trials in their quotas. None of the local boards have received any notice of the ousting of the aliens, and will not take any action on this matter until an official notice arrives.

Five Try For Exemption The district appeal board concluded its session yesterday and will not meet again until next week. Practically all the claims for exemption from York county No. 1 district, were acted on yesterday and the majority were turned down. To-day the names of the men whose claims were refused, were certified to their local boards as were the names of the men from Mifflin, Northumberland, Juniata and Lebanon. One peculiar claim from York county was presented to-day to the district board to be acted on at the next session. The young man claimed exemption on industrial grounds, but an investigation disclosed some startling facts.

This young man when his claim for examination by his local board, stated that he was a member of a religious sect opposed to war, and being an army aviator he could not conscientiously fight. He later stated that he thought that he was physically unfit for service. Both these claims were denied and the young man apparently slated for the Army. However, on September 15, he surprised his community by getting married and the day after appearing before the local board by appearing and filing a claim for exemption on the grounds of a dependent wife. The local board, which had been turned down, and on more the young man was scheduled to leave for Camp Meade. Again, however, he fooled the board. He suddenly discovered that working on a farm had its good features as well as a city job, so he immediately filed a claim on agricultural grounds. Judging from the manner in which the district board has been acting on the agricultural claims this young man from York county will journey with the next contingent to Camp Meade.

The Steelton board to-day resumed examination and 100 men were summoned to appear. The board stated that only twelve men will be sent away Saturday morning instead of twenty-four as was first announced. The board was informed by Colonel Frank G. Sweney that the regulations at Camp Meade could only house the five per cent. called. The twelve men will report at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in which the instruction. They will leave Steelton at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and after attending to their duties here in their hour they will depart on the special train at 11.50. C. C. Cumber, chairman of the examination board, and Walter Keister, also of the board, will journey to Camp Meade with the boys.

The Paxtang board has received from the district board the total of 190 names of the men that have been certified for service. Seventeen of these men had their claims for exemption denied by the upper board, leaving 173 to make up their quotas of 199 required from this district. However, the upper board has a list of many more claims to be acted on in this district that are yet to be acted on. One thousand, one hundred and sixty-seven men were examined by this board, and when the final reports are received from the district board it is expected that the quota will be filled and no more men called for examination. This board has called ten men to report to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock to receive their instruction and prepare to leave for Camp Meade on Saturday morning.

An Austrian appeared at the headquarters this morning and asked to be allowed to file a claim for exemption. He was late in making his plea but in all probability will be allowed. He was undecided as to what grounds he would make a claim. He said that he was strongly opposed to militarism and the three times he had been rejected in Austria as unfit for service in the army. He was passed fit by the local physicians. He continued to state that he had four brothers already fighting for Austria. If his claims for exemption are denied he will make an appeal to the district board.

different bodies, Lutherans in America will be known as the United Lutheran Church in America. The doctrinal basis of the proposed body is found in seven sections of Article 2. The doctrine of the church is set forth as follows:

Section 1. The United Lutheran Church in America receives and holds the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the only infallible rule and standard of faith and practice, according to which all doctrines and teachers are to be judged.

Section 2. The United Lutheran Church in America accepts the three ecumenical creeds; namely, the Apostles, the Nicene, and the Athanasian, as important testimonies drawn from the Holy Scriptures, and rejects all errors which they condemn.

Section 3. The United Lutheran Church in America receives and holds the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a correct exhibition of the faith and doctrine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, founded upon the Word of God; and acknowledges all churches that sincerely hold and faithfully confess the doctrines of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession to be entitled to the name of Evangelical Lutheran.

Section 4. The United Lutheran Church in America recognizes the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalkald Articles, the Large and Small Catechisms of Luther, and the Formula of Concord, as in the harmony of one of the same pure Scriptural faith.

Section 5. In accordance with the foregoing Doctrinal Basis, The United Lutheran Church in America sets forth and declares the following principles as fundamental to its organization.

Section 1. All power in the Church belongs primarily and exclusively to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the Head of the Church. This power is not delegated to any man or body of men.

Section 2. All just power exercised by the Church has been committed to her for the furtherance of the Gospel through the Word and sacraments, and is conditioned by this end and pertains to her as the servant of Jesus Christ. The Church, therefore, has no power to bind the conscience except as she teaches what her Lord teaches and faithfully commands what He has charged her to command.

Section 3. Congregations are the primary bodies through which power is committed by Christ to the Church and is normally exercised.

Section 4. In addition to the pastors of churches, who are ex officio representatives of their congregations, the people have the right to choose representatives from their own number to act for them under such constitutional limitations as the congregations may approve.

Section 5. The representatives of congregations convened in Synod and acting in accordance with their constitution are, for the ends defined in it, representatively the congregations themselves, and have the right to call and set apart ministers for the common work of all the congregations; whose all representatives they thereby become, and as such also members of the Synod.

Section 6. Congregations representatively constituting the various Synods may elect delegates through those Synods to represent them in a general body, all decisions of which, when made in accordance with the constitution, bind so far as the terms of mutual agreement make them binding, those congregations and Synods which consent to be represented in the general body.

Section 7. In the formation and administration of a general body, the Synods may know and deal with each other only as Synods. In all such cases, the official record is to be accepted as evidence of the doctrinal position of each Synod and of the principles for which alone the other Synods are responsible by connection with it.

Five ministers were ordained and three were granted license to preach at the services last evening. The Synod may elect delegates through those Synods to represent them in a general body, all decisions of which, when made in accordance with the constitution, bind so far as the terms of mutual agreement make them binding, those congregations and Synods which consent to be represented in the general body.

Section 8. The United Lutheran Church in America recognizes the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalkald Articles, the Large and Small Catechisms of Luther, and the Formula of Concord, as in the harmony of one of the same pure Scriptural faith.

Section 9. In accordance with the foregoing Doctrinal Basis, The United Lutheran Church in America sets forth and declares the following principles as fundamental to its organization.

Section 1. All power in the Church belongs primarily and exclusively to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, the Head of the Church. This power is not delegated to any man or body of men.

WOMEN CAN WORK IN CARS AT NIGHT

Opinion Given by Deputy Attorney General in Refard to Their Employment

Deputy Attorney General Collins to-day informed Lew R. Palmer, chief of the bureau of factory inspection of the Department of Labor and Industry, that employment of females over twenty-one years of age as car cleaners between 10 p. m. and 6 a. m. is not unlawful. The only provision in the law relative to hours is for women engaged in manufacturing establishments and car cleaning, which is not being taken over largely by women because of men being called to war, is not in that class. Mr. Collins says that care must be taken to see that hours of work per week, sanitary safeguards, intervals of rest and other provisions are observed.

Mr. Collins also informed Mr. Palmer that the State of Pennsylvania had authority to enforce the child labor law on ferryboats plying on the Delaware between Philadelphia and Camden. He holds that "until the Federal government assumes exclusive control in the matter of the employment of children engaged in working for interstate carriers, a state is not without authority to exercise its police power to regulate such employment upon a boat engaged in interstate commerce while plying on waters within the jurisdiction limits of the state where such control is not one of the regularity of commerce."

LETTER FROM AN AMERICAN SURGEON New Cumberland, Pa., Oct. 4.—The Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Ayres received an interesting letter from their son, Dr. Wilmot Ayres, a first lieutenant, serving in a war hospital at Northampton, England, where there are 1200 patients. Dr. Ayres is one of two American surgeons in the hospital. There are also two Canadian surgeons.

five years and I have gone into them with care. Col. Beary's rating is of the highest and from what I have learned he is one eminently fitted for the office and to command men," said the Governor. "I have been in frequent consultation with Col. Beary on militia and departmental matters since General Stewart's death and have been impressed with his grasp of military affairs."

Col. Beary, who served in the Spanish War, is a native of Pennsylvania and entered the Fourth Regiment as a private in 1888 and rose to the rank of major. He became deputy adjutant general in 1912. When the Pennsylvania troops were ordered to the border last year, Col. Beary remained at his post instead of accompanying his regiment at the urgent request of General Stewart and also remained here when the troops were called to federal service. He was offered command in the new National Army, but in response to a direct of General Stewart declined them.

An important work carried on by Col. Beary during his career was the development of rifle practice to which he has given much attention and to the study of military problems. To his personal interest and energy was due the taking up of many matters which placed the Guard in the situation which it is to-day.

During the Porto Rico campaign in which Col. Beary was then in the Fourth he was in charge of substitute of the troops in South Porto Rico, gaining invaluable experience.
