EMBLEM OF NAVY IN DECORATIONS

Miss Koons, Who Will Marry a Sailor, Is Honor Guest, Receiving Lovely Gifts

One of the most original and carefully planned entertainments for a bride-elect was that arranged by Mrs. George W. Bozar, of Twentieth and Market streets, in honor of Miss Nora M. Koons, whose engagement to Ray W. Schroepe, a commissioned officer in the United States Navy was recently announced.

Flags of the Allies, the national colors and service flags all combined to decorate the house with a grandeur in a corner of the reception room. As the guests entered two United States scouts, George and Sidney Bozar, stood at attention, one at the tent, the other just inside the doorway. Each guest was asked to write her name on a card decorated with the national emblem, casting the card into the tent as she passed by. These were afterwards given to Miss Koons as a remembrance of the day.

Everyone was told they must sign for a Liberty Bond at the tent, but Miss Koons, who is a teacher of the Continuation school, was invited to step inside and give a demonstration of Red Cross bandage work. Much to her surprise, she found, not the expected gauze and silks, but a wonderful collection of gifts, including nickel and aluminum ware, silver, china and cut glass, all ready for her new home.

After unwrapping the parcels an elaborate dinner was served, the fees being tent share with an American flag floating from the top. Dancing followed the feasting. In attendance were: Mrs. F. Edgar Hess, Mrs. Harry Hamme, Mrs. Frederick Gillis, Mrs. Samuel Hughes, Mrs. David Gotwals, Mrs. Guy Stickle, Mrs. A. W. Helman, Mrs. Clarence Irving, all of Camp Hill; Mrs. Clarence Sheuk, Mrs. Chester Thompson, Mrs. Charles Tittle, Mrs. Pierce Retter, Mrs. Ralph Boswell, Mrs. J. E. Peater, Mrs. Ebor, Miss Della Kutz, and Miss Nora Koons, of Harrisburg.

Mrs. William Meinel, of Minneapolis, Minn., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Ralph Irving Deihl, at Paxton. Mrs. Meinel is remembered here as Miss Mary Groff daughter of the late Rev. John A. Groff.

Westminster Men's League Has Sauerkrut Supper

The Men's League of the Westminster Presbyterian Church held its semiannual banquet last night in the lecture room of the church. The men were out in force and had a great time.

The social committee, O. R. Girvin chairman, provided a menu consisting of sauerkraut and pork tenderloin, together with all the good things which accompany such a dish. The wives of some of the members decorated the tables and served the banquet, which began shortly after 7 o'clock. The bandy school orchestra, under the leadership of George Hutman, furnished the music for the evening, and pleased every one with its playing.

Captain George F. Lunk, of State Police, was the main speaker of the evening. He spoke of the present war and our duty with reference to it. It was a man's message to Christian men, and certainly gripped the hearts of all present. The Pennsylvania Railroad Gleec Club sang several selections, which were much appreciated. President Claude W. Kunkle presided and brought out many helpful suggestions from the men as to how they could be made more effective.

Every one present had a fine time, and left determined to make his life count for more in the future for country and church.

Kerensky Wins Victory For Stable Government

By Associated Press Petrograd, Oct. 9.—The provisional government apparently has won a complete victory over the preliminary parliament, an outgrowth of the Democratic congress.

M. Tseretelli, one of the leaders of the parliament, to-day informed Premier Kerensky that the parliament had withdrawn all its demands that the government be responsible to it and had acceded to the government's plan that the parliament act merely in an advisory legislative capacity.

The parliament has been christened officially as "the temporary constituent" and will sit until the permanent assembly convenes. It has been agreed that "the council shall have a right to put questions, but not demands; to initiate legislation on state questions and to deliberate on measures which the government lays before it."

LANCASTER GETS NEXT MEETING

Rotarians at Closing Session Here Decide to Help in Campaign For Members

Rotarians of the Third district will co-operate in the great national campaign for membership. This action was taken at the final conference in the Y. M. C. A. rooms last yesterday afternoon.

Because of the great number of requests for the founding of a Rotary Club in towns which did not come up to the population requirements, the national organization decided that towns of 15,000 could hereafter organize a Rotary Club in contrast with the last year's ruling that no town under 25,000 population could have a club.

To Meet at Lancaster The business transacted was of a club nature. Decision was made that the next convention will be held at Lancaster, either March 7 and 8, or 15 and 16. Lancaster Club has been given the choice so there will be no conflict with other convention dates. The following presidents and secretaries registered during the day as members of the conference: Allentown, Andrew Jacks, Ernest

McReady; Bethlehem, F. Royce Bush; Chester, E. D. Glauser; Greensburg, W. S. Lane, William Zolback; Hanover, C. A. Trantum, Mark Moller; Harrisburg, Captain George F. Lumb, William M.
