BEGINS SECOND YEAR OF WORK

Many Activities Shown By Active Members of Troop 7

Troop 7 registered last week on its second year of work with 27 members. Four old members failed to comply with orders that were issued so will be received on conditions as new scouts only.

FRANK FISHERMAN, Scribe.

The members of the troop council, who will represent the troop on the Local Council, are F. E. Musser, J. G. Nunnison and Dr. Z. Ruman. The troop will continue to hold its weekly meeting during the month of February on Wednesday evening to comply with the filing of the church council in regard to the conservation of fuel.

The troop orchestra, under the direction and leadership of W. L. Bailey, Assistant Scoutmaster, will furnish the music at the Father and Son banquet at the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Tuesday, February 26, from 7.30 to 9 P. M., with a father and son meeting.

Old French Beauty Secret

Mlle. De Lores, the famous French actress who recently arrived in this country and who is now in her sixth year, has astonished everyone who has seen her, by her exquisite complexion and smooth skin which is not marred by a single line or wrinkle.

When asked to explain how she had retained her marvelous girlish beauty, she replied that she had always practiced one of the oldest of French beauty secrets: a secret which for years was jealously guarded by the court ladies of Napoleon the First.

It consists of laying a warm cloth on the face each night before retiring for about one minute and then when the cloth is removed, a generous amount of ornatine cream is applied over the entire face and neck, massage it gently into the skin with the finger tips for about two minutes, then wipe off the surplus with a soft, dry cloth.

De Lores said that every American woman who has wrinkles, loose skin, can easily and quickly overcome these destroyers of beauty by the use of this simple yet delightful and natural beautifier, which is inexpensive and can be found at almost any good drug store.

Scouting Notes

By J. H. STINE

How many boys have telegraph instruments and would like to join a class in telegraphy for scouts only?

HQs herewith announces that such a class will be formed if there are enough boys who will seriously take up the work, and providing that a suitable place can be secured and equipment provided. Every scoutmaster will mention this at your next meeting, if he has not already done so, and will give you an opportunity to express your opinion in the matter.

Mr. Huntsberger, of "Six," tells us that when he was in Toledo he saw some scouts turned out for actual fire patrol detail. Sixteen boys were called from their schools and reported to the local HQs within twenty-five minutes after they were notified, fully equipped with ropes and scout paraphernalia.

HQs is inviting every troop in Harrisburg to "stand a trick," as the sailors sometimes say, at the local office. Each troop will detail five boys a day for one week to report to HQs for assignments of one kind and another about town. Each boy will serve about two hours, and will have occasion to meet some of the business and professional men of Harrisburg. Troops 1, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

It will soon be time to turn attention to the question of summer camps. National HQs states that minimum requirements will be established this spring, and no camp will be permitted to go out as a "Boy Scout" camp unless these requirements are fulfilled.

The report setting forth just what these provisions will be is scheduled for distribution in the very near future, and all scouts and scoutleaders will be much interested in seeing what a sermon to be delivered by Rev. G. T. Schaub, who served as assistant scoutmaster last year, and whose great interest in the troop made their camping trip a great success.

At a meeting of the orchestra held Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Goldstein, 1934 N. 3rd street, Joseph Goldstein was elected assistant leader and Herbert Lamont, assistant pianist. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Goldstein and the evening was much enjoyed by all present.

TROOP TO ATTEND EVENING CHURCH SERVICE IN A BODY

All members of Troop 20, who were present at the last meeting took examinations on points 4, 6, 9 and 10 of the Second Class requirements. Scout Edward Schreyer, Referee, attended the lecture on "Mound Builders," by Dr. Schmucker last week, gave an interesting talk on the life and habits of ants.

Scout Edward Schreyer was also elected as Troop chaplain. An important drill will be held in preparation for Sunday, when the troop will attend the evening church service in a body and take an active part in the service.

LIEUT. DANFORTH VISITED TROOP 4

Soldier Lad From Camp Hancock Tells of Scout Work Benefiting Him

At the monthly business meeting of Troop 4, Lieut. Danforth, U. S. N., was present and gave the scouts a talk on the U. S. Navy. He explained many of the details of war ships, which the scouts had not known before. He also gave the history of our Navy. After the talk he showed the scouts how to tie many new knots. Many of the old scouts of Troop 4, who are now in the Army, are thankful for the training which they received while in the troop.

As proof of this, here is a letter which one of the older scouts of Troop 4 has written to the scoutmaster.

"Dear Mr. McAllister: As you have no doubt heard, the old Governor's Troop has been transferred to artillery, and artillery is practically a little army of its own. They do their own engineering, own signal, and own communications. You know we go out in necessity requires. They have their own aviation section. So you see, artillery is no easy branch of the Army. I am on the battery commander's detail, which has charge of all communications and is used to locate position of the enemy.

"Also, practically every little detail in scouting which I have learned from you and other sources has stood me in very good stead down here. You know we go out to the artillery range about ten miles from Hancock, where we have target practice.

"We live in little dog tents about 7x5x3, that is for two of us, and believe me, we don't have summer weather down here. 'Dick' Ogelesky (he is my 'bunkie') and I sort of fooled ole man weather: we dug a hole the size of the tent, and about five feet deep, lined it with three-inch pine saplings and filled it half full of hay and straw. We also had a fireplace in our tent built out of sticks we got out of a lake just at the foot of the battery street. We put up our pup tent for a roof and believe me, we slept as snug as bugs in a rug.

"If I suppose you are still interested in scout work, dear Mac, that is why I write this as it may interest you to know that all the time you spent on Troop 4 is not lost, and I am sure the rest of the old scouts will tell you the same. Please let the boys know that we are with them as much as they are with us, and that if the time ever comes when Uncle Sam needs them, the things that they learn in scouting will not come amiss, and they can take that from one who knows. Please tell the boys that they have my best wishes, although I know only a few.

Wm. F. Tyson, Scribe.

of the present members of Troop 4. I feel that they are all bunks of mine (a bunkie is more than a friend; to be a bunkie you must love each other), and I hope to meet them all personally some day. Hoping that this letter reaches you and that I get an answer soon, I remain, one of your old scouts, "GEORGE W. FITZPATRICK "Bat. E, 108 F. A., "Camp Hancock, "Augusta, Ga."

THIS TROOP ANXIOUS TO GET NEW GAMES

At a recent meeting of Troop 6, two new members were received into the troop: (Red) Foland and (Eddie) Emanuel. They will greatly strengthen our basketball team which is anxious to meet all Scout teams and other good amateur teams in and around the city.

The management of our basketball team would like to hear from other Scout teams, they can be reached by calling William Diener, 1276W, or by calling 4686M and asking for Roy Reel. This troop is in the race for the championship of the city and we expect to land it. Roy Reel, Scribe.

Service Every American is alive to the necessity for unselfish, efficient service to the nation.

Where men once co-operated in the running of a machine or a business, whole communities and sections of the country are now developing team-play on a big scale.

In so vital a national agency as telephone communication, the necessity for co-operation is quite as positive. If the unprecedented private demand and tremendous Government requirements are to be successfully met, the public must recognize the part it should play.

The Bell Telephone operating force can be counted on. And the fullest enjoyment of the service will be realized if the public will remember always that each operator is entitled to the same consideration and plain courtesy that she would be accorded if she were addressed face to face.
