Spectacular Fighting High in Air Saves London From Serious Damage in Raid

By Associated Press

London, Oct. 2.—Londoners, despite the repeated German attempts to drop bombs upon the city, are standing the test well. Last night, when two squadrons of raiders succeeded in getting close to London and some of their bombs over the city, there was no panic and no outward incident.

Ten persons were killed and 38 injured. Immediately the coming of the raiders was signalled the people in the streets scurried for cover, while motor buses and cars drew up to the curb where the passengers alighted quickly. Within five minutes the streets were deserted virtually and a strange silence fell over the city.

Most of the offices and shops had closed before six o'clock permit their employees to reach their homes and there was only a fraction of the number of persons in the street as in the normal circumstances. With the gathering of a thick mist over the poorer classes, particularly the women and children, had gathered at the tube stations around the Guild Hall and St. Paul's other places of refuge. The police and special constables aligned them in files and when the warning was given they were shepherded into places of refuge without confusion or crowding. The theaters which are open had small audiences and the majority of the restaurants were almost deserted.

Matter of Course The air battles over London have become so much a matter of course that whenever there is a lull for a few minutes in the firing the buses started running again and the people flocked into the streets as usual. While a terrific barrage was kept up by the defense guns with the bursting shrapnel furnishing one of the greatest pyrotechnical displays London ever saw, a thrilling race in the air took place between enemy aircraft and British aviators in the northern district, according to spe-

1,700 RECRUITS EACH MONTH IS PRESENT PLAN

Volunteer Workers Hope to Clear City and County on Next Call

The special drive for 1,700 recruits is progressing in fine shape at the Army recruiting headquarters in this city. Yesterday's enlistments in the district exceeded fifty, of which several are credited to Harrisburg.

While the Harrisburg district is figuring on a campaign through which 5,000 men will be recruited for the Regular Army, the question arises: Who is going to pay the upkeep of these boys? And the answer so far as thousands of people in the district is concerned has been: "I'll hold up my end. I'll talk with my pocketbook—and buy a bond."

It was the consensus of opinion among members of the Dauphin county executive committee this morning that there are nearly 10,000 people in Dauphin county who will do more than talk with their mouths. Realization of the fact that this is a real war—and that a real war can't be won on loan, has brought in a widespread determination to buy the new Liberty Loan 4s.

At yesterday's meeting of the loan board the city was divided into seven districts, in each of which six teams will operate. Each team will have (Continued on Page 11)

Mrs. Singer said at the time she went to the Myers home it was the understanding she should not pay board. She asks payment at the rate of $2 a week for her services at the home, and also for a number of articles she claims she brought to the Myers home after her husband died. The case is expected to go to the jury late to-day.

Paxtang Borough Fathers Move For Better Roads

Rutherford said that he desired to know what was customary and stated that he would consult with the borough solicitor. The announcement that the state had made the offer to get rid of the deplorable condition of the highway caused many expressions of hope that the borough fathers would get into action promptly.

TOBACCO FUND SURGES CLOSE TO $300 MARK

One Check Comes in For $50; Another Is For $10.50 From Astrich's; One From Cuba

With checks of $50 from W. T. Hildrup, Jr., another of $10.50 from employees of Astrich's and a third from far-off Cuba, in addition to many smaller contributions, "Our Soldiers in France Tobacco Fund" took a surge toward the $300 mark.

The check of Mr. Hildrup, so far, is the highest single contribution to the fund. With it alone enough tobacco can be bought at the reduced rates to keep 200 brave boys in the trenches supplied with smokes for a week.

Band Together The spirit which prompted the contributers from employees of Astrich's is very gratifying to those who are in charge of the Telegraph's fund. Without being asked the employees of this store, and the majority are women and girls, banded together and in less time than it takes to tell raised $10.50. The showing is considerably remarkable.

From far-off Cuba, G. W. Mathes, who is located at Oriente, and a regular reader of the Telegraph, sent his check for $2.00. It has been on the road for many days.

The movement to supply the boys "over there" with the brands of tobacco they are accustomed to meeting with a wide response. Ministers, nonusers of tobacco, grandmothers, children, heavy users of tobacco, men who chew but don't smoke, in fact all kinds of people are chipping with amounts of from a quarter to many dollars.

Liberty Loan Bonds Needed to Care For U. S. Soldiers

By Associated Press Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 2.—Secretary Meadon, in address to-day to Liberty Loan workers, said: "We must keep our soldiers and sailors armed and equipped with the best that money can buy and American skill devise. We must constantly provide them with necessary clothing and food; we must pay their wages; support their dependent families while they are risking and giving their very lives for us; we must supply them with a reasonable amount of life insurance. We must destroy their insurability and conscript almost the whole of their earning power when we draft them and send them to the front. We can do no less than restitute their destroyed insurability and their diminished earning power."

Maloney Alleges Deutsch Told Him "Little Man Would Pay"

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—The hearing of Mayor Thomas B. Smith and others accused of being implicated in the Fifth ward political murder was held to-day before President Judge Charles L. Brown of the municipal court, sitting as a committing magistrate. Nine men were arraigned in the presence of a crowd that packed the municipal court room on the sixth floor of City Hall. Attorney charged with conspiracy to commit murder and some have additional charges laid against them.

The defendants are: Mayor Smith, William E. Finley, chief lieutenant of the Vore brothers, Select Councilman, executive director of the Republican City Committee, and mercantile appraiser; David Bennett, police lieutenant of the Second district, which embraces the Fifth ward; Isaac Deutsch, candidate for Select Council in the Fifth ward, the fight over whose nomination resulting in the killing of Policeman George A. Eppley, by an alleged New York gunman, John Wirschafter and Michael Murphy, district detectives. Lewis Feldman and Emanuel Brum, special policemen; C. H. Hayden, a negro politician, who was arrested in addition to the foregoing, four alleged gangsters are under arrest in New York and three in Philadelphia. One of those under arrest here, Jacob Moschia, is charged with the actual killing of the policeman.

Samuel G. Maloney, an old Republican leader in the Fifth ward, and now local agent of the Vore Parrel detective agency, was called. Maloney was arrested yesterday on a charge of conspiracy of murder and was paroled in the custody of Mr. Gordon.

Deutsch Incriminated Maloney said Deutsch came to his office about ten days before election and said he wanted eight "husky men" for work in the Fifth ward on primary day. Deutsch, Maloney said, "told him a gang of men were coming down from the Tenth ward to "rough things" and he wanted to be prepared.

Maloney said he asked who was to pay the expenses of Deutsch, who replied "the little fellow." Maloney said Deutsch meant Senator Vore. Maloney said he turned Deutsch over to "Mike" Sullivan, his office and Deutsch and Sullivan arranged to bring the men from New York. It was also arranged that the men should wear a white flannel shirt and not be allowed to carry any arms. Maloney said he gave instructions that no one must be hurt in the Fifth ward because his business was more important than politics.

At Vore's Office Continuing, Maloney said he went to Senator Vore's office to see about the expenses and met Congressman William S. Vore and William E. Finley, the Vore political lieutenant. Maloney said he asked about the money and was told by Vore that everything would be all right. When he was leaving Finley told Maloney not to worry about the money as everything would be all right.

On the street, Maloney said he met Senator Vore, who told him to see Captain Tate, of the City Police Bureau, and arrange to have detectives sent into the Fifth ward. Maloney said he saw Tate and arrangements were made for the men to be brought down to the city after the primary and asked him for money. Maloney said he needed $1,000 to pay the men. Finley said, according to Maloney, he did not have it but would see what he could do. Maloney said he again saw Finley the next day and Finley again did not have the money but he had a day following this Maloney said, when he reached his office, a special delivery letter was there. In it were two pieces of blank money and between them was a $1,000 note.
