Yeagley, Edith Bell, Delmar Meyers, Betty Shank, John Peters, Miriam Kerstetter, Wilbur Kerstetter, Eleanora Delaney, Mary Ann Delaney, Billy Delaney, Louise Koons and Franklin Runkle.

Mrs. M. S. Och assisted Mrs. Runkle in entertaining the little folks.

Mrs. Frank Wynn and children, of 24 North Sixteenth street, are spending some time in Shamokin.

Miss Katharine Lappley, of Scranton, in a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren P. White for the remainder of the month.

Kenneth Rogers and small daughter, Elsie Rogers, of Erie, are in town for a brief stay with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Houseman.

Miss Nello Prener and Miss Sue Brenner, of Pittsburgh, went home this morning after a visit with Mrs. Frederick Conking, of State street.

Mrs. Annie Pyle is home after a week's stay with her daughter, Mrs. G. K. Saussaman, at Golden Glow cottage, Bolling Springs.

Stackpole-Bailey Bridal Party Given Informal Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lukens Bailey, of 2103 North Third street, will be hosts this evening at an informal dance for the members of the Stackpole-Bailey bridal party and a few of the more personal friends, at the Civic Club.

The Updgrove Orchestra will play for the guests, who will include: Miss Frances Bailey, Miss Emily Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bruce Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stackpole, Miss Elizabeth Bailey, Miss Georgia Reily Bailey, Miss Martha Bailey, Miss Mary Emily Bailey, Miss Ella Bailey, Miss Margaret Flaburn, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Margaret Tenney, of Haverford; Miss Susanna Fleming, Miss Dora Wickersham Coe, Miss Betty Peak, of New York City; Miss Sarah Hastings, Captain Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., Gilbert Bailey, Lieutenant Henry M. Cross, Corporal Albert Hummel Stackpole, John Sylvester Reilly, of Washington, D. C.; William Selter Bailey, William Martindale Shedd, of Brookline, Mass.; Edwin L. Sloover, of Montclair, N. J.; J. Donald Robb, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Irving Paris, of New York City and Captain Brennan, of Utica, New York.

Mrs. Holman Announces Her Sister's Engagement

Mrs. A. W. Holman, of Camp Hill, entertained last evening in honor of her sister, Miss Nora M. Koons, announcing her engagement to R. W. Shrope, of Lansford.

The guests, who were of pink and white and each guest received an engagement ring to which was attached a little card bearing the names of the newly betrothed.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white marquisette over tulle and carried a showy bouquet of valley lilies and bride roses. Miss Atella Richwine, a sister and only attendant of the bride, wore a dainty gown of tulle and lace and carried an arm bouquet of pale colored gladioli.

The best man was Clyde Miller. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, after which the young couple left for their honeymoon, in a motor car.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Richwine, of 1345 Fulton street and has been connected with the neckwear department of the Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart store for some time.

Mr. Polm, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Polm, of Oberlin, is a brakeman for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

POLM-RICHWINE WEDDING TODAY

Miss Margaret Richwine Weds Grover C. Polm in the Otterbein U. B. Church

MRS. GROVER C. POLM A quiet wedding took place this morning at 8 o'clock in the Otterbein United Brethren Church with the Rev. S. Rupp, pastor of the church officiating, when Miss Margaret Markwood Richwine, became the bride of Grover Cleveland Polm. An arrangement of palms, astors, roses and ferns made an attractive setting for the bridal party.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white marquisette over tulle and carried a showy bouquet of valley lilies and bride roses. Miss Atella Richwine, a sister and only attendant of the bride, wore a dainty gown of tulle and lace and carried an arm bouquet of pale colored gladioli.

The best man was Clyde Miller. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, after which the young couple left for their honeymoon, in a motor car.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Richwine, of 1345 Fulton street and has been connected with the neckwear department of the Dives, Pomeroy and Stewart store for some time.

Mr. Polm, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Polm, of Oberlin, is a brakeman for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

U. S. GOODWILL ACCEPTED BY JAPS

Standing Side by Side in Great Issues of Day, Says Envoy Ishii

A Pacific Port, Aug. 16.—All doubts and misconceptions which may have existed between Japan and the United States have been wholly cleared away in the three days which have elapsed since a Japanese mission landed here. Viscount K. Ishii, ambassador extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary declared in an address here last night.

Hagerstown Weddings of People Known Here

Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 16.—Miss Esther E. Fissel, of Harrisburg, and Edward C. Hatch, of Edinburg, N. Y., were married at the parsonage of the First Christian Church here on Tuesday by the Rev. G. B. Townsend.

Miss Fern Laign, of Harrisburg, and James Little, of Wadesboro, N. C., were united in marriage by the Rev. G. B. Townsend at the parsonage of the First Christian Church here on August 12.

Miss Corinne Snyder and Benjamin F. Hoover, both of Harrisburg, were married at the parsonage of St. John's Episcopal church here by the Rev. J. Edward Harms, pastor.

Miss Elsie M. Fisher and Paul D. Grove, both of Lewistown, Pa., were married here on Tuesday by Elder O. S. Highberger at his residence.

Bradbury-Neidig Bridal Event of This Morning

Miss Julia M. Neidig, daughter of Mrs. Anna L. Neidig, 128 South Second street, and Ross T. Bradbury, of Reading, were united in marriage at 10 o'clock on Tuesday by the Rev. J. J. Patrick at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

The bride wore a street suit of tan cloth with touches of blue in the trimmings, but to harmonize. She was attended by her sister, Miss Grace C. Neidig, as maid of honor and James L. Carroll was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury left for the new home in Springmount where he is engaged in business. The bride is a graduate of the Willmar school and has been employed as a clerk in Rosohn's for several years.

LAWN FETE FOR MISSIONS NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

Members of the Society of Christian Endeavor, of New Market Square Presbyterian Church will hold a lawn fete next Tuesday evening, August 21, at the Robert home, Fifth and Emerald streets for the benefit of missions. Besides the cake, candy and cream there will be a variety of other shown "Living Songs in Living Pictures," at 8:30 o'clock.

SAFE IN FRANCE

Miss Helen Cameron, of Petersburg, who is visiting in France, according to a cablegram sent to her by her mother, will assist in the Duryea relief work in that country.

GUESTS FROM JOHNSTOWN

Miss Edna Orris and Miss Thelma Orris, of Johnstown, are the guests of Miss Margaret Lawton, of 32 South Seventeenth street. During the stay here they are being much entertained. Among the various informal social affairs in their honor have been a dance given at the home of the evening with Miss Margaret Lawton, as hostess.

MARRIED BROOKLYN

An announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Emma Leona Dinamore, of 664 Calder street, and Jacob Dorfinkel, of Chicago. The wedding took place Wednesday, July 18, in Brooklyn, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Dorfinkel will spend the remainder of the summer at Gettysburg.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Welker A. Drawbaugh, of 1313 Derry street, will entertain informally this evening at their home in celebration of their sixteenth wedding anniversary.

Samuel Crane, has returned to Minneapolis, Minn., after visiting at his home, 1847 Park street.

TO REOPEN TURKISH SCHOOL

Stockholm, Aug. 16.—Ira Nelson Morris, the American minister to Sweden has received advice from Turkey that plans have been made to open the American College for Women at Constantinople on September 15. The State Department at Washington has instructed Minister Morris to forward $25,000 for the continuation of soup kitchens and relief of Jews in Turkey.

EDITOR STRANGLED

Paris, Aug. 16.—The death in a prison infirmary yesterday of Miguel Almeyda, editor of the Bonnet Rouge, which was attributed at first to hemorrhages of the lungs was said to-day by official justice to have been occasioned by strangulation. The autopsy showed strangulation to have been brought about by the use of a tiny corn such as a shoe string.

DIRECTORS COMPLETING BIG Y. M. C. A. PLANS

Showing the Need for Additional Equipment and General Repairs for the Interior of the Building. This Budget is Being Cared for in a Quiet Manner by the Community for Subscriptions to Cover the Necessary Appropriations. It is the Purpose of the Board of Directors to Provide a Fund of Approximately $30,000 to Carry Forward the Important work until 1918.

Many contributions have already been received and those who are disposed to aid the institution at this time have been urged to get into touch with the new secretary of the association, Robert B. Reeves. He is thoroughly familiar with the association work and comes to Harrisburg with the highest recommendations of those who are acquainted with what he has already done.

Need Special Secretary

It is the intention of the directors to provide a special secretary for the boys work and steps are now being taken to place this department of the association's activities in the most efficient shape for work among the boys here in the city. There are now serving upon the board a number of the prominent businessmen of the city and these are giving to their duties much time and attention.

A large electric sign is to be installed on the front of the building and other plans are under consideration for bringing the institution into its proper relation to the community. Already the Boy Scouts and the soldiers in the city and vicinity have found the Y. M. C. A. a large reception hall, restrooms, dressing-rooms and studio are provided in the new quarters.

To Provide Improvements

Under the budget provided there is given the approximate cost of necessary repairs and improvements in the building and installation of equipment needed to develop the various departments of the association and these include painting of the interior building, plumbing and steam fitting, the total amount for the improvements and equipment will be about $11,000. The remainder of the budget is for operating expenses until February 1, 1918, the close of the fiscal year.

The general plan is to promote the activities among the boys in religious work and social activities. The board as at present constituted comprises E. Z. Wallower, A. K. Thomas, William P. Starkey, E. J. Stackpole, Franklin J. Roth, George W. Reilly, W. Grant Rauch, William F. Paul, W. E. Hillrup, Jr., E. S. Herman, Wilmer Crow, Roy H. Carl, Charles W. Burnette, George G. Carl, J. William Bowman, Arthur H. Bailey, Arthur D. Bacon, John H.

Aldrich and Charles A. Kunkel, president. Contributors

- Among those who have contributed already to the big fund for the Y. M. C. A. work are the following:
- William P. Starkey $1,000
- C. L. Bailey, Jr. 25
- D. Bailey Brant 25
- Robert McCormick 100
- J. C. Motter 50
- J. Austin Brant 25
- E. A. Hefflinger 25
- J. Harry Messersmith 25
- J. W. Barker 25
- Arthur D. Bacon 50
- W. F. Paul 50
- W. M. Ogelsby 50
- F. E. Musser 200
- Charles W. Boll 100
- Al K. Thomas 100
- Paul Johnston 100
- J. E. Fox 100
- E. J. Stackpole 100
- W. J. Hillrup, Jr. 100
- Edwin S. Herman 100
- J. W. Bowman 100
- J. A. Affleck 25

Musser Studio Is Moved to Rooms in Second St.

Musser's studio, located for a number of years at 16 North Third street, has been moved to new quarters at 37 North Second street. A lease has been taken for both the second and third floors of the building.

For weeks extensive remodeling and alterations have been going on and new furnishings and equipment have been installed. The new quarters are the most complete in the city. A large reception hall, restrooms, dressing-rooms and studio are provided in the new quarters.

CHARGED WITH SHOPLIFTING

Eva Keller, charged with shoplifting in the case of the Market street store, was arrested yesterday by Detective Shuler and he is being held in the woman was detected by one of the store floorwalkers. She told the police her home is in Bloomburg.

POTATOES AT $1 A BUSHEL

Potatoes, according to local growers, were lower yesterday than they have been in eighteen months. They were offered at $1 a bushel retail. Sweet potatoes have dropped ten cents a half peck. They are now fifty cents.

Krauss & Co. Jewelry Store Enlarged and Improved

The building at 411 Market street has undergone alterations for the enlargement of Charles Krauss & Co. jewelry store.

The room formerly occupied has been consolidated with the adjoining store room at the corner of Market street and Grace avenue, and new show windows have been installed. The interior has also been remodeled by the addition of new lines of jewelry with new fixtures of an up-to-date type. The stock has been increased by the addition of new lines of merchandise and new departments have been added which will be devoted to leather goods, sporting goods, firearms, etc. Charles Krauss & Co. Jewelers and Pawnbrokers, have been in business at 411 Market street for seven years. Charles Krauss, proprietor, has been identified with the jewelry business in this city for fifteen years, and the growth and success of the business may be attributed to his enterprise and progressive policy.

ARREST BOYNE

William Boyne, charged with assaulting Mary Johnson, colored, who was arrested several days ago at Hagerstown, Md., was brought to the city yesterday. Boyne will be given a hearing before Alderman Kramm. The woman is in the Harrisburg Hospital.

Witmer, Bair & Witmer
Walnut near Second

Specials For Friday

A CLEARANCE OF ODDS AND ENDS AT EXCEPTIONAL SAVINGS

8 choice silk suits in taffeta, gros de londres, La Jerz and odd silk in stone gray, navy, Copen, and lavender, sizes 36 to 40, original stock prices $26.50 to $46.50. Special, $15.00	10 silk coats in taffeta and gros-de londres in black, navy and Wistaria, sizes 36 to 44, original stock prices $23.50 to $49.75. Special, $15.00
18 dresses in voile, ginghams and figures pongee, sizes 16 to 42, original stock prices $5.00 to $16.75. Special, $3.75	17 odd coats in mixtures, checks, gold, rose and green, sizes 16 to 38, original stock prices $11.75 to $15. Special, $5.00
75 waists in voile and organdy in white and touches of color, all sizes, stock prices $1.95 to $2.25. Special, $1.29

Witmer, Bair & Witmer

Complete, $425. $10 Is All You Need Pay For Immediate Delivery

See This New Model Foster & Co. Player-Piano This Week

If yours is a home in which good music is not always available, this is a time when you may easily make it so. For a down payment of only Ten Dollars, you will place in your home a guaranteed 88-Note Foster & Co. Player-Piano, 36 Music Rolls, Bench and scarf. But remember that this new model Foster & Co. Player-Piano, while very easy to buy is in no way to be classed with players ordinarily offered at popular prices. It is an instrument of highly satisfactory quality with a full Ten-Year Guarantee back of it.

Special Victrola Offer
$5.00 Cash

Will place in your home any $75 or $100 Victrola, and your choice of $5.00 in Records (total $80 or $105), balance payable $5.00 monthly.

Other styles, $15, $25, $40, $50. Easy Club Term.

J. H. Troup Music House
TROUP BUILDING 15 S. MARKET SQUARE

STORK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Fencil, of 2551 North Sixth street, announce the birth of a son, William Dean Fencil, Tuesday, August 14, 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, of 327 Granite street, announce the birth of a daughter, Esther Viola Johnson, Tuesday, August 14, 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Donegan, of 1821 Berryhill street, announce the birth of a daughter, this morning, at the Harrisburg hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Moore, of Pittsburgh, former Harrisburg, announce the birth of a son, Howard Andrew Moore, Saturday, August 11, 1917.

EDITOR STRANGLED

Paris, Aug. 16.—The death in a prison infirmary yesterday of Miguel Almeyda, editor of the Bonnet Rouge, which was attributed at first to hemorrhages of the lungs was said to-day by official justice to have been occasioned by strangulation. The autopsy showed strangulation to have been brought about by the use of a tiny corn such as a shoe string.

25 DEPARTMENT STORE

SOUTTER'S
1c to 25c Department Store
Where Every Day Is Bargain Day
215 Market St. Opposite Courthouse