CARLISLE UNIT OF EIGHTH REGT. CALLED "BROTHERS' COMPANY"

Roster of Organization Includes Names of Large Number of Young Men From Town Families; Other Sons Enlist in Various Commands

Clyde and Clarence Barron serving their country in various branches of the service. One of the most remarkable pairs of brothers enlisted are Clyde and Clarence Barron, 19-year-old twins, members of Company G. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barron, of Carlisle. So closely do they resemble one another that officers have a hard time telling them apart and try to keep them on widely detached details in order that no mixup may occur. Another brother, Paul, is with a United States Army regiment stationed at Panama; while another, Thomas, enlisted in the navy some years ago. Of the five sons, but one, Earl, is not serving in a military or naval capacity, he having been rejected several times when trying to enlist on physical grounds.

YOUNG ORPHAN GIRL

How She Was Cured. Headaches, Dizzy Spells, Awful Pains, Could Not Work

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I am an orphan girl, and when only seventeen years old had to support myself, but I could not work. I would have to stay at home from work, and I could not afford to do it. The result is I am now in good health and never lose a day from my work, and you may publish my letter to show other girls the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do." —Miss Mari Schmetz, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

THERE'S A MAN OUT THERE who fights for you and the things that you hold true, there's Cause Out There you're backing up with all that's best in you. NOW here's a need of the Men Out There — a need you can easily fill — come, cram his pouch with the smokes he loves — kick in with a dollar bill. FOR it's not the crash of the heavy gun nor the strain on the man who serves; it's lacking a smoke when it's smoking time that frazzles a soldier's nerves. THOUGH there isn't much that we can do, back home safe out of the muck, we can sure send some smokes and we'll do it too — let them count on that from us. They are counting on you generous men and women of Harrisburg and you'll see to it that none of Uncle Sam's fighting men lacks plenty to smoke. Before you put down this paper — tear off that coupon in the corner, fill it out, and send it along with all you can spare to

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH "OUR BOYS IN FRANCE TOBACCO FUND"

The management of this fund, which has the hearty approval of the Secretaries of War and Navy, buys the tobacco at cost, so that for twenty-five cents, the soldier who is fighting your battle, receives forty-five cents worth of tobacco — every cent going for tobacco. It has been arranged to have the soldier you supply send you a return postcard telling what it means to him to have all he wants to smoke out there. Let's show the country that the citizens of Harrisburg never fail to respond to an appeal of this sort. Fill in the coupon now.

TO THE EDITOR. The Harrisburg Telegraph. Enclosed find.....to buy.....packages of tobacco, through "Our Boys in France Tobacco Fund" for American fighting men in France. I understand that each dollar buys four packages, each with a retail value of forty-five cents and that in each of my packages will be placed a postcard, addressed to me, on which my unknown friend, the soldier, will agree to send me a message of thanks.
