

NEWPORT DOCTOR NOW IN FRANCE

Writes Home When Leaving England For Active Work at Battle Front

STARTED MONTHS AGO

Lieutenant Frederick C. Smith Commissioned in Medical Corps of U. S. Army

Halifax, Pa., Aug. 25.—Dr. Frederick C. Smith, who several months ago was commissioned first lieutenant in the Medical Corps of the United States Army, is now in France, according to a letter received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Smith. When the letter was written on July 15, just before his departure in England after a safe voyage across the ocean and was leaving his home by the way of the Atlantic coast, he was on his way to France, Miss Christine Neidig went to Williamsport on Wednesday to attend the wedding of her cousin, Miss Mildred Heck, Professor G. Hill, of the Wilmington, Del., Commercial College.—John C. Westfall and son, George, of Marysville, spent Monday here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Westfall. Mrs. Bowman has accepted a position in the Philadelphia and Reading railroads. Mrs. H. S. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Marshall left on Tuesday for a visit to relatives at Millville, N. J.—Clayton Chubb, of Cleveland, Ohio, is on a visit to his parents and friends, stopping at the home of Mrs. Isaac Bowman. His mother, Mrs. William Chubb, who had been in the hospital at Harrisburg, is now at home. Harry Allen visited relatives at Liverpool over Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Camp, of Marysville, Pa., and Mrs. Robert W. Jones, of Harrisburg, are at the home of John Cleason on the island near town.—The Rev. and Mrs. George M. Richter, of Schuylkill county, and Mrs. Robert W. Jones, of Harrisburg, are at the home of their brother, C. M. Richter.—Miss Ruth Bowman and Harry McCarly and children, Philadelphia, are spending some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bowman.—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stetson, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Metzger, over Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Miles Warfield, of Harrisburg, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warfield and family.—Horace Neitz paid a visit to his parents' home at Port Nevers on Sunday.—Mrs. Emma Wilver and grandson, William Buell, of Washington, D. C., spent Monday at the home of her niece, Mrs. H. S. Potter.—Mr. and Mrs. John Brancher, of North Bend, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Landis, over Sunday.—Miss Gertrude Westcott, of Harrisburg, is at the home of her brother, John and Harry Westfall.—Prof. W. Leroy Brooke, of Schuylkill county, spent Sunday here as the guest of Carrie Shoop.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meader and children, of Altoona, were week-end guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. Meader.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dillman spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Hilbert, at Steelton. Mrs. Hilbert, of Reading, is spending several days here as the guest of Miss Myrtle Chubb.—Harry Lebo and family returned Saturday from a week-end at Hershey.—Mrs. Mary Lebo spent Saturday at the home of Abram Petterhoff, in Halifax township.—Christina and family, of Harrisburg, are here.—Mrs. John Patterson and children and Miss Elsie Sheetz, of Chicago, and Miss Virgie Sheetz, of Philadelphia, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lebo.—William Cornitz spent several days at Hershey.—Miss Esther Eilers spent Sunday at the home of Daniel Lebo at Waynesville.

Brethren in Christ Holding Harvest Services

Elizabethtown, Pa., Aug. 25.—The Brethren in Christ will hold their annual harvest service here September 1. Mrs. Tillman Schwanger, of Reading, is the guest of relatives at Downingtown.—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ashenfelter were the guests of relatives at Harrisburg.—The Rev. Joseph H. Mattle, of Lancaster, is the guest of William Keefe at a visit to Harrisburg this week.—Hiram Hamaker was the guest of relatives at Millersburg.—George Chadrin is on a business trip to Lancaster on business on Wednesday.—Miss Mary Wormley were guests of relatives at Elvira, Pa.—Mrs. M. Wagner, Henry Loose and Enos Floyd, of Rheems, were in the borough on Wednesday.—Phillip Greenblatt, of Lancaster, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Greenblatt.—Enos Frey, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Moore, and daughter, of Columbia, were guests of J. E. Hoover and family.—Frank Walters and wife, of Steelton, are the guests of B. L. Geyer and family.—Miss Hilda Gantz was the guest of friends at Mount Joy on Thursday.—Miss Mabel Talbot, of Reading, spent a few days with A. H. Eppier and family.—Mrs. George Rutherford has resigned her position at the Masonic home.—Coble, of the Rev. Balmer and Ben. Bishop have accepted positions at the Masonic home.—Mrs. Stoner Breneman and son, Ernest, of Pittsburgh, are the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. W. W. Miller.—Miss Grace Helsey was the guest of friends at Lancaster.—Mr. and Mrs. William Myers, of Harrisburg, spent several days with Mrs. John Hise.—G. E. Myers left for his home at Rockdale, Mass., after visit to relatives here.—J. M. Schwanger and H. H. Cover have accepted positions at the Bethlehem steel works at Steelton.—B. F. Bachman and wife, of Steelton, are at Denver, Col., after a visit to his mother, Mrs. Emma Louer, in West High street.

Farmer Has Leg Broken Working on Woodland

Blain, Pa., Aug. 25.—Wilson Kliner, of Couchtown, while working on his woodland, sustained a compound fracture of the leg near the ankle.—R. H. Kell, notary public and justice of the peace, is improving from a light stroke he received on Wednesday. He left work while at the dinner table. He went on Monday to visit his son, E. M. Kell, at Plainfield.—Mrs. D. W. Sheaffer is visiting her sister, Mrs. Floy Rice, in New York.—Clarance Wilt, of Harrisburg, visited his home here.—Miss Pauline Gring, of Newport, paid a visit to Mrs. Sallie Jones.—The Rev. and Mrs. E. V. Strasbaugh left Monday on a two weeks' vacation to York county.—Miss Mina Fisher, of Chester, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kell.

COLUMBIA COUPLE GIVE FOUR SONS TO ARMY

MR. AND MRS. JONATHAN E. SIMPSON

Columbia, Pa., Aug. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan E. Simpson, of this place, have the unusual distinction of having given their four sons as soldiers in the war against Germany. They are now serving in different branches of the Army and Navy, the youngest being member of the local company, which is Company C, of the Fourth Regiment, Mr. Simpson, their father, is a well-known citizen of Columbia and for some years has been manager of the Columbia Grocery Company.

CENTRAL PENNA. PERSONALS

Lewisberry.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Parks and Mrs. Fred Myers, of York, and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Parks and daughter, Lois, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mrs. Maltida Parks.—Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Reiff, of Lewisberry, and Mrs. L. S. Reiff, of Lewisberry, returned on Sunday from a week-end at Danville.—Miss Gertrude Epelgraff, of Camden, N. J., who spent the past few weeks with Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Dietzler left Wednesday for Harrisburg.—Mrs. G. O. Kilmore and daughter, Miss Lillian Kilmore, of Steelton, returned Sunday from a week-end at Harrisburg.—Elmer Sutton and family, of Lewisberry, returned Sunday from a week-end at Harrisburg.—Mr. and Mrs. Webster Millard and Mr. and Mrs. E. Millard.—John A. Kilmore, of Mechanicsburg, returned Sunday from a week-end at Harrisburg.—Mrs. Annie Laird, of Harrisburg, returned Sunday from a week-end at Harrisburg.—Mrs. A. H. Fetrow, Mrs. Amanda Bonner and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Schaefer and daughter, Beth, returned Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Schaefer and family, of Harrisburg.—Miss Clara Boyer and Mr. William Petrov and children, William and Andrew, returned Sunday from a week-end at Harrisburg.—Charles Gray is serving as a volunteer in the army.—Mrs. M. Jones is home from a visit to Harrisburg.—Mrs. John Shutt and children, Dietrich, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kolva.—Miss Martha Howe spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. H. C. Dietzler, at Harrisburg.—Mrs. Ira Kelter spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Baum and daughter, Ruth, of Reading, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Matz, of Pittsburgh, visited A. A. Dodd on Sunday.—Mrs. M. Jones, of Detroit, Mich., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hochlander.—Mrs. Lydia Penker and grandson, John and Edward, are visiting relatives at Dalmatia.—John H. Sipe and family autored to Harrisburg, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Powell, of Norristown, is visiting Mrs. Powell and family.—Mrs. S. S. Sipe spent several days at Shamokin.

Manchester.—Roy Jacobs is spending the week at Atlantic City and Philadelphia.—Miss Susie Good and family, of Harrisburg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobs at Dillsburg.—Paul Jacobs, who had been working at Detroit, Mich., for several years, is spending some time at his parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Jacobs, High street.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Lentz are spending the week at Philadelphia.—Mrs. J. C. Jacobs spent Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gladfelter.—Miss Sarah Dietz and Sadie Bucher returned home after spending week-end at Harrisburg.—E. Bucher, while at Dover on business on Tuesday, was walking on the cement pavement after a heavy rain and slipped, fracturing his leg by a badly bruised arm.—The Misses Mary Gladfelter, Sadie Bucher, Sarah Dietz and William Frey, of Harrisburg, are the members of the club, which will attend the regular meeting in York Haven Park, on Thursday evening.—Ervin Brenner and family, of Port Royal, are visitors.—The Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Gerstner and children, Dorothy and Neull, have returned home after spending several weeks at Baltimore with relatives.

Mifflintown.—Mrs. Ralph Lucas and two daughters, of Tipton, Pa., are guests of her sister, Mrs. James Stretter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Breyer, of Chicago, are the guests of Mrs. Breyer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Berry, at Millville.—Lloyd Arbogast, of Harrisburg, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Muthersbaugh, and Mrs. M. J. L. Turner, who are spending Wednesday with Mr. Muthersbaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kreider, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Well left Wednesday for a trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.—Mrs. Wilcox Lind and son, are at relatives at New York City.—Miss Bebecca Auler and family, of Harrisburg, are visiting relatives at Phoenixville, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Lewisistown, and Misses Lottie Cunningham and Rhoda Kaufman, of Philadelphia, are the guests of Mrs. Erma Hower, of Harrisburg.—Mrs. F. J. Fetzer, of Carlisle, is visiting at Harrisburg.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Thad Vincent has returned home from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Helen Wright, of Clearfield, and Miss Margaret Suloff, of Williamsport, are visiting relatives at Harrisburg.—Dr. and Mrs. Fred Eschschade, and daughter, Alma Eschschade, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pettit, and daughter, Myrtle, of Port Royal, and Mrs. Pettit, of Lewisistown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hefard.

Sunbury.—Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Eagle returned to Philadelphia, after visiting his mother, Mrs. F. J. Binkeman.—Milo Summerson, Carl Schaeffer and William Neumaier, of Harrisburg, are the guests of Mrs. Harold Donahy, who has returned from a week-end at Harrisburg.—Mrs. Bruce Breyer and family, of Harrisburg, are spending the week at Harrisburg.—Miss Helen Raup, of Philadelphia, has returned home after visiting Miss Maybelle and family, of Harrisburg.—Mrs. Wilson and children, Sarah and John, are visiting relatives at Harrisburg.—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bohner are spending at Harrisburg.—Miss Emma Essina, of Cowart, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Klackner.—Miss Editha, of Susquehanna, is spending several days at Harrisburg.—Charles Rothelml is spending several days at Dalmatia.

Shippensburg.—Oscar Reilly, of Dover, Pa., is visiting relatives here.—Hays Watson, of near town, had his shoulder dislocated while playing Mrs. Rhoda Griffith, of Johnstown, is spending several weeks here.—The Normal School will open September 9.—The Junior Society of the Messiah United Brethren Church, held its annual outing to-day.

RED CROSS UNIT TAKES ADVISERS

Newville Branch Asked For Large Number of Articles by National Headquarters

ELEVEN NEW MEMBERS

Family Reunion at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Cramer at Newville

Newville, Pa., Aug. 25.—An earnest appeal is made by the Red Cross branch to all who can and will knit to assist in making steevese jackets, scarfs and wristlets in response to the call from National headquarters for a large quantity of these articles to be completed by September 15. Eleven new members have been added to the branch making the membership 340.—A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Cramer on Sunday. At this gathering were forty children and two great-grandchildren. They came from Buffalo, N. Y., Newark, Harrisburg, Steelton, Penbrook, Linglestown and Newburg.—The annual congregational meeting of the Red Cross Unit was held on Wednesday evening, September 5.—Miss Nettie Cleman, of Harvey, Ill., is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. C. Dietzler, at Harrisburg.—Mrs. John Witmer, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lynn Elliott, for several days.—Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Elliott, accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Wright, of Harrisburg, spent Wednesday with relatives at Thursday.—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Elliott, who spent the week-end at the seashore, will accompany them home.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brewster and child, of Reading, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Randall.—Miss Gertrude, who has gone to Washington to spend a month.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gayton, of New York City, visited the former's mother, Mrs. M. J. Stine, on Wednesday. Mr. Gayton left for Plattsburg, N. Y., where he will enter an officers' training camp.—Harold Fry, of Camp Hill, spent several days at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Fry. He will leave in a week for Newport, R. I., preparatory to entering the army.—Blanche DeHaven, of Philadelphia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elmer Kelter.—Miss Martha Householder, who spent the week-end at Harrisburg, is on a two weeks' vacation to Pittsburgh.—Mrs. Nannie Stewart, of Harrisburg, visited her sister, Mrs. W. H. Landis, for several days.

Farmer Has Leg Broken Working on Woodland

Killingar, Pa., Aug. 25.—Grasshoppers are playing havoc with vegetables in this section. They eat the beans down to the vines, and the cabbage clean to the stems and at some places they have cleaned up the corn. The farmers are using traps when they fly and make a noise like a heavy rain.—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lehman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor and family, of Millersburg, were guests at the home of W. H. Lehman for the week-end.—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Miller, of Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren L. Miller, of Killingar, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller and family, of Millersburg, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobs, on Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Witmer, of Millersburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobs, on Sunday.—Miss Ethel Lehman, of Hummelstown, is spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Nease, and Mr. and Mrs. William Nease, and daughter, of Millersburg, are spending a week at the home of Mr. Nease's parents here.—Mrs. Lydia Lenker, Miss Ruth Wimmer and Miss Maudie Borden, of Harrisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Stine, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stine, of Harrisburg, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobs, on Sunday.—J. L. Jury has been ill for the past week.—Mr. and Mrs. David Deibler, of Pleasant Hill, are the guests of Mrs. Nathan Feit, on Sunday.

Twenty-three Pay Fines For Speeding at Thompsonston

Thompsonston, Pa., Aug. 25.—Twenty-three persons exceeding the speed limit on the State highway were reported to State police, all paid their fines.—Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Schlegel and children and Mrs. John Dorwart, noted for Philadelphia on Sunday.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is spending a month at her farm in Walker township, Miss Mary Herr returned to Altoona on Thursday.—Mrs. Margaret E. Wagner, of Harrisburg, is visiting Mrs. Joseph Wetzler.—Paul Ward and sister, Miss Helen Ward, of Pennsylvania Furnace, are visiting at Harrisburg.—Mrs. E. B. Cameron Monday.—Mrs. G. B. Arnold and son, of Hysvittville, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Samuel Dunn and daughter and Mrs. Samuel Thomas, all of Altoona, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Jones, of Harrisburg.—Mrs. W. A. Wagner, of Center, Perry county, and Mr. J. M. Jones, of Carlisle, spent Sunday with Mrs. W. R. Long.—Miss Clara Wagner, of Harrisburg, is a guest of Miss Katherine Sme.—Mrs. George Benner, of Harrisburg, spent several days with Mrs. W. R. Long.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, was a guest of his mother, Mrs. J. G. Haldeman.—Misses Edith, Janet and Grace Diney, of East, Salem, are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Cloy Hiney, in Brooklyn, N. Y.—Miss Helen Herrick and sister, of Jersey City, N. J., are visiting at Harrisburg.—Mrs. David Rambler, of New York, where she spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zeigler and two sons, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Franthorpe Thursday.—Mrs. J. H. Krug, Mrs. Erbe Bailey and Mrs. Ed Frymoyer attended services at Island Park campgrounds Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conner and little daughter went to Philadelphia Thursday. Mr. Conner is working in the Midvale steel plant.

NEW BLOOMFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner and daughter, Mrs. Jennie Plank, and Mrs. George Geist, of Port Springs, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Schlegel and children and Mrs. John Dorwart, noted for Philadelphia on Sunday.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is spending a month at her farm in Walker township, Miss Mary Herr returned to Altoona on Thursday.—Mrs. Margaret E. Wagner, of Harrisburg, is visiting Mrs. Joseph Wetzler.—Paul Ward and sister, Miss Helen Ward, of Pennsylvania Furnace, are visiting at Harrisburg.—Mrs. E. B. Cameron Monday.—Mrs. G. B. Arnold and son, of Hysvittville, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Samuel Dunn and daughter and Mrs. Samuel Thomas, all of Altoona, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Jones, of Harrisburg.—Mrs. W. A. Wagner, of Center, Perry county, and Mr. J. M. Jones, of Carlisle, spent Sunday with Mrs. W. R. Long.—Miss Clara Wagner, of Harrisburg, is a guest of Miss Katherine Sme.—Mrs. George Benner, of Harrisburg, spent several days with Mrs. W. R. Long.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, was a guest of his mother, Mrs. J. G. Haldeman.—Misses Edith, Janet and Grace Diney, of East, Salem, are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Cloy Hiney, in Brooklyn, N. Y.—Miss Helen Herrick and sister, of Jersey City, N. J., are visiting at Harrisburg.—Mrs. David Rambler, of New York, where she spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zeigler and two sons, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Franthorpe Thursday.—Mrs. J. H. Krug, Mrs. Erbe Bailey and Mrs. Ed Frymoyer attended services at Island Park campgrounds Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conner and little daughter went to Philadelphia Thursday. Mr. Conner is working in the Midvale steel plant.

STATES OLDEST BARN BUILDER

John S. Keener Has Been Erecting Big Structures Nearly Sixty Years

PASTOR ON VACATION

Duncannon Red Cross Auxiliary Now Has Membership of More Than 600

Duncannon, Pa., Aug. 25.—During a storm recently lightning struck a post in the garden at the home of Mrs. Myrtle McCoy, North Market street. The current ran along the clothesline fastened to the post and killed a dog in a box at the other end of the clothesline where it was fastened to a pole.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Steele, formerly of Duncannon, now living at Stuart, Florida, visited relatives here during the past week.—The Rev. E. T. Kohler, pastor of the United Brethren church, is on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kohler, at Yoe, York county.—Mrs. G. A. Kohler, at Yoe, York county, is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Miller, at Center, York county, as his guests the past week his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miller, of Altoona.—Mrs. Jennie Mell and family, of Harrisburg, are spending several days at Lancaster and Philadelphia.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips and daughter, Janet Louise, of Harrisburg, are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wilson, the pastor of the United Brethren church, at Harrisburg.—The Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Wright, of Harrisburg, spent Wednesday with relatives at Mt. Holly.—Miss Kathryn Hawley, of Harrisburg, is spending the week at the home of her father, the venerable J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. Missemer, who is suffering from nervous prostration.—Mrs. M. J. Stine, of Harrisburg, is slowly but very gradually recovering and expects soon to again resume his editorial work.—Louis Kramer, of Harrisburg, who has been a business man in this town more than twenty years ago, was a caller on J. R. M