

EAT NO WHEAT UNTIL HARVEST, PLEADS HOOVER

Breadstuffs at Their Lowest Ebb in Europe, He Says

Washington, March 30.—Herbert Hoover placed the issue of wheat consumption squarely up to the American people yesterday and left it in their hands whether or not the needs of the fighters and civilians abroad shall be met.

"The service that we ask of you, that we ask of every well-to-do, every independent person in the United States to-day, is that he shall abstain from wheat in any form until the next harvest," was the plea which Mr. Hoover voiced in a speech before 200 hotel men of the United States, and the answer was a pledge from virtually every man present that no wheat products would be served in his establishment until the first of September.

Another important development in the food situation yesterday was the suspension of meatless days for the next thirty days.

Wheat Situation Serious The wheat situation yesterday is the most serious in the food supply of the world, was the statement made by Mr. Hoover, and is due, he said, to the following causes:

The last harvest was less than was estimated. The delays of shipping have thrown a larger burden upon the American people in feeding the Allies than was anticipated.

Failure of the Argentine crop to reach the market as early or in the quantity that was expected.

These complications have cut the supply of breadstuffs in Europe to their lowest ebb, and the United States is the only source of supply left.

America's consumption must be cut at least one-half with the further knowledge that the shipments of wheat to the Allies will be limited from now until next fall only by limits of the country's exporting power.

Every pound that can be shipped across the Atlantic ocean, the food administrator said, will be taken.

The Magic of the Little Street Car Fare

You get up in the morning to go to your work or shopping, with no concern about the distance before you. You leave your home, get aboard the street car at your nearest corner—hand the conductor the fare, take a seat, ride for ten, twenty or thirty minutes, depending upon the distance you have to go—arrive at your destination and you've forgotten all about the street car ride.

Naturally! It's an everyday occurrence. Riding in the street car isn't of much consequence, in itself—but!

look what the little street car fare does for you!

CUMBERLAND VALLEY

Class 1 Men Selected For Camp Meade Training

Carlisle, Pa., March 30.—Selection of men to fill the draft quota to go to Camp Meade on April 1 has been made by the local boards. Examinations of men in Class 1 have been completed for two-thirds of the respective lists. The men to go next Thursday are:

District No. 1.—Charles D. Shurt, Wormleysburg; Frederico de Frederico, Wormleysburg; Daniel F. Blust, Mechanicsburg; R. D. No. 4; Paul A. Martin, Bowman'sdale; Oliver S. Erney, New Cumberland; Jacob W. Yinger, New Cumberland; Harry L. Landis, Grantville; alternates—Samuel T. Sunday, Carlisle; R. D. No. 1; Guy A. Muckel, West Fairview; Daniel Danner, Lemoyne; District No. 2.—Arthur L. Kennedy, Carlisle; Ray Goodhart, Greenon; James H. Sicker, Newville; R. D. No. 3; William F. The Rev. Charles F. Wagner Dies at Connellsville

Carlisle, Pa., March 30.—Funeral services for the Rev. Charles F. Wagner, a former county minister of the Reformed Church, who died suddenly at Connellsville, where he was serving a pastorate, were held from the residence of his sister, Mrs. George H. Wetzel, here this afternoon.

The Rev. Mr. Wagner was born near Newville in 1869, a son of Moses and Sarah Wagner, who survive him. He attended the schools at Mount Holy Springs, was a student at Mercersburg and later entered Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster. He was ordained in 1895 and has been in continuous service since that time. He was connected with the Home Mission board and prominent also in Sunday school activities.

AUGUR BORES MAN'S ARM Waynesboro, Pa., March 30.—N. A. Wenger, a farmer residing near Kaiserville, met with a serious accident while engaged in boring locust posts. Something went wrong with the machine and Mr. Wenger got down under it while it was still running to correct the trouble. The augur struck him in the left arm, entering the muscle, and before the machine could be stopped it had bored into the flesh to a depth of an inch and a half. A physician rendered medical aid.

SUMMER COTTAGE BURNED Waynesboro, Pa., March 30.—Fire at midnight Thursday destroyed the large summer cottage of Alexander Armstrong Jr., of Hagerstown, located in the resort section of the Blue Ridge Mountains near Highfield. It was the work of a firebug, as the cottage was empty. The building, together with its contents was a total loss, estimated at $6,000. This was the second fire within three weeks in that neighborhood.

VIEWERS TO MEET The final meeting of the Board of Viewers to decide damages for properties adjoining the Technical High School since the vacancy caused by the death of one of the original members will be held next Wednesday. Practically all the testimony which had been taken at the various hearings will be gone over again. It is believed. The board now includes Paul G. Smith, Earl E. Graef and E.

W. S. Stenger, Former Congressman, Is Dead Philadelphia, March 30.—William S. Stenger, Secretary of the Commonwealth during the first term of Governor Pattison, and a prominent Democrat in State political circles, died yesterday at his home here. He was 78 years old.

Mr. Stenger was stricken with a cold more than a month ago. A throat disorder later developed, but it was not until Thursday that his condition became serious, as a result of a heart affection. He is survived by his widow and a son, Walter R. Stenger, formerly a newspaperman of Harrisburg, now residing here.

Receiving his early education in the public schools and Franklin and Marshall College, Mr. Stenger later studied law and was elected district attorney of Franklin county when only 22 years of age. He was elected to Congress from his home district three times, and took a prominent part in the famous Hayes-Tilden election contest. Following his service as Secretary of the Commonwealth, Mr. Stenger came to this city and formed a law partnership with Pattison.

Mr. Stenger was a member of Washington Lodge, F. and A. M., of Chambersburg. Funeral services will be held on Monday in Chambersburg.

FAIR WEATHER FOR EASTER New Cumberland, Pa., March 30.—Tomorrow, Harrisburg's River Front, parks and streets bid fair to become more glittering than ever. It is when the Easter parade begins in the afternoon. Florists have reported a record sale of flowers, and Harrisburg's annual Easter promenade tomorrow afternoon will be as bright and complete as the previous year, the war notwithstanding.

MEETING NIGHT CHANGED New Cumberland, Pa., March 30.—The First Aid class will meet on Thursday evening, instead of Tuesday, as was announced.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of Danderrin at any drug store, for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After several applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—Adv.

SENATE PASSES BILL TO ENROLL MEN REACHING 21

Measure Would Add Thousands to Class One For Selective Army

Washington, March 30.—Universal military training in the United States was rejected as unnecessary by the Senate last evening. The body voted 36 to 26 to defeat the New amendment to the draft act, which would have made it compulsory for all young men between nineteen and twenty-one years to undergo a period of at least six months' military training within those two years.

After defeating this proposal the Senate passed unanimously the Chamberlain resolution supplementing the draft act to provide for the registration of all men who have or shall become twenty-one years of age since June 5, 1917.

It was an overwhelming negative vote on the Democratic side of the chamber which defeated the military training amendment. Only four Republicans voted against it. They were Gronna, North Dakota; Norris, Nebraska; Townsend, Michigan, and Jones, Washington.

But the vote made it appear a certainty to those who have followed the same military training movement that President Wilson is definitely against the proposition, and that no assistance can be expected from administration supporters for any attempts to resurrect the proposition in the Senate or push it in the House.

COAL PRICES FOR THE SUMMER ANNOUNCED

which local dealers must base their price rates. By averaging price rates of the various dealers, the uniform rate was established.

All charges the same After April 1 a ton of coal may be purchased from any dealer at the same price any other dealer would charge for the same grade of coal. Dealers have agreed to conform to the prices, and the fuel commission of Dauphin county will enforce the ruling.

An extra charge of fifty cents will be allowed the dealer per 2,000 pounds when the coal has to be wheeled or carried into the consumer's property.

A dealer must allow the consumer a rebate of 75 cents per 2,000 pounds if the consumer at his own expense hauls the coal from the dealer's yard.

To Go Higher The price list issued this morning is given here in the complete form. The list shows that the newly announced prices range in most cases somewhat lower than the prices before the uniform rate was announced. The price list includes the 30-cent stocking up reduction, which reduction will remain for five months.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes White Ash (Broken, 2,000 lbs. $8.45; Stove, 2,000 lbs. $8.40; Nut, 2,000 lbs. $8.70; Pea, 2,000 lbs. $7.30) and Red Ash (Broken, 2,000 lbs. $8.55; Stove, 2,000 lbs. $8.50; Nut, 2,000 lbs. $8.90; Pea, 2,000 lbs. $7.40).

DISCHARGED FROM ARMY Quite a number of men in the vicinity of Harrisburg have been included in the number of men rejected from the National Army at Camp Meade because of physical disabilities. From Harrisburg appears the name of Charles R. Harris, Steelton, Pa., Edward W. Beckley, from Gettysburg; Wilfred J. Forsythe, from Chambersburg; Norman D. Bedford, from Lebanon; Norman C. Smith, and from Lancaster, Christian L. Martin.

CHURCH SERVICES RESUMED Enola, Pa., March 30.—After an interval of the most of the morning services in the Beal Avenue Church of God will be resumed tomorrow. At the evening service the Rev. C. E. Eichel, pastor, will illustrate his sermon by a large crayon drawing.

Entertained Members of Central Debating Teams

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leswing, 1813 Green street, entertained the members of the boys' affirmative and negative debating teams of Central High at their home last evening. Music, school songs and games helped pass the evening pleasantly. Refreshments were served to M. O. Billow, Carl Stoner, Earl Wright, Tom Caldwell, Seymour Nissley, Richard Mount, Simon Brenner, John Koch and Winston Romig, and Mr. and Mrs. Leswing. In the picture are seen Simon Brenner and John Koch, members of the negative team.

SKILLED LABOR GETS WAGE INCREASE

Employers and employees have signed contracts under the new agreements. This is the first time in the history of Dauphin county, Mr. Brooks added, that contractors have made contracts with the trades unions for the services of the members.

The newly-announced wage scales are as follows: Carpenters will receive 60 cents per hour, working eight hours per day. They will receive time and half time for overtime, and double time for Saturday afternoons and Sundays. The old rate was fifty cents for a nine-hour day.

Painters will receive 50 cents per hour for an eight-hour day, with the same rates for overtime. The old rate was 35 cents for a nine-hour day.

Electricians will receive 62 1/2 cents per eight-hour day, with similar overtime rates. Plumbers and steamfitters will be paid on the same scale as electricians.

Cement finishers will receive 60 cents per hour, which is the same rate as was previously in effect. It was announced, however, that they will probably announce an increase in July.

Laborers will receive 35 cents for an eight-hour day. The old rate was stated between 25 and 30 cents, with nine to ten-hour days.

Stationary engineers will receive 60 cents for eight-hour days. Their scale formerly ranged between 40 and 50 cents.

Sheet metal workers and lathe men have not yet announced any agreement on increases, but these may follow shortly. An increase to eighty cents to be announced by bricklayers, was declared likely yesterday.

Members of the Bricklayers' Union announced that the rate will remain at 75 cents.

Had carriers come in for an increase with laborers, receiving wages on the same scale with them.

Sufficient Labor at Hand In addition to announcing the new wage scales of the Building Trades Union, Mr. Brooks announced that sufficient skilled and unskilled labor can be secured through the union from Dauphin county to handle all building projects now under way.

The Building Trades Union is furnishing the bulk of the men needed to carry on the great government building work at Middletown.

The Builders' Trades Union represents most of the skilled carpenter, painter, plumber, cement and structural labor in Dauphin and Cumberland counties. The local district comprises these two counties, and is known as the Harrisburg district.

LEADERS AGREE NOT TO STRIKE DURING THE WAR

All Disputes Will Go Before Mediation Board For Settlement

Washington, March 30.—An agreement governing the relations of capital and labor for the duration of the war, which will be made the basis of a national labor policy, was reached here yesterday by the labor planning board after sessions lasting more than a month.

Terms of the agreement will not be made public until approved by Secretary of Labor Wilson, charged by President Wilson with the formulation of a labor administration, but it was learned last night that the main purpose of the conferences—the adoption of a plan to prevent strikes—had been achieved. Labor representatives, it was said, pledged the members of unions engaged in war work not to strike until after government investigation of differences between the workers and their employers.

EASTER

When all outdoors is busy putting on new colors and new verdure, it is but natural that we too, select Easter as the most appropriate day on which to lay aside winter apparel for the light, bright, airy new things that Spring-time always brings.

Easter Sunday, with its inspiring service and soulful music and outdoor promenades, is one of the most interesting days of the year. It comes earlier this year than usual, and if you'll set your clock ahead one hour this evening, before retiring, you may enjoy Easter by daylight one hour longer than customary.

Enjoy your Easter feast, but eat just a little less and save some food for the boys in the trenches and camps.
