Lenine Signs Papers to Imprison Ferdinand in Petrograd Fortress

Petrograd, Jan. 16, (delayed).—Premier Lenine to-day signed an order for the arrest of King Ferdinand of Rumania, who is to be sent to Petrograd for imprisonment in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul.

The order for the king's arrest describes in detail the way it is to be carried out and the manner in which the king is to be guarded. The Bolsheviks believe they have sufficient forces on the Rumanian front to carry it out.

For several weeks there has been friction between Rumania and Russia. The trouble originated with the attempts to spread the propaganda of the Bolsheviks in Rumania. It was charged by the Rumanians that Russian troops were guilty of disorders.

Recently Rumanian troops surrounded and disbanded a Russian regiment. The Bolshevik government retaliated by arresting the Rumanian minister in Petrograd, although he was released on the demand of the diplomatic corps. An ultimatum was dispatched to Rumania threatening the severest measures if Russia's demands were not complied with within twenty-four hours.

HOARDER LOSES LICENSE

Paterson, N. J.—Because he sold 400 pounds of sugar to the manager of a local theater for free distribution among the audience, David Nicholson, a wholesale grocer, was found guilty of hoarding by the Federal Food Board and his license was suspended for one month.

Major With Pershing Gives Good Advice to Those Who Want to Help

A very pretty lady strolled in a smoking car. A riot nearly followed before she had gone far. "O, madam," all protested, but she smiled and tossed her toque. "I simply love to sit in where the room is full of smoke!"

Incredible, eh? Well, it is not. Happened just that way in Chicago the other day. "I know it," said a charming and thoroughly nice woman passenger as the boys all pulled themselves up in the smoker. "But I know I will get a seat in here and not a man in that other car would oblige. You see I always think that a smoker is more polite than a man who does not. Thirty-one and that half seat up at the end of the car, every seat was vacant in jig time. And the Chicago lady rode to her destination smiling in an aura of good tobacco smoke."

We have no desire to get into an argument with anybody about this. Fact is fact. The world does move and it is spacious. So few persons think alike. If it be true that smokers are more polite than nonsmokers, may be they are also more generous, for it appears that smokers send more tobacco abroad to the fighting boys than they who do not. Indulge, at any rate, here is one positive thing. Whether a lady does or does not mind tobacco smoke even when steeped with it in a car she can serve the brave soldier more efficiently by sending him smokes by "adopting him" for sentimental reasons.

Listen to the sage advice of an old major with Pershing's expedition: "Ladies, if you want to help win the war, save lives and have husbands, then quit adopting soldiers. Your letters and fol de roles clutter the mails and take the soldier's mind off his work. They might make him easy work for

GARFIELD IS SAD FAILURE SAY CRITICS

Highway Commissioner Puts Out Statement Which He Says Was Rather Mild

Highway Commissioner J. Denny O'Neil, who last night announced that he was "Republican candidate for governor," said to-day that his statement of last night was sufficient for the time being.

"I'm going back to Pittsburgh to-night and I may say something at the dinner to be given next week. I guess I will have nothing more to add to my statement until then," said he. "I was rather ashamed of that statement as it was so mild."

Mr. O'Neil's announcement was expected at the Capitol, although only the day before at Lebanon he was quoted as saying that he would prefer being highway commissioner to being governor. There was noticeable activity among the friends of the Commissioner to-day and a statement by Governor Brumbaugh supporting him is looked for.

In his statement Mr. O'Neil makes Senator Penrose and Senator Spruel targets and says in part: "Under the very thin and foolish guise of harmony, this hand-picked candidate is foisted upon the party. There can be no harmony with Spruel or any other Penrose-labeled candidate."

"Should Penrose succeed in naming his candidate, it would mean repeal or hamstringing of all progressive and humane legislation and the defeat of all the great moral issues now before the legislature. It would square upon all moral issues, and upon all other legislation in the interest of the people. I am now and have been all my life engaged in a real business and am sure that I realize the great economic problems that are before us now and that will arise after we win the war. I shall put my best business principles into my public service."

"This is a day of patriotic and lofty moral effort. I am ready and prepared to take a definite stand upon every great issue. I shall not hide behind any subterfuge or candidate who will not define his position on every moral issue and whose record is a pledge of a party that is not worthy of consideration. I do not pussy-foot."

"Pennsylvania is spending many thousands of dollars to get rid of blights that prey upon our crops. This is well. It is no time to devote our energies to eradication of this political cancer that has all too long preyed upon the life of our people. It is time that the politics of Pennsylvania should be placed upon a higher plane and I shall appeal to the people to support me in an effort to make Pennsylvania the Keystone state in reality as well in name."

"In due time I will issue a statement to show to the people exactly what the issues in this contest are and what my position is upon each and all of them."

Real Health Means More Than Ability to Work

Probably the majority of men do not know what real health means. It means more than the capacity to sit up and eat, to walk to a desk, car and to bend over a desk. Real health means more than the real ability to do the same thing day after day. Real health means a degree of stirring, nervous energy that enables one to think new thoughts, conceive new plans and initiate new enterprises. Superabundant nervous energy is back of exceptional mental activity. It is the basis of all those qualities which are most essential in the struggle for success.

It is not sufficient to have health that will enable you to do a common place day's work, Hugo Masters writes in Physical Culture. The right kind of health should give you the energy with which to perform far more than a day's work, if necessary, even from a quantitative standpoint. It is commonly the man with an unlimited capacity for work who gets on. He is able to work long hours without tiring. Successful men invariably enjoy the possession of this degree of nervous endurance or working endurance. But it is not this that is most important. The possession of energy is essential, not so much for the sake of the capacity for long hours of work, but on account of the quality of work which it enables one to perform. Quality of effort is more important than quantity of work.
