

TECH IS DECISIVE WINNER IN GAME WITH ST. LOUIS

WIN TROPHY IN RIFLE CONTEST

Harrisburg Club Shooters Run Up Big Scores in Three Matches

Winning over the Keystone Rifle Club, Saturday, the Harrisburg Rifle Club took permanent possession of the handsome trophy awarded to the Cohens Sporting Goods store. The winner had a margin of 19 points and won three straight victories. H. O. Kreiner, of the Harrisburg club, with the individual honors, having a total score of 409 out of a possible 450.

Two matches resulted in rather one-sided victories for the Harrisburg Rifle Club. On Saturday, however, the Keystone boys were determined to have revenge and by steady consistent shooting from start to finish prevented any runaway on the part of the Harrisburg shooters. Brisk cross winds whipping across the range from various angles made the shooting more difficult and prevented any unusually high scores.

These competitive matches have aroused new enthusiasm among members of the two local clubs, and increased interest in the rifle shooting game. The clubs have been badly handicapped during the present season by reason of the Ordnance Department's refusal to fill requisitions for arms and ammunition, owing to the Army's immediate need. However, National Rifle Association clubs are receiving assurance that as soon as practicable, this embargo will be lifted.

The Harrisburg Rifle Club is about to open an indoor range at the local armory for small bore shooting during the winter months, and expect to compete with the two local clubs, and increased interest in the rifle shooting game. STEELTON GIVEN JOLT BY TECH HIGH'S ELEVEN; DAYHOFF USES HIS FIST

Twenty-seven hundred people saw Tech win a decisive 28 to 7 victory over Steelton on the Island Saturday afternoon. It came after the fiercest kind of playing on both sides. The kickoff was made at 3:15 and after a 33 yard kickoff had set in and the fourth quarter just begun, officials called the contest.

There was a contest filled with penalties, every moment being chucked off by some spectacular playing. Penalties were numerous on both sides. The only feature to mar the contest was the assault on Coach Ryan by Captain Dayhoff. In the second quarter Captain Lloyd was forced out of bounds on the east side of the field and thrown heavily against the wire fence. Stunned by the blow and being off the field of play, Coach Ryan was sitting nearby, rushed to his assistance.

Spectators Get Busy

Dayhoff, who was in hot pursuit of the Tech captain came upon the scene, and struck the Tech coach according to on-lookers, a nasty blow on the upper lip. The incident almost caused a riot and it was some time before play was resumed. Between halves Dayhoff apologized to the Tech coach, and confessed to losing his head. While the Steelton captain was the big star for the visitors, his actions lost him friends among the spectators.

The first half was a long drawn-out affair. To play the thirty minutes of actual scrimmage required an hour and three-quarters. The first half did not end until a quarter of five. The contest was started, but was stopped by a foul on the part of the Tech coach. At the last moment the contest canceled, but as the time had been set for the big contest to start at 7 o'clock a change was made in the arrangements.

Tech Had "Pop"

Tech's aggression showed more vim, dash and "pop" than any team has put on the field for many a day. They were out to win, and they showed plenty of vim, dash and "pop" in their credit for the dashing game played by his proteges. It is predicted that had the last quarter been played Tech would have added a good many more points as Steelton was losing men in every play, and her strength was fast ebbing. Coach Cokkilla's team deserves lots of credit for their game game up by them. They were game losers. The score in detail:

First Quarter
Steelton won the toss and elected to defend the kick. They defended the south goal. Ebner kicked off at 3:15 to Steelton and Krout brought back the ball 10 yards. On the first play, Steelton was penalized 10 yards for using hands on the play. Failing to gain, Dayhoff kicked, but the punt was blocked. Tech covering the piskin.
Lloyd clipped off 13 yards for a first down. Tech was penalized 10 yards for holding. On a fake kick formation, Beck made up 10 yards. Forced to kick, Ebner booted the ball. Coleman who was down in his tracks.
After numerous plays, Captain Dayhoff again took the piskin and reeled off 20 yards. But keen-eyed officials detected off-side play and the ball was brought back to its place with a five-yard penalty. Dayhoff kicked to Lloyd who zig-zagged his way for 70 yards through the entire team for the first time down. On the play, Steelton was off-side, but Tech refused the penalty and Wilds kicked a goal making the score 7 to 0.

Tech's Second Score

After more hard scrimmages, Wildsback made a first down on a 10-yard run, bringing the ball within close distance to the goal. In a series of line plunges, Ebner and Wildsback brought the ball to a striking distance of the goal line, Tech covering the piskin.

TECH'S SPIRES OF OXFORD
I saw the spires of Oxford
As I was passing by;
The gray spires of Oxford,
Against a pearl-gray sky;
My heart went to the Oxford men
Who went abroad to die.

The years go fast in Oxford,
The golden years and gay;
The hoary colleges look down
On careless boys at play;
But when the bugles sound war
They put their games away.

They left the peaceful river,
The cricket-field, the quad,
The shaven lawns of Oxford
To seek a bloody sod;
They gave their merry youth away
For country and for God.

God rest you, happy gentlemen,
Who laid your good lives down,
Who took the khaki for the gun
Instead of cap and gown;
God bring you to a fairer place
Than even Oxford town.

"If football teams," asks a reader, "are not playing for championships, then what are they playing for?" Well, there is a matter of physical recreation and development, keen competition, the fun of the thing and one or two additional details that hardly come under a championship headline.

RIVAL VALUES

Sir: It is admitted everywhere that Ty Cobb is the greatest offensive player in baseball. It is also as widely admitted that Tris Speaker is the greatest defensive outfielder. Cobb is a better batsman than Speaker and Speaker a better fielding outfielder than Cobb. But is not Speaker nearer to Cobb in the offensive than Cobb is to Speaker in the defensive? Cobb has never led Speaker as an outfielder. But only last year Speaker led Cobb in attack.

There is additional detail to be entered—offensive value is of greater worth than defensive value. There are many star outfielders who are offensively brilliant. But only a few who can bat above .300 and bring in the runs. In the way of all-round value, as between Cobb and Speaker, the debate is too intricate to be settled in one or two phrases. Maybe later on.

TEAMS STRONG IN BIG GAMES

Eastern Elevens Surprise in Many Saturday Contests; Some Results

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—Development of unexpected strength on the part of several elevens thought to be outclassed by more prominent rivals, was the feature of the week-end football ball play on eastern gridirons. While there was no form upssets and in most cases victories were won in accordance with forecasts, the play of the vanquished teams surprised both loyal supporters and opposing combinations.

Democrats Pay Honor to Fusion Candidates

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—Democratic leaders and workers have pledged whole-hearted support to the fusion nominees for county offices and councils at a rousing rally in the headquarters of the Democratic City Committee, Tenth and Walnut streets. The auditorium on the third floor of the headquarters was crowded with Democratic workers who applauded the hot shot of fire at the "Frog Hollow Gang" headed by George Smith, town meeting candidate for Register of Wills, and William R. Nicholson, candidate for treasurer. Thomas F. Armstrong, the candidate for receiver of taxes, was to have been one of the speakers, but was prevented from being present by a business engagement in Chicago.

Catholic Lectures to Begin Tomorrow Evening

The first of the 1917-1918 course of free lectures given under the auspices of the Catholic Laymen's Association will be given at the Cathedral Hall to-morrow evening by the Very Rev. Patrick J. Healy, of the Catholic University of America, Washington. The Rev. Mr. Healy will talk on "Factors in the Development of Modern Civilization." The theme of his discourse to-morrow will be the worst affair of the "Industrial Revolution," and the lecturer will discuss the trade and commercial problems that will confront the nations of the world after the war.

Tom Longboat Alive; After The Other Fellow

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Tom Longboat, the famous Indian Marathon runner who has been twice unofficially reported killed in action in France, is still alive. Captain Tom Flanagan, former manager of the Indian, who went overseas with the same battalion and has returned to Canada, had a letter from him to-day in which he threatens to take action against an Indian in the United States who has been representing himself as Longboat.

"No doubt you will be surprised to hear from the real, original, mysterious Longboat," said the letter, in quaint phraseology. "Now I want you to do me a favor, if you please. Forward this letter to the Canadian Government."

Price of Soft Coal Advanced by Wilson

WESTERN DRIVE BEGINS TODAY

Hard Fight on For Gridiron Honors; Chicago Is in Lead

Chicago, Oct. 29.—With the close of the "Big Ten" football season, the time to prove it. School officials should act promptly in efforts for clean sport.

There are stories galore about the Dayhoff incident in Saturday's game. Coach Ryan is a hard loser and some things he was guilty of on Saturday were direct violations of rules. However, in the Dayhoff mixup he was only doing what any other man would have done to an injured player, go to his assistance. He did not strike first. Dayhoff's attack when Ryan's back was turned was cowardly to say the least.

Chicago Makes Good

Chicago established itself in the conference as the strongest team developed at the Nebraska institution in years, but after the first period the Nebraska defense crumpled and the Wolverines, using short forward passes, oftackled drives and lone plunges, ploughed through the line for consistent gains.

The victory stamps Michigan as one of the most powerful teams in the west, although it is not considered in "Big Ten" affairs this season. It has scored in the first game—Northwestern—on its schedule.

WELLY'S CORNER

Unless stronger police protection is assured at future football games school teams, all future contests should be called off. Occurrences like those of Saturday are a disgrace to local scholastic sports. If the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association has authority, now is the time to prove it. School officials should act promptly in efforts for clean sport.

PREVIOUSLY UNCULTIVATED GARDEN BRINGS RESULTS

That the war gardens of the city were paying propositions is plainly shown in the report sent to S. B. Watts, superintendent of war gardens, by W. S. Dyster, who farmed plot No. 97 at Bellevue Park.
