

KERENSKY GETS UPPER HAND IN RUSS REVOLT

Gen. Korniloff's Army Believed to Have Been Outmaneuvered and Its Advance on Petrograd Checked; Many Offer Support to Provisional Government; General Bruyovitch Appointed Commander-in-Chief

Petrograd, Sept. 12. — The Associated Press was informed unofficially early this morning at the Winter Palace that Premier Kerensky was about to assume the position of commander-in-chief of all the Russian armies, at least until the revolt had been crushed.

Petrograd, Sept. 12. — Major General Bor' Bruyovitch has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Russian army in succession to General Korniloff.

The provisional government to-day declared that a state of war exists in the town and district of Moscow.

The Associated Press was personally informed late yesterday by Minister of Finance Nekrasoff that the forces of General Korniloff in the direction of Pskoff and at Dno, which were marching on Petrograd, had been outmaneuvered by the troops loyal to the provisional government and that their retreat had been cut off.

While the Kerensky leaders are unable to report the final overthrow of General Korniloff they are optimistic concerning the general situation. Unconfirmed reports say that a part of General Korniloff's army is surrendering to the government.

While unable yet to report the final overthrow of General Korniloff, the Associated Press in conversation with the Associated Press this evening summed up the situation optimistically. The new commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, Major General Bonch-Bruyovitch, who formerly was attached to the staff of General Brusiloff, one-time commander-in-chief of the first division devoted to the provisional government.

An unconfirmed receipt at the capital here to the effect that part of General Korniloff's army is surrendering.

Commanders Loyal In an interview with Premier and Minister of Finance Nekrasoff informed the Associated Press that General Sprjevalski, commander on the Caucasian front, and Lieutenant General Dmitri Stichevitch, commander on the Rumanian front, had definitely declared their allegiance to the government. From General Stichevitch, the commander on the western front, no one has been received but from his attitude there is reason to believe he remains loyal.

SMOKES FOR THE BOYS IN THE TRENCHES

SOMME VETERAN TELLS HARROWING TALE OF TRENCHES

Man Who Fought in Fiercest Battles of War to Make His Home Here

Wounded when the Canadian troops made their famous charges along Vimy Ridge early this year. Sergeant John Henry Leaman, of the Ninety-Seventh Overseas Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Forces, was later taken prisoner by the German army, released in an exchange of prisoners, returned to Canada, receiving an honorable discharge, and is now in Harrisburg with his family.

Sergeant Leaman has been in three branches of United States Army service for almost seventeen years. Shortly after the outbreak of the present war he enlisted with Canadian troops and was sent to England for training. Upon the expiration of his term he re-enlisted and was sent at once to France with the Canadian Expeditionary forces.

Mistaken Report Gave Country False Thrill in Submarine 'Victory'

Washington, Sept. 12.—Jubilant over the official report as first issued yesterday that six German submarines had been sunk while making an attack on a number of merchant ships, the Navy Department today announced that the submarine 'Victory' was not destroyed.

Richard J. Beamish, writing for the Philadelphia Press from Washington, to-day says: "Intense anxiety has overspread the Navy Department as a result of to-day's news detailing the sinking of two merchant vessels on September 5, off the coast of France by German submarines. The fact that the ships were heavily convoyed when the attack was made, is responsible for the existing depression."

WILL YOU HELP CHEER MEN IN TRENCHES WITH "SMOKES"

Some of America's soldiers and sailors already are in France, training for war. As soon as they are in the trenches, they will need the cheering help of their friends at home. All supplies of them will die there, many will be carried back wounded. All of them will undergo hardships beyond imagination. The Red Cross is taking care of the wounded, kind hands furnish our men with socks and shirts. The United States government clothes and feeds them. But there has been no means for furnishing them with tobacco. Unless their friends at home help them, the soldiers must sit in the trenches with empty pipes, longing for a puff or two that would bring untold comforts. The Harriburg Telegraph has taken up the work to help provide tobacco for America's fighting men. We are going to do our bit to fill up the tobacco boxes. We are ready to receive contributions for "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund" for which we have been appointed official collector in this city. We want dollars, tens and hundreds of dollars for this work. "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund" is a patriotic organization. All supplies and labor are contributed so that every cent you give goes for tobacco, which is bought practically at cost. Every dollar pays for a bundle of tobacco that would cost $1.80 if bought from a retail dealer.

SHIP SHORTAGE GROWS SERIOUS FOR ENTENTE

Allies Must Put Forth Great Effort to Supply Necessary Vessels

SUPPLIES BADLY NEEDED

Transportation of U.S. Troops and Supplies, One of the War's Big Problems

By Associated Press London, Sept. 12.—It is learned here that the entente governments have agreed that the shipping situation is the most serious problem of all those facing the entente at the beginning of the fourth winter of the war and every effort will be made during the coming months to impress the people of England and America with the fact that the greatest effort of the whole war will be necessary to solve it. A government official informed the Associated Press to-day: "As Britain's great effort of the first year of the war was to create a huge army, as her great effort for the second and third years was to create an inexhaustible supply of munitions, so, the great effort of the fourth year must be, not only in Great Britain, also in America, to create a merchant navy to replace

Two Student Aviators Crash 1,500 Feet on Air and Fall to Deaths

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 12.—Two student aviators of the United States Army fell to their deaths over the North Island aviation field this morning when two biplanes they were driving collided about 1,500 feet in the air.

Immediately after the accident, patrols were placed about the island by the military authorities and no person was allowed to approach. All information regarding the accident, including the names of the dead aviators, was refused by the officers at the field until an investigation had been made.
