

TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

LATE NEWS FROM THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY

ANOTHER CALL MAY BE MADE

Cumberland County Draft Boards Await Decisions on Exemption Claims

Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 27.—With the latest announcement of men accepted for service in the National Army, the draft board say that the exemptions are so large that an additional call of men will be made in order to fill Cumberland county's quota.

The work of acting on exemption claims has not been completed and the new call will not be made until all claims already filed are decided. The following is the latest announcement of the action of the board from District No. 2:

Accepted for service—Levan L. Hoover, Newville, no claim; Thomas Z. Wagner, Newville, no claim; Samuel H. Carrothers, Carlisle, claim denied; Charles E. Myers, Carlisle, R. D., claim denied; Leroy B. Harris, Carlisle, claim denied; Lem Monroe, Slickety, Carlisle, no claim; Frederick K. Thompson, Carlisle, no claim; Garnet G. Gillespie, Carlisle, claim denied; Ben W. Clauss, Slickety, no claim; Oscar M. Hubley, Shippensburg, no claim; Lester M. Goodhart, Carlisle, claim denied; Doyle D. Ashburn, Carlisle, R. D., claim denied; Raymond W. Bitner, Newville, claim denied; Lee M. Hale, Shippensburg, claim denied; Frank R. Robb, Mt. Holly, no claim; James Means, Shippensburg, no claim; George E. Shearer, Mt. Holly, claim denied; Albert B. Green, Shippensburg, no claim.

Exempted, account of dependants—Haden A. Stitt, Newville; Harry C. Wolf, Mt. Holly; Charles E. Berry, Shippensburg; Victor W. Gooding, Carlisle; John C. Farmer, Oakville; Bruce Kunkleman, Shippensburg; David W. Brown, Shippensburg; Samuel W. Kitzmiller, Shippensburg, R. D.; Clarence E. Myers, Treason; Robert E. Greenwood, Carlisle.

Physically disqualified—Eshlen E. Miller, Carlisle; Warren L. Setz, Carlisle; R. D. Albert, O. Shook, Newburg; William L. Naugle, Shippensburg; John H. Mullis, Carlisle; George C. Bowman, Newburg; Andrew C. Nell, Newville; Charlatan P. Humer, Carlisle; Jacob Hippenstein, Lees Crossroads.

Already in service—Ross E. Stickle, Carlisle; Earl R. Wetzel, Carlisle; Frank Hart, Carlisle.

No announcement from District No. 1 has been made since Friday.

CIGAR FACTORY RESUMES WORK Dillsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—The cigar factory here resumed operations last week after being idle for several months. A. F. Fix, county treasurer of York county, an experienced cigar-maker, who is conducting several factories elsewhere, has taken over the factory and will manage the cigar-making here. Work started with twelve employees and more are promised as soon as these have become acquainted with the work.

WINS WATCH FOR Dillsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—M. C. Thuma, secretary of Dillsburg camp, P. O. S. of A., is wearing a new P. O. S. of A. watch fob, a present from the state camp far securing six new members during the past year.

GOES TO TRAINING CAMP Dillsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—J. Austin Lilew left on Wednesday for the officers training camp at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where he will undergo several months' training.

Two Boys Injured When Auto Demolished Carriage Carlisle, Pa., Aug. 27.—At about fifteen minutes before 12 o'clock on Saturday night as Paul Sunday and Harry Albright were driving from Carlisle to the former's home near Middlesex, their carriage was struck by a large automobile and demolished. The automobile was running without lights and struck the boys almost as soon as they saw it. Their team was struck on the extreme right hand side of the road. The occupants of the car took the boys to the Carlisle Hospital for treatment. As they were being carried into the hospital the automobile disappeared into the darkness before the names of the occupants or the number of the car could be secured. Both boys were badly bruised and the Albright youth has a deep cut over the right eye. He is still in the hospital, but Paul Sunday was taken to his home yesterday.

Woman Writes Her Will on Bank Book Pages Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 27.—Probably for the first time the history of the county, a will written on two pages of a bank book has been offered for probate in the office of Register and recorder Stover. The will contains less than a hundred words, and was written by the maker, Miss Ella Jenckel, of Mercersburg, Pa. Miss Jenckel died here last Sunday, and the will, duly signed and witnessed, was read on Friday, August 27. She divided her estate among her sisters.

More Petitions Filed by Mechanicsburg Candidates Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—Petitions continue to be filed at Carlisle for borough offices in this place as follows: Burgess, J. J. Millisen, Republican, First ward; George D. Guyer, Republican; councilman, Fourth ward, Ira D. Fish, Democrat; auditor, M. L. Beck, Democrat; councilman, First ward, W. A. Beck; councilman, First ward, W. H. Moyer, Republican; councilman, Fifth ward, Charles E. Schaub, Republican; inspector, Third ward, F. D. Mumma, Democrat.

York County Peach Crop Ready For Shipment Dillsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—The peach crop in this section promises to be large and the present indications are that prices will be high. The earlier varieties will be harvested this week and arrangements made for shipments from Dillsburg. One car has been placed, with orders for five more this week. There will be thousands of bushels for market in the several orchards near here during the next few weeks.

LIGHT LINE COMPLETED Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 27.—The Waynesboro Electric Light and Power Company has completed its new line for furnishing light and power between Pen Mar and Highfield, and the current has been turned on. The first customer for light and power was the Cascade Industrial Company, manufacturers of chocolate candies.

YOUTH'S ARM BROKEN Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 27.—Milton Hollinger, 17-year-old son of William Hollinger, Shady Grove, sustained a broken arm by falling from a stone bin in the Antrim Grove Church section.

EDITOR ELECTED PRESIDENT Newport, Pa., Aug. 27.—Francis A. Fry, editor of the semi-weekly Newport News, has again been re-elected president of the Society of the McAlisterville Soldiers' Orphans' School at their reunion.

PRIZE COWS SOLD Sunbury, Pa., Aug. 27.—In keeping with a community building campaign, the First National Bank, of Elysburg, held a sale of Holstein-Friesian cows to neighborhood folk. More than 1,000 persons attended and twenty-four prize animals were sold for the top price of $130 each.

MEMBERSHIP CONTEST Lemoyne, Pa., Aug. 27.—The attendance and new membership contest in progress in the United Evangelical Christian Endeavor Society for several weeks is attracting considerable attention. There are two teams vying for honors. The "blue" team is in charge of Miss Ella Thomas and the "red" team is in charge of J. Boyd Trostle. At the close of the contest a banquet will be served the winning side by the losers.

STRAWBERRY TO GOOD HOPE Enola, Pa., Aug. 27.—The committee in charge of the second Young Folks' Strawberry will meet to-morrow evening at the home of E. B. Bachman, chairman of the committee, to make final arrangements. The outing will be held on Thursday at Good Hope Mills. A chicken cornsupp dinner and supper will be served and a program of athletic events will be held.

BIBLE CLASS CORNROAST Lemoyne, Pa., Aug. 27.—The annual cornroast of the Men's Bible Class of the local United Evangelical Sunday School, which was to have been held last Thursday evening, will be held on the church lawn to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, weather permitting.

BOARD OFFICERS CHOSEN Lemoyne, Aug. 27.—At a recent meeting of the Lemoyne school board, William Fetrow was elected treasurer and LeRoy Unger secretary.

RED CROSS AT GRANGER PICNIC

Prominent Speakers on Program For Big Gathering at Williams Grove

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—Among the speakers at the Grangers' Picnic, to be held at Williams Grove on Thursday, August 30, will be E. B. Dorsett, from the bureau of agriculture; Lewis Palmer, of the labor and safety bureau, and H. S. Mohler, of Mechanicsburg, who will give a short history of the early movement of the grange and revival of grange interest at this special time.

A Red Cross speaker will be present to tell of the needs of the organization. Mrs. David Watts will take her knitting class to the grove, where all the children will take their work. Mrs. Harry Keffer, president of the Story Teller League, of Harrisburg, will entertain in the evening at 10:30 o'clock. All Red Cross knitters are invited to take their work to the grove and help enlist the services of others who have not been interested. Several troops of Boy Scouts will be there and drill.

1,100-Pound Ox Roasted For P. O. S. of A. Picnic

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 27.—Friday and Saturday were gala days for the members of the P. O. S. of A. of Waynesboro. They held their annual picnic at Cold Spring Park, near Waynesboro, and several thousand people enjoyed the event. There was a large crowd for the occasion. The beef, weighing 1,100 pounds, was delivered Friday morning, and was put in the large roaster and fire was lighted at 8 o'clock and kept going all night. The job of roasting the animal was completed at 7 o'clock on Saturday morning, and the first cut was made at that time. H. W. McNew, Fayetteville, and William McNew, Chambersburg, had charge of the roasting. Meals comprising corn, bean soup and beef sandwiches served all day free to everyone. The Wayne Band furnished music, and the address Saturday afternoon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Norris, of Norristown.

RED CROSS SUPPLIES SHIPPED

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 27.—Unit No. 1 of the local Red Cross received an urgent call yesterday from the Philadelphia headquarters for all hospital articles on hand, and that they be sent at once for immediate shipment abroad. The ladies boxed up a total of 960 articles and sent them to Philadelphia in the afternoon.

YORK COUNTY FARM SOLD

Dillsburg, Pa., Aug. 27.—A farm containing eighteen acres, with a large stone house and a frame barn, belonging to the estate of the late Joseph Speck, of Washington township, was sold at public sale on Friday afternoon for $1,930. William P. Deardorff, of this place, was the purchaser.

HIGH SCHOOL OPENS

Newport, Pa., Aug. 27.—The borough high school opened this morning with a large attendance for a nine and one-half month term. George W. Barnitz is principal. The grade schools will open next Monday, September 3, for a nine-month term.

MILK PRICE ADVANCED

Sunbury, Pa., Aug. 27.—Milton milk dealers announced that the price of milk will be advanced to ten cents a quart on the first of next month, the highest in the history of the town. They say that the advance in price is due to the increased cost of everything that enters into the production and distribution of milk. Cows at a few months ago sold at $50 to $75 each and are now $150. Feed has advanced from $30 to $50 a ton, and farm labor is 15 per cent. higher than it was a year ago.

IMPROVING CONDITIONS

Sunbury, Pa., Aug. 27.—According to E. Bud Cannon, superintendent of the Milton plant of the American Car and Foundry Company, $30,200 will be spent to better sanitary and working conditions. Building drinking fountains, toilet and washrooms, clothes lockers and ventilators are to be built. All buildings will be painted white and the plant fenced in. Mr. Cannon is also authority for the statement that additional expenditure will be authorized for new machinery and additional buildings. The plant employs 1,100 men and is working day and night.

RETURN FROM UNIVERSITY

Lemoyne, Pa., Aug. 27.—Prof. Harry Slothover returned from New York, where he took the Columbia University course in administrative management. Prof. Slothover will leave in two weeks for Mount Union, where he is teacher of science in the high school. He was granted a grant by Lemoyne High School in the class of 1908.

MEMBERSHIP CONTEST

Lemoyne, Pa., Aug. 27.—The attendance and new membership contest in progress in the United Evangelical Christian Endeavor Society for several weeks is attracting considerable attention. There are two teams vying for honors. The "blue" team is in charge of Miss Ella Thomas and the "red" team is in charge of J. Boyd Trostle. At the close of the contest a banquet will be served the winning side by the losers.

STRAWBERRY TO GOOD HOPE

Enola, Pa., Aug. 27.—The committee in charge of the second Young Folks' Strawberry will meet to-morrow evening at the home of E. B. Bachman, chairman of the committee, to make final arrangements. The outing will be held on Thursday at Good Hope Mills. A chicken cornsupp dinner and supper will be served and a program of athletic events will be held.

EMBROIDERY CLUB AT MOUNT GRETTA

Young Ladies of Olivet Presbyterian Church Entertained at Highland Cottage

Mount Gretna, Pa., Aug. 27.—The Young Ladies' Embroidery Club of the Olivet Presbyterian Church, of Harrisburg, were entertained at Highland cottage over the week-end. The guests were Miss Cora Culmery, Miss Margaret Herrmann, Miss Sarah White, Miss Bertha Brightbill, Miss Tillie Klester and Miss Ruth Brummel.

Miss Ruth Eisenberger, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith at Chestnut Burr cottage.

Miss Bessie Rupp, Mrs. John Rupp and daughter Jean and Miss Lillian Rupp, of Harrisburg, spent several days at Yorktown Lodge.

Miss Elizabeth Lloyd, of Harrisburg, has returned home after a pleasant visit with Miss Elizabeth Howard.

Miss Elizabeth Fackler and Miss Agnes Fackler entertained at five hundred on Friday evening. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Elizabeth Kreider, Nancy Kreider, Margaret Dunn, Florence Kreider, Florence Hinkensbach, Dorothy Devout, Helen Whitman, Elizabeth Howard, Jessie Smith, Esther Bachman, Mildred Burke, Winifred Harris, Josephine Hoffmann, Pauline Hoffman, Josephine Stein, Mary Henry, Violet Kettering and Josephine Kettering.

Paul Strickler, of Hummelstown, Benjamin Whitman and John McCullough, of Harrisburg, motored to Mount Gretna Saturday and visited the Misses Mack.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cleckner, of Camp Hill, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burke.

Miss Emily Edwards is spending a week with the Misses March.

Miss Katie Devout and Miss Carrie Devout, of 208 Hummel street, Harrisburg, spent Saturday with their brother, Anson Devout, on the camping grounds.

Miss Elinor Jopson, of Philadelphia, is spending some time with Mrs. Samuel Fackler, of the chalet at Royalton, are occupying their cottages.

Miss Jennie Coughlin, of Middletown, Conn., spent Thursday with Mrs. Samuel Fackler.

Mr. and Mrs. William Steimer, of Harrisburg, are spending a few days with Mrs. Anna Steimer at Montanessa cottage.

Miss Kathryn Drawbaugh, of Harrisburg, was a recent visitor at Reizlaw cottage.

William Conley, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end here.

Miss Rebecca Burnite, of Harrisburg, is spending some time with Miss Elizabeth Knox on the chaletauqua grounds.

Miss Tillie Burke, of 1203 Green street, Harrisburg, is spending some time with Mrs. Samuel Fackler, of the chalet at Royalton.

John C. Wallace, of Chicago, is spending a week at Melrose cottage on the camping grounds.

Miss Marie Wagner, of Harrisburg, was the guest of her brother, Marlin Wagner, of Truck Company No. 6.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan and Harry Jordan, of Harrisburg, motored to Mount Gretna on Sunday and were guests at Montanessa cottage.

FALL KILLS AGED FARMER

Sunbury, Pa., Aug. 27.—Anxious to do his bit, because his son's farm crops were going to ruin due to lack of help, Samuel Hoy, 71, of near Milton, was helping to house hay when he fell through an opening in the mow to the barn floor eight feet below. He suffered injuries which resulted in death to-day.

SUBURBAN NOTES

DILLSBURG Professor J. S. Heiges and family, of Shippensburg State Normal School, are visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Arnold, of Carlisle, were guests of Mrs. Margie Levey in North Baltimore street yesterday.

The Rev. S. A. Crabill and family have returned from a three weeks' vacation in Virginia and the pastor resumed his work in the several churches yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz and Mr. and Mrs. George Ferree, of Shippensburg, and Anson Zentgraf, of Harrisburg, were guests of W. S. Shaffer and family yesterday.

Monday, September 3, is the time set for the opening of schools.

The union ALLEN school picnic of Churrtown was held on Tuesday at Boiling Springs Park.

Mrs. William Smith and children Gladys, Kathryn and Wilbert and sister Ora, are spending two weeks with her father Levi Enck.

The Misses Helen and Thesta Goodyear are on a trip to Atlantic City where they are visiting their sister, Mrs. Jacob Herr.

Mrs. William Balsh and children, Christine, Sara and Eugene are spending several weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Landis.

Mrs. Shelly, of near Boiling Springs, spent a day with her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Levey.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sheaffer, of Philadelphia, spent a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sheaffer, also Mrs. Sheaffer's sister, Mrs. William Ginler.

News Items of Interest in Central Pennsylvania

York—Rudolph E. Smyser, son of Mrs. E. Lewis Smyser, of this city, who at the age of 17 enlisted in the National Guard of Pennsylvania at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, has been promoted to a major in the United States Army.

Mauch Chunk—Carbon county exemption board No. 2 finished work on appeals for exemptions Saturday. The district list twenty-four short of their quota of 229 men, only 155 being accepted. It was decided to call more men to the list.

Thompsonstown—Squire Cameron on Saturday fined twenty-three persons who were arrested for exceeding the speed limit in their automobiles on the state highway near here.

Manheim — Surveys have been completed for a trolley line to run from this place to Hershey. For some time Manheim businessmen have been anxious to have communication by trolley with Hershey, as it would give an outlet for the milk supply.

Lancaster—State engineers are surveying for a new state road running from this place to Gettysburg, Chester county, a distance of about eight miles.

Reading—Eggs have jumped from 42 cents a dozen here to 48 cents, the highest price ever paid in summer for eggs in this section of the state.

Port Clinton—This town is suffering from a coal famine, beginning early in July. Many people are using old stoves and others are using wood.

Mrs. Mary Slicer, of the Poyneville, notified their employers here that they will go back to school next week, and the latter will employ girls, as they cannot secure men.

Dale Smith, of Lebanon, Goes Back to Battle Line

Lebanon, Pa., Aug. 27.—After more than a year spent in England, following his being wounded in the head by shrapnel while fighting in the trenches somewhere in France, Dale Smith, of Lebanon, has been ordered to report to his command, the Twenty-fourth Cavalry Battalion.

This information was contained in a cablegram from Lieutenant Smith to his father, A. D. Smith, superintendent of the Cornwall & Lebanon division of Fish Dam, near Lebanon. During his convalescence in England, Lieutenant Smith married the daughter of an English army officer.

MRS. W. S. HAMMOND BURIED

Lewisberry, Pa., Aug. 27.—Funeral services for Mrs. W. S. Hammond were held Saturday afternoon at her home, the Rev. L. Elbert Wilson, officiated. Hymns were sung by a quartet composed of Mrs. J. H. Stonestier and D. A. Shrader, organ accompaniment by Mrs. Homer C. Hetrick. There were many beautiful flowers. Among those present from a distance were: Mrs. A. S. Hauck and son Walter, Mechanicsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Starr, of Harrisburg; Charles King and son Starr King, Mt. Union; Clarence Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. William Starr and William Gardner, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hammond and Betty Hammond, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Nortonheim and daughter Caroline and Mrs. Samuel W. Purvis, Philadelphia; Mrs. R. N. Wright and son William, York; Mrs. D. R. Crumlin, New Cumberland; Mrs. Clarissa Sterrett, Shippensburg, Pa.; Lloyd Hutton and family of Valley Forge, Pa.; Mrs. Amanda Armstrong, of N. J., and Miss Jennie K. Hammond, of York.

FALL KILLS AGED FARMER

Sunbury, Pa., Aug. 27.—Anxious to do his bit, because his son's farm crops were going to ruin due to lack of help, Samuel Hoy, 71, of near Milton, was helping to house hay when he fell through an opening in the mow to the barn floor eight feet below. He suffered injuries which resulted in death to-day.

SUBURBAN NOTES

DILLSBURG Professor J. S. Heiges and family, of Shippensburg State Normal School, are visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Arnold, of Carlisle, were guests of Mrs. Margie Levey in North Baltimore street yesterday.

The Rev. S. A. Crabill and family have returned from a three weeks' vacation in Virginia and the pastor resumed his work in the several churches yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lutz and Mr. and Mrs. George Ferree, of Shippensburg, and Anson Zentgraf, of Harrisburg, were guests of W. S. Shaffer and family yesterday.

Monday, September 3, is the time set for the opening of schools.

The union ALLEN school picnic of Churrtown was held on Tuesday at Boiling Springs Park.

Mrs. William Smith and children Gladys, Kathryn and Wilbert and sister Ora, are spending two weeks with her father Levi Enck.

The Misses Helen and Thesta Goodyear are on a trip to Atlantic City where they are visiting their sister, Mrs. Jacob Herr.

Mrs. William Balsh and children, Christine, Sara and Eugene are spending several weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Landis.

Mrs. Shelly, of near Boiling Springs, spent a day with her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Levey.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sheaffer, of Philadelphia, spent a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sheaffer, also Mrs. Sheaffer's sister, Mrs. William Ginler.

DUNCANNON

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Perry county, will hold its seventh annual convention at New Bloomfield on September 5.

The annual P. O. S. of A. reunion of Perry county will be held on Ickesburg, Saturday, September 1.

Robert Pennell, of Lykens, visited relatives here during last week.

After a several days visit to relatives here, Harold Tarman has returned to his home at Harrisburg.

For some cause not known peaches are rotting on trees just before the ripening stage.

NEWPORT Mrs. Nellie Culp and daughter, Lucille, are visiting relatives at Lancaster.

Miss Ruth Wright has gone to the Harrisburg Hospital for a course in training as a nurse.

Miss Maude Hain, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of her brother, Samuel Hain.

The Rev. J. B. Baker, of Gettysburg, is visiting as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Grubb. He was formerly pastor of the Newport Lutheran church.

RELIEVE INDIGESTION With Horford's Acid Phosphate Taken before meals, tones the stomach, promotes appetite and prevents distress. Buy a bottle. Advertisement.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS GUESTS

Teacher L. K. Bringer Entertains Members of Memorial Lutheran

Stoverdale, Pa., Aug. 27.—L. K. Bringer entertained his Sunday school class of the Memorial Lutheran Church of Harrisburg at his cottage, Hickory Lodge, last week. The day was spent in games, swimming and embroidery. Dinner was served to Mrs. Searfoss, Mrs. Yeager and daughters, Helen and Mildred, Mrs. Paterson and daughter Meriam, Mrs. Heighes and son Russell, Mrs. Wagner and son, Mrs. Martin and sons, Jerald and James, Mrs. Steckley, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Hoover, Bessie Leroux, Mrs. Dunkle, Mrs. Page and daughter Maxine and Miss Sheesley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baston and daughter Kathryn, of Harrisburg, and Ed. Baston, of Augusta, Ga., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nagle at the Wobelo.

Roy D. Atkinson, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his family at the Wobelo.

Mrs. Wilmer Crow and son Wilmer, Jr., and daughter Olive, Mrs. John Doup, Charles Crow and son Howard, Mrs. Joseph Berger of Royalton, and Miss Dorothy Gotwald, of Middletown, were guests of Mrs. William Nonemaker at the Clyfrest.

Mrs. Mary Slicer, of the Poyneville, spent a day at her Harrisburg home. Misses Elizabeth Ritts, Alma Gingrich and Virginia Gingrich, of Hummelstown, spent a day with Mrs. J. L. Cole at the Waldheim.

Mrs. C. A. Snucker and daughter Lucille, of Harrisburg, Mrs. H. B. Kercher, of Palmyra, and Mrs. W. F. Elder and daughter Charibel, of Harrisburg, were recent guests of Mrs. R. A. Wilder and Mrs. J. H. Kase at Camp Comfort.

Edwin J. Knieley, of the Susse Ruhe, transacted business at Harrisburg on Friday.

Mrs. Jacob Behman left for her home at Middletown after spending a week at the Clyfrest.

Miss Pearl Slack and Mary Hohman, of the Jason, spent several days at Middletown.

Mrs. R. D. Atkinson, of the Utopia, and Mrs. Clarence Sherlock, of the Chelsea, spent a day at Middletown.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Johnson, of the Seldom Inn, spent several days at their Harrisburg home.

Soldier Killed in Auto Accident Near Mt. Gretna

Mount Gretna, Pa., Aug. 27.—John Garrett, a private in Ammunition Supply Company, No. 6, was fatally injured yesterday when an automobile in which he and four others were riding crashed into a telegraph pole near Bismarck, four miles south of camp. William Ritter, a civilian member of the party, had his arm broken while the others escaped with bruises.

Garrett, who died later, was 27 years old and lived at Lebanon.

Jacob Ulrich, Well-Known Resident of Grantville, Dies

Grantville, Pa., Aug. 27.—Jacob W. Ulrich, aged 82 years, a lifelong resident of Grantville, who died last week, after an illness of several years, was buried on Saturday. He is survived by a brother, John D. Ulrich, and a sister, Miss M. Elizabeth Ulrich, both of Grantville. Graduating from Muhlenberg College in 1884, where he gained prominence in many lines of college activities, Mr. Ulrich took over the management of his father's farm, near Grantville. During his lifetime he took an active part in county politics, affiliating himself with the Democratic party. In the Fall of 1892 he received the party nomination for State Senator. He was very popular as a member of various secret organizations, and repeatedly represented Washington Camp No. 516, P. O. S. of A., in the State and National camps. He at one time served as district president in the Odd Fellows, and was a member of the Order of Elks.

EIGHT CALVES IN TWO YEARS

Record Births For Ayrshire Cow Owned by York County Farmer

Mount Wolf, Pa., Aug. 27.—Eight calves in two years is the record completed by an Ayrshire cow owned by H. W. Strickler, of Manchester, adjoining this borough, when a week ago it gave birth to triplets. All three of the calves are fully formed and active. During September, 1916, the same cow mothered triplets and a year before that gave birth to twins. The present trio was weighed to-day and each one tipped the scales at 75 pounds. Mr. Strickler is a well-known cigar manufacturer and aside from this business does farming and pays particular attention to raising pure-bred stock.

ANOTHER CALL IN JUNIATA

Mifflintown, Pa., Aug. 27.—The Juniata county draft board is preparing to issue another call to fill out the county's quota of 100 men. A score more men are needed. Two hundred and eighteen men were in the first batch called, but only 113 of these passed the physical examination. Sixty of these were willing to serve, but 59 made claims for exemption. The examination board failed to hear the plea of 20 of these persons, but 39 were exempted.

PAYING SOLDIERS' DUES

Enola, Pa., Aug. 27.—At a recent meeting of Enola lodge No. 668, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, it was decided that the dues of all men called to the colors in the National Army would be paid by the lodge in order that each member would continue to be in good standing and eligible to the benefits of the organization.

CANDIDATE WITHDRAWS

Newport, Pa., Aug. 27.—S. A. Sharon has declined the Republican nomination for borough council. Three men are to be nominated as party candidates for council at the September primaries and there are only three in the field with Mr. Sharon's withdrawal. Consequently these three, W. C. Fickes, J. L. Kerr and A. B. Wright, will secure the nominations without contest.

Don't Take Risks

If your stomach is strong, your liver active, and bowels regular, take care to keep them so. These organs are important to your health. Keep them in order with Beecham's Pills and avoid any risk of serious illness. A dose or two as needed, will help the digestion, stimulate the bile, and regulate the habits. Their timely use will save much needless suffering, fortify the system and Insure Good Health

Sold by druggists throughout the world. In boxes, 10c., 25c. Directions of Special Value to Women are with Every Box.

Advertisement for Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. featuring 'B