

Spicer Class Meeting With President DeGray

J. Henry Spicer, teacher of the Bible class bearing his name in the Market Square Presbyterian Sunday school, announced yesterday that the annual meeting held Friday evening at the home of president, John DeGray, 2325 North Third street, was not well attended owing to the extreme cold. Business matters were discussed and a suggestion made that the same officers be re-elected. A social will be held some time in January. At the meeting a pleasant social time was enjoyed and refreshments served to J. Henry Spicer, A. Floyd Whalen, Burton E. Cummings, Simon E. Miller, William McDowell, Benjamin W. Wright, Edward W. Critchley, the Rev. E. P. Robinson, John Fulton, John DeGray and one visitor, V. G. Karsakledgs, a student at Mercersburg College.

EVENING WEDDING IN OLD ZION CHURCH

MISS MARGARET RAMSEY BOAS

THE WITMER-BOAS BRIDAL TONIGHT

Young People Will Marry in Presence of Large Assemblage of Friends

Among the hundreds of weddings solemnized in old Zion Lutheran Church, South Fourth street, here was prettier than that to be held this evening at 6.30 o'clock when Miss Margaret Ramsey Boas becomes the bride of Donald Hervey Witmer, of Pittsburgh. Palms, ferns and garlands of southern smilax form a background at the altar for large cases of Bermuda lilies and ivory candelabra will hold white candles throwing out a soft light over the bridal party.

In the Bridal Party The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear an exquisite costume of white satin with panther draperies of tulle and iridescent sequins, and a Victorian basque of tulle and sequins with flowing tulle sleeves. The court train falls from the shoulders and the soft tulle will be crowned with orange blossoms. Her bouquet will be a shower of white lilies and rose buds tied with white ribbons. The maid of honor, Miss Evelyn Cumbler, of Highspire, has chosen a dainty frock of pink grosgrain silk, embroidered in loose, flowing folds of Georgette crepe, and a bodice of silver lace and Georgette. She will carry an arm bunch of orchid sweet peas in shades of pink and white heart roses. The best man will be Harold Black, of Allentown, and the ushers include Richard Kinnard, of Wynnewood; Harry Leonard and Park Weidner, of this city, and Lieutenant Paul Bletz, of Camp Hancock, Ga. Following the ceremony an informal reception for the immediate families and out-of-town guests will be held at the Boas residence, 124 Walnut street. The decorations will be of pink in the drawing rooms with tall vases of snapdragon presiding in the flowers and all white in the dining room with bride roses gracing the tables.

On Western Trip Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Witmer will start for a western trip and will be "at home" after January 15, at 4013 Vermont street, Pittsburgh, where beautifully furnished apartments are awaiting their arrival. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Speel Boas, of this city, received her education at the Central High school and Bristol school, of Washington, D. C. She held many school offices and was prominent in the D. V. Sorority and musical clubs. Many prenuptial events were given in her honor and an elaborate display of wedding gifts testifies to her popularity and that of Mr. Witmer. The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Witmer, 219 McClay street, after graduating from the Central High school, was graduated from the Department of Horticulture of State College. He is now assistant traffic manager for the Bell Telephone Company at Pittsburgh. Among the out-of-town people here for the wedding are: Pay Director and Mrs. John N. Speel and Alexander R. Speel, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Anne Cassell, of Radford, Va.; Miss Lucille McWayne, of Lynchburg, Va.; Miss Laura Hetzel, of Lewisburg; Miss Elvira Barrett, Markleton; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Kinnard and Richard Kinnard, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Walter A. Jones, of Washington, D. C.

MARRY IN BETHLEHEM Word was received Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob McCormick, 334 Harris street, of the marriage of their son, Ralph McCormick, to Miss Anna Call, South Bethlehem, Pa. They will reside in Bethlehem where Mr. McCormick is connected with the Bethlehem Steel Company. Mr. McCormick is a graduate of Technical High School and is well known in this city.
