

Remove American Wounded From Red Cross Hospitals to Make Room For English

By Associated Press
Paris, March 29.—American soldiers wounded along the Chemin des Dames are being removed from American Red Cross hospitals in Paris to make room for British soldiers injured too seriously to be moved a great distance.
Twenty-seven Americans suffering from gas poisoning have reached Paris on their way to a large base hospital behind the front. All are New Englanders. They will recover. One of the number, a private of Irish extraction, whose home is in Bridgeport, Conn., is awaiting time when he can get into action again. This is why:

"I was gassed on March 17, just when I expected to leave for the St. Patrick's day celebration behind the lines. The worst of it was, it was yellow gas, which added insult to injury.
"I believe I will be all right within a few days and God help Fritz when I get back and get a crack at him with my machine gun."
BLACK IS SCARCE IN ITALY
Rome, March 29.—Pianos, American breakfast foods, oatmeal, leather slippers, cast-iron kitchen utensils, tea and plumbing materials are among the scarcest articles in Italy. Durable cloth with fast dyes, particularly coat-linings and mourning goods, is also difficult to obtain. It is not an unusual sight to see long lines of Catholic orphan school-girls, clad entirely in red, instead of black, walking in the city parks. So great has been the demand for black goods for mourning and so poor is the quality of the article now on the market that it is preferred to buy red good cloth made before the war, despite its flashy color.

GERMANY CLAIMS TO BE GEODETIC HEADQUARTERS
Amsterdam.—In 1888 the United States and twenty-two other countries joined with Germany in establishing the International Geodetic Society, which has to do with measuring the earth, and established its headquarters at the Royal Institute in Potsdam.
The agreement under which the headquarters office was maintained lapsed in 1916, owing to the war, but the German newspapers now announce that the old arrangement has been renewed through the efforts of Dutch and Swiss geographers, and the headquarters of this important scientific body will remain in Germany, not only during the war, but for a considerable period of years afterward.

Four Killed When Fire Destroys Boardinghouse
New York, March 29.—Three persons were burned to death, one was killed by a fall and two were seriously injured in a fire in a theatrical boardinghouse in West Thirty-eighth street early today. The identified dead are Catharine Harrington and Edward Swanson. Two bodies of unidentified women are at the morgue.
The origin of the blaze is unknown and fire officials are investigating reports that it was of incendiary origin. There have been six fires at the house since the first of the year, according to the fire marshal.

County to Build a New Bridge Over Swatara Creek
Bids for the construction of the new bridge over Swatara creek, just west of Hummelstown, will probably be asked by the County Commissioners in July, it was said today. The report of viewers recommending replacing the old structure was filed yesterday and will be presented to the grand jury of the June session of court to be approved. As road changes will be necessary also, the viewers made recommendations for this part of the improvement and secured releases from the property owners affected. The new bridge will cost at least $45,000, according to estimates made by the County Commissioners in preparing the 1918 budget.

MRS. ELEANOR S. RUTHERFORD
Funeral services for Mrs. Eleanor Shuer Rutherford, wife of Francis W. Rutherford, will be held to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at her late residence, on the Rutherford farm, near Paxtang. The Rev. Harry B. King, pastor of the Paxton Presbyterian Church, will officiate, and burial will be held in the Paxton Church Cemetery.
Mrs. Rutherford, who died Wednesday night, was a descendant of the famous "Fighting Parson," Rev. Mr. Elder, of the Indian wars in early Colonial times. She was in her 78th year. She had been ill for some time. From her girlhood she was a member of the Paxton Presbyterian Church, and was born on the old Elder homestead, at Paxtang. She is survived by her husband,

Francis W. Rutherford; four sons, Joshua Rutherford, Norman Rutherford, Francis Rutherford, Jr., and Samuel Rutherford; a daughter, Jean Rutherford; a sister, Mrs. Matilda Walker, Paxtang, and a brother, David Elder, of Philadelphia. She was the daughter of the late Joshua and Nancy Brown Elder.

The New Coats For Early Spring Days

Charming is the word that best describes the styles of the new Spring Coats. This assemblage features the two dominant style notes, namely, the straight plain styles and the figure following models. They are just the coats for women busy with war-time duties, or for general purpose wear, because there is no excessive use of trimmings or furbelows.

Patch pockets, set in sleeves, convertible collars, many kinds of belts are but a few of the several distinctive features that lend charm to every model. They are made of regulation materials in such shades as putty, khaki, navy, sand, Liberty blues, grays, tan, wistaria. Women who require new coats will make no mistake in choosing from these moderately priced, and good looking, practical and serviceable coats.
