

FARMERS GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

Large Number of Sales Scheduled For Spring in Upper York County

Dillsburg, Pa., Jan. 14.—A number of farmers will retire from their farms during the spring and others will sell some of their stock. Consequently, there will be a number of sales in this section of the county during the coming months. J. S. Byers will sell his farm, stock and utensils on the McCreeary farm, Washington township, February 26; George Myers, of Warrington township, on Saturday, March 1; George Hentzel, Washington township, March 8, and will retire from farming; Jesse Haar, on the John Hamer farm, in Washington township, will sell his farming outfit on March 15, and Niles Shoemaker, in Warrington township, will have a stock sale March 11. P. E. Comfort, proprietor of the Keystone garage, will sell his farm stock and implements March 12. Frank Williams to Dillsburg and devote his time to the automobile business. W. I. Dick will have a sale of his farming implements and stock on the Adams farm in Warrington township on Saturday, March 11 and will move to Dillsburg; on Friday, March 1, Ernie Lewis will move to Frankfort township, will sell his farming outfit and will move to his recently purchased home in Washington township. On March 6, Harry King will sell his farm stock, etc., on his farm in Franklin township and will move to his new home on the farm which he recently built. His son will occupy the farm. On March 8, B. J. Kain will have a sale of his farm stock and utensils in Franklin township. On March 9, Levi Wagner will sell his farming outfit and will move to Frankfort township. Lewis Bushey, his son-in-law, will occupy the farm. March 13, Jacob D. Clapsaddle will sell his stock and utensils on the farm and will move to Warrington township. On March 14, Harry Aker will sell his entire stock and farming implements. Harry Lucas will farm in Carroll township. The Brothman farm in Carroll township. March 15, John W. Kapp will sell his farming utensils and stock on the Bell farm in Carroll township and will move to Dillsburg. On March 20, A. H. Williams will sell on the Williams home—stock and farming implements. Williams will move to Dillsburg and with his brother, James Williams, will engage in the grain, feed and coal business at the grain elevator occupied by J. B. Spera. On March 22, Luther Haar will sell at his farm in Franklin township his entire outfit of stock and implements. Mr. Haar recently sold his farm to Otto Spahr, who will occupy it. About April 1, Mr. Haar will move to Dillsburg, where he has purchased the Harry Miller house in Harrisburg street.

Annaville Camp, P.O.S. of A. Has 21 Members in Service

Annaville, Pa., Jan. 14.—Washington Camp No. 87, P. O. S. of A. of Annville now has twenty-one members in the service of the country. Members of the camp who are in the Army will have their dues paid during the time they are in active service. The following officers were elected at a recent meeting: Past president, Monroe C. Elzweiler; president, S. Harold Rohland; vice-president, Raymond Byle; M. of F., Earl Bachman; recording secretary, Samuel D. Swartz; assistant secretary, M. Robert Yake; financial secretary, M. H. Wilhelm; treasurer, Dr. Harry Zimmerman; conductor, Herman Strawn; inspector, Guy Geisler; guard, John Witmer; trustee, Rodney D. Imboden; chaplain, Dawson Yake.

Perry Co. Church Societies Choose Officers For Year

Newport, Pa., Jan. 14.—Saville Reformed Church has elected these officers: Superintendent, W. S. Fritz; assistant superintendent, Charles Garber; secretary, Miss Gladys Swartz; assistant secretary, Miss Florence Swager; treasurer, William Hench. Saville Lutheran Sunday school has selected these officers: superintendent, John Hebel; assistant superintendent, John Fuller; secretary, Miss Mary Mitchell; assistant secretary, Miss Cordell Hebel; treasurer, Ralph Charles; organist, Miss Elizabeth Charles; assistant organist, Mrs. J. W. Spicher; chorister, G. W. Crow; superintendent home department, Mrs. John Hebel; superintendent cradle roll, Miss Alice Crow; superintendent mission work, Mrs. J. W. Spicher; Mrs. W. E. Hebel; temperance, W. E. Hebel.

Red and Gray Foxes Shot in Perry County

Dauncannon, Pa., Jan. 14.—Six foxes have been taken from the mountains of this section within the past week. John Collier shot one gray fox and his brother a den. This animal is rapidly becoming domesticated. William Egan, of the "Toop" shot four foxes, one red and four gray ones. He also has a fine specimen of the gray variety which he captured alive two years ago. This animal is quite tame.

ANNVILLE BANK OFFICIALS
Annaville, Pa., Jan. 14.—Annaville National bank stockholders have elected the following directors for the ensuing year: George W. Stine, Charles V. Henry, John H. Gier, A. S. Kreider, E. A. Henry, R. E. Millard, Dr. D. M. Rank, A. R. Kreider. The directors at their meeting named the following officers: Charles V. Henry, president; John H. Gier, vice-president; George W. Stine, cashier; E. A. Henry, assistant cashier; John H. Gier, teller; Oscar E. Light and Ammon Bowman, clerks; Samuel T. Meyer, solicitor.

BOARD OF MANAGERS ELECTED
Annaville, Pa., Jan. 14.—Policyholders of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Annaville, recently elected thirteen managers for the ensuing year as follows: Jacob A. Loose, J. H. Breen, John H. Thomas, J. H. Stroup, H. L. Kipperts, George W. Stine, E. E. McCurdy, H. L. Corl, John P. Batdorf, George W. Yinst, Frank L. Hoover, D. J. Leopold. The managers will meet at a later date for the reorganization, when officers will be chosen.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY

No Horses Stolen From Protective Society Members

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 14.—The Carlisle Horse Protective Society, numbering about 500 members in Cumberland county, met for the annual session here Saturday. Officers were elected for the year. In the past twelve months no horses had been taken from members. Feature was an address by John D. Faller, of Mechanicsburg, a member of the speaker's bureau of the county safety unit, the beginning of a campaign to carry the war savings campaign into the country districts. County Commissioner Levan H. Frelim again heads the organization.

Miss Koller Entertains Club on Her Birthday

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Jan. 14.—On Saturday evening Miss Frances Koller delightfully entertained the C. O. B. Club of which she is a member at her home in East Main street, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The young women enjoyed cards and knitting for the soldiers. Refreshments were served to the following guests: Miss Lillian Fought, Miss Matilda Mumper, Miss Elizabeth Snyder, Katharine Mumma, Miss Anna Lloyd, Miss Jean Sample, Miss Janet Eckels, Miss Helen Bentz, Miss Vera Seidle, Mrs. Joseph Cocklin, Mrs. Boyd Eason, all of Mechanicsburg; Miss Margaret Stover and Mary Weigle, of Harrisburg; Miss Carrie Garver, of New Cumberland; Miss Alice Heston, of New Kingston, and Miss Frances Koller.

Wife of Mechanicsburg Councilman Dies on Visit

Mechanicsburg, Pa., Jan. 14.—Mrs. John B. Musser, wife of Councilman Musser, died yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Raymond Smith, at Wellsboro, Tioga county, where she had been visiting for the past month. She became ill soon after reaching her daughter's home and died yesterday from heart trouble. She was a member of St. Paul's Reformed Church, of Mechanicsburg. Mrs. Musser was 53 years old and was born in Hampden township, Cumberland county, and was a daughter of the late Augustus Baschore. She lived in this locality all her life. She is survived by her husband, Councilman John B. Musser, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Raymond Smith, of Wellsboro, and Mrs. Wilbur Goodyear, of Harrisburg; also four brothers and a sister. Frank T. Baschore, of Silver Spring township; Edgar E. Baschore, of Mechanicsburg; John G. Baschore, of Hampden township; Samuel E. Baschore and Miss Bessie Baschore, both of Mechanicsburg. The body will be brought here this evening to the home in North Walnut street, extended. No funeral arrangements have been made.

Carlisle School Boys Will Enlist in Aviation Corps

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 14.—Nearly one dozen Carlisle High school boys have expressed their intention of volunteering for the aviation section of the Signal Corps and examinations will be taken this week. The school board will give diplomas to those in the senior class and credit to those of other classes who enlist, provided they have a good school average. Several of the school's athletic stars are among those who will go.

LABOR UNION ORGANIZED

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 14.—Despite the riot of the elements on Friday night, about 600 persons, men and women, assembled at the Arcade theater to hear the several speeches and plans of organizing a labor union for Waynesboro. When the call was given for men and women to come to the stage and sign the membership card and join the union, only a few remained in their seats. George H. Frayer, acting as chairman of the meeting, who later placed the meeting in the hands of Charles C. Hayes, Baltimore, the business agent for the International Association of Mechanics.

DIES IN NAVAL HOSPITAL

Greencastle, Pa., Jan. 14.—Charles Kreitzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kreitzer, of South Hill, died on Thursday in the United States Naval Hospital in Norfolk, after a few days' illness from cerebral spinal fever.

WORKING FOR RED CROSS

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 14.—Word has been received by the local branch of the Red Cross from headquarters in Philadelphia, that their allotment per month of surgical dressings to be made will be from now on 6,000. The members of the branch started yesterday the work of making 75 dark gray flannel bed shirts. A large number of members are now working long hours daily in order to get the special rush order for the French hospitals completed in the required time.

William Middlekauff Is Deputy Tax Collector

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 14.—William Middlekauff, a prominent Democratic worker of Waynesboro, and former chief Burgess of Waynesboro, has been notified by Collector B. F. Davis, of Lancaster, of his appointment as deputy income tax collector for the Ninth Pennsylvania district. Before moving to Waynesboro, Mr. Middlekauff was a resident of Leitersburg, Md., and taught school there for a number of years. For several years past he has been at the head of one of the office forces of Frick Company.

$25,000 FOR WAR SAVINGS

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 14.—The war savings drive in this county has so far netted close to $25,000. District Attorney George E. Lloyd, head of the movement, announced today, Carlisle leads with sales of $18,000 at the Carlisle post office and the West Shore is responding well. In Mechanicsburg $4,300 of the issue has been placed.

COASTER'S LEG BROKEN

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 14.—While coasting down the mountainside near Rouzerville, on Saturday, Paul, young son of John Rodgers, collided with another sled and his right leg was fractured in two places.

MARRIES SOLDIER

Waynesboro, Pa., Jan. 14.—Miss Hattie Louise Shockey, daughter of Mrs. Reuben Shockey, of Waynesboro, and Sergeant John A. Heiss, Company B, Eighth Machine Gun Battalion, located at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C., were married at Hagerstown in the Methodist parsonage by the pastor, the Rev. F. R. Bayley.

Mifflin County Poultry Show at Lewistown Next Week

Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 14.—On Monday evening, January 21, the sixth annual exhibit of the Mifflin County Poultry Association will open in Market Hall in West Third street, and will be held every afternoon and evening during the week. The judging will be done by Theo. Wittman, the well-known poultryman of Allentown. There will be 157 varieties of birds on exhibition from the largest fowls down to the smallest breed of bantams. Turkeys, geese, ducks and pheasants will also be shown. A special feature of this year's exhibit will be an egg-laying contest. Cash prizes will be awarded in this contest. Pans competing for the prizes will consist of four hens of one variety. The contest will start Wednesday morning, January 23, and will continue until about 6 o'clock Saturday evening, January 26.

CITY DELIVERY AT MT. JOY

Marietta, Pa., Jan. 14.—On Monday, Mount Joy will have city delivery. Postmaster Willis Freed has been notified by the department at Washington. The houses are being numbered and other equipment will be made. Marietta a short time ago secured the same delivery service.

Suburban Notes

BLAIN
The farmers' institute and fruit show at Green Park on Thursday and Friday was successful. The display of fruit, corn, etc., was the best for some years.

Miss Ida McKee is visiting friends at Williamsport. Edward Foose and his bride, of Big Rock, Ill., are here visiting friends at Elliptsburg.

Mrs. Sadie E. Kistler, who is employed at the State Insane Asylum at Harrisburg, visited her former home at Blain. John L. Witt, of Iowa, arrived here on Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Witt, of Jackson township.

Mrs. Emmertta Ickes, who visited friends at Lancaster county, has returned and will make her home with Dr. E. C. Kistler the rest of the winter.

HUMMELSTOWN
Mrs. Samuel Bomgardner, of Lemoyne, is staying with her sister, Mrs. Albert Hummel, who is seriously ill with tuberculosis.

Francis Humpton has accepted a position at Lebanon with the employment bureau of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Mrs. George P. Hoffer spent a day at Harrisburg. Miss Anna Myers, of Lebanon, spent Sunday with Mrs. Albert Hummel and Mrs. Frank Stricker. The Chemical Fire Company will hold a smoker in the parlor of the enginehouse on Tuesday evening at which time the new auto truck will be on inspection.

At the recent organization of council Samuel B. Zerfoss was elected president; Cyrus H. Miller, secretary and Harry M. Horst treasurer. John T. Rensburg is borough engineer for the coming year; J. L. Stephenson, street superintendent, and Frank J. Schaffner is retained as borough solicitor.

Butterick Patterns Are Now to Be Had at This Store

Bowman's

See Large Advertisement on Opposite Page

BELL 1901-2356 UNITED

HARRISBURG, MONDAY, JANUARY 14, 1918.

FOUNDED 1871

And in Conjunction With This Sale of White We Announce the

January Sale of Men's Shirts

This is certainly the city's most exceptional sale of men's shirts, for they are many degrees removed from the quality of usual sale shirts, being regular goods, bought in the regular way, from shirt makers who are known to fame for the superiority of their product.

3 Great Groups of Shirts at 75c, $1.15 & $1.50

A fine, big collection of smart shirts — made of excellent madras, percale, cheviot and mercerized fabrics. Not an undesirable style, pattern or coloring in the entire offering.

Shirts that are cut full and true to size, gusseted as they should be—every detail of their making and finishing up to the highest standard of perfection

The size range is complete and every shirt is marked down to a most generous figure.

Manhattan Shirts Are Cut Too

Our policy not to carry shirts from one season to another—so comes this clean sweep of the entire stock of Manhattan Shirts.

—We know that you have never seen a prettier lot of patterns than these. They are the brightest conceptions of these celebrated designs of Manhattan shirts — the masterpieces of the best shirtmakers.

The Reduced Prices

$1.65 $1.85 $2.15 $3.15 $3.85 $4.85

BOWMAN'S—Main Floor.

The Bowman Series of

WHITE SALES

Great Activity All Along the Line

Thousands are indulging in the economies afforded the savings presented in Towels Embroideries Laces Linens
Bed Spreads Muslin Underwear
Sheets Pillow Cases Hosiery Corsets
Curtain Materials Curtains
Silk Undergarments

Prices and quality have joined hands forming a coalition that has resulted greatly to your advantage.

Here assembled is merchandise direct from the most reliable manufacturers in Stupendous Variety High Quality
With prices low enough to warrant your buying in advance for many months.

Showing of Advanced Styles in MILLINERY

Having grown tired of their winter hats, women are turning their attention to new models.

The showing at Bowman's gives one an excellent idea of the new styles.

Moderately Priced at $5.00, $6.50 and $7.50

Towels and Toweling in the White Sale

Individual hand towels—made of good quality bleached huck. Sale Price 7¢
Huck towels — Honeycomb weave—red borders — size 16x29. Sale Price, dozen 89¢
Turkish towels—bleached snow white—size 18x32. Sale Price 10¢
Heavy Turkish bath towels — with pink and blue borders—large size. Sale Price 43¢
Bleached twilled toweling. Sale Price, yard 6½¢
White absorbent toweling—Boott Mills product. Sale Price, yard 14¢
All linen crash—brown—19 inches wide. Sale Price, yard 19¢
All linen crash—brown—16 inches wide. Sale Price, yard 25¢

BOWMAN'S—Second Floor.

Sheets

Pequot sheets, size 91x91
Sale Price $1.49
Garden City Sheets, size 81x90. Sale Price, $1.09
Pequot Sheets, size 90x90. Sale Price $1.69
Armorside Sheets, size 76x90. Sale Price 89¢
BOWMAN'S—Second Floor.

White Silks

40-inch crepe de chine, yard $1.39
40-inch meteor, yard, $1.69
40-inch charmeuse, yard, $1.69
36-inch fancy weave skirting tussah, yard $1.50
36-inch silk-canvas suiting, yard $2.50
40-inch French chiffon velvet, yard $2.97
36-inch silk poplin, yard, 80¢
40-inch silk and wool poplin, yard $1.39
BOWMAN'S—Main Floor.

Bed Spreads in the White Sale

Hemmed crochet bedspreads—full double bed size—a splendid spread for hotels and boarding houses. Sale Price $1.75
BOWMAN'S—Second Floor.

Sheeting

Bleached sheeting — 81 inches wide—well known brand—cut from the piece—will wash easily and wear well. Sale Price, yard, 47½¢
BOWMAN'S—Second Floor.

The White Sale of Undermuslins and Silk Undergarments

Dainty undermuslins added to the splendid regular lines, makes choosing most attractive. The fabrics are dependable as are the trimmings of laces can easily be satisfied. The variety of styles so large that all tastes and purses can be satisfied.

Gowns of cambrie and fine nainsook—lace and embroidery trimmed—some elaborate, others plain tailored—cut full and long. Sale Price 95¢, $1.29, $1.69 and $1.98
Envelope chemise—made of fine nainsook, trimmed in various ways, some embroidered in colors—also flesh batiste, lace trimmed, with strap shoulders or lace effect. Sale Prices, 95¢, $1.19 and $1.39

Skirts of cambrie, prettily trimmed with lace and embroidery—with underuffle. Sale Prices, 98¢, $1.19, $1.39 and $1.98
Glove silk vests in several styles—lace tops with ribbon shoulder straps. Sale Price $1.95
Envelope chemise of flesh color crepe de chine, trimmed with laces and ribbons—many pretty styles. Sale Prices, $3.25, $3.95 and $4.25

Silk gowns of flesh colors crepe de chine, with lace or georgette trimming—plain tailored and fancy finish. Sale Prices $3.25, $3.95, $4.25 and $5.95
Camisoles—of flesh color crepe de chine, lace trimmed—round neck styles and some with shoulder straps of lace and ribbon. Sale Price 95¢
White flannelette gowns—just received an assortment of these warm gowns in white—several different styles to select from. Sale Prices $1.00, $1.25, $1.39 and $1.75
White cotton pajamas in one-piece model—trimmed with lace at neck and sleeves—dainty and comfortable. Sale Price, $1.09

Philippine Underwear at a 25 Per Cent. Reduction

Dainty garments of luxury—the real hand-work of Philippine women—beautifully embroidered gowns and envelope chemise. Specially priced for the balance of the white sale at 25 per cent. off regular figures.
BOWMAN'S—Second Floor.

White Cotton Fabrics

Fancy white gabardine—36 inches wide—splendid quality in the newest stripes. Sale Price, yard 50¢
White mercerized voile—extra fine quality for waists and dresses—40 inches wide—tape selvedge. Sale Price, yard, 19¢
Fancy white voiles for waists, in a variety of attractive patterns—in three lots. Sale Price 15¢, 19¢ and 25¢
White nainsook—39 inches wide—10 yards to a piece. Sale Price, piece $2.50
White nainsook—full yard wide—boxed in 10-yard pieces. Sale Price, piece $2.00
Windsor longcloth—special soft bleach finish—10 yards to a piece. Sale Price, piece $2.19
Longcloth—Bowman's Special—8 yards to a piece. Sale Price, piece $1.00
BOWMAN'S—Second Floor.

NOTICE!

Folks who drink POSTUM instead of coffee Sleep Better Feel Better

