Give The Stomach A Chance To Work

We can't expect the stomach to act normally if the natural avenues of elimination are blocked so it cannot dispose of its refuse. When the bowels are constipated the stomach is called upon for work beyond its capacity and the result is bloating, belching, headache, and discomfort generally, and, unless the condition is promptly relieved, serious illness.

CHICKENS' FEED CLOSE WATCHING

Contagious Diseases Among Fowl Should Be Treated Immediately

As chickenpox is one of the most highly contagious diseases of poultry and as it stands second only to roup in the financial damage it can do, the Department of Agriculture is sending out warning that an epidemic of this disease is ravaging a noted poultry district of an adjoining state and that all poultry keepers be careful about bringing in stock from outside sources that may be infected. Also keep close watch on their home birds so that they can promptly isolate sporadic cases.

A peculiar phase of this disease is that a bird once having had it, even in its mildest form, is ever afterward immune. The last epidemic of this disease occurred three years ago and as presumably all birds of that period have gone the way of all chickens, there are immunes left and an epidemic now introduced would be a severe one.

FARMERS BUYING CATTLE

Valdosta, Ga.—The first solid trainload of cattle ever imported by one county of Georgia has been purchased by a committee of Lowndes county farmers in Ft. Worth, Tex. The shipment is only one of a large number of shipments of Texas cattle to southern farms, but has equipped all others in its size.

ONTARIO PRODUCTS EXHIBITED

Toronto, Ont.—The Colonization and Immigration Department of the Ontario government is exhibiting grains, grasses, seeds, fruits and vegetables grown in the districts of Kenora, Thunder Bay, Algonia, Rainy River and Timiskaming, the quality testifying to the possibilities of the north country.

DRAINAGE AIDS IN PRODUCTION

Good Crops From Land Formerly Valueless After Removing Moisture

The effect of drainage upon land that holds too much moisture is of such a varying success that it is hard to determine a percentage to go by. Drainage engineer, Charles G. McLain, of the State Department of Agriculture, who has laid out hundreds of drainage and water supply systems on Pennsylvania farms, says: "On some lands under my knowledge that have been drained the increase in production has been wonderful. I know of cases where the land in its undrained condition produced practically nothing, and after being drained produced good crops, and I do not know of any that has not made increase enough to make it a paying investment."

"I can call to mind a piece that would have been of no use this season if it had not been for the drains that were put in. The owner of this piece told me that he could hardly realize that the amount of water that came out of the drains during the spring was all coming from the land that was drained.

all with this piece of land as it forms a bowl lying between the hills, and during a wet season could never be used for anything, it being too soft to use for pasture. This piece this year had a fine stand of buckwheat on part of it and also a very fine looking lot of potatoes and cabbage. This fall it will be put into fall grain and seeded to grass next spring."

ROAD FUND PROPOSED

New Orleans, La.—The city commissioners of New Iberia, through Mayor H. S. Sealy, have called an election to be held October 16 for the purpose of voting a special tax for good roads, says a dispatch to the Times-Picayune. The amount involved will be $75,000.

A RACE OF CRIPPLES

The military medical authorities have examined our citizens by the thousands. The results of this examination in many instances have been as follows: Out of every five examined, one is considered sound. The other four are cripples. Some part of their internal organs is affected. The heart, stomach, lungs, kidneys or some other vital organ or function is crippled.
