

EASTER SERVICES OF SONG WILL BE HELD IN EVERY CHURCH IN CITY TOMORROW

WILL OBSERVE EASTER TIDE

Every Church in the City Will Have Special Services For Easter

Virtually every church in the city will celebrate the resurrection of the Divine Son, with special services to-morrow. In every Catholic church of the city, services will be held during the day, in recognition of Easter Sunday. Singers will sing the old Easter carols and melodies, as well as the newer songs.

In Protestant churches, special services will be held, with special musical programs appropriate to the occasion. The hymns, "Hosanna," "The Holy City," "Christ Arose" and other beautiful old songs will be sung by soloists, and congregations will sing the magnificent old hymns that their fathers and mothers sang before them.

The past week, Passion Week, services were held in many of the Harrisburg churches. In the Cathedral, "The Holy City," "Christ Arose" and other beautiful old songs will be sung by soloists, and congregations will sing the magnificent old hymns that their fathers and mothers sang before them.

Easter morning, the Lenten season closes and there is rejoicing because Christ has arisen. In celebration of the victory over material life, these special services of rejoicing are held.

Will Conduct Services in St. Paul's Baptist

The Rev. Dr. J. A. Pinson, pastor of the Salem Baptist Church of Jenkintown, will open a two-week evangelistic campaign in the St. Paul's Baptist Church Sunday morning, April 7. Dr. Pinson has conducted campaigns in twenty-three states and religious workers in the city are anxiously awaiting the opening of the services. Prayer services will be held each evening from 7 to 8 o'clock and will be led by the Rev. E. J. Manning and the Rev. J. B. Baldwin.

C. E. Notes

Keystone Leaguers will shine some night, delegates will shine. C. E. convention will shine all right, won't that be fine. Endeavors in Chestnut Street Hall will meet. Fifteen hundred general delegates to greet. On September twenty-five—twenty nine.

Special Service During Next Week at Market Sq.

Beginning with Sunday morning, Market Square Church will hold its services according to the official turning ahead of clocks. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 by the new time, and so on throughout the day. Special services will be held every evening except Saturday through the following week, with the Rev. E. C. Reeves, D. D., of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, preaching.

C. E. SOCIETIES ARE ENGAGED IN CONTEST

Endeavors From Fourth St. Church of God and Market Square in Contest.

Christian Endeavors of the Fourth Street Church of God are engaged in a lively contest with the Market Square Presbyterian Society to last for ten weeks. The object is not so much in the winning of the contest by either society as the injection of new life and the addition of new members and the reinstatement of old members into the active work of each society. The contest started off with a "win and lose" service, testimony and prayer in the services, attendance at midweek prayer meeting of the church, for visitors present, etc.

The Fourth Street Society is aiming and expects to become in the near future, one of the Five Thourand Superior Societies of the world, a state of efficiency in the endeavor that entitled the society meeting, the conditions to place a silver seal on their efficiency certificate. The society has almost secured the necessary number of credits for the silver seal, and their active and bustling president, Harold E. Eckert, with his live wire committee men, are determined to "go over the top" by midsummer.

The work of the comrades of the Quile Hour and the members of the North Legion is helping materially in the campaign, and the special musical features of the Sunday evening meetings, and the constant offering of the best speakers in the gospel work to be had in the city make their services particularly attractive. The result of this contest will be announced within a few weeks. The society will be entertained in a social by the loser.

Lawson Laverty, a live wire endeavor worker, will have school work of the Rev. E. J. Manning, assisted by Miss Anna Dugan. The topic, "Lessons From the Risen Christ's Forty Days," will be discussed.

St. Mathew's Lutheran Endeavors

St. Mathew's Lutheran Endeavors will hold a sunrise prayer service to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock at the historic church, 703, "The Power of the Resurrection," 7:30, "The Conqueror," 8:00, "The Conqueror," 8:40, Sunday school.

Bethlehem Lutheran Christian Endeavors will hold a sunrise service on Sunday. The study will be "Lessons From the Risen Christ's Forty Days." Miss Susannah Bird, president of the society, will conduct the meeting. Special music will be rendered, consisting of a duet by Misses Helen Carson and Louise Ynting, and a solo by Miss Brown. This society has the unique distinction of being the only society in the city that has women on the list of officers and committees. The list contains twenty-three names and a standing invitation is extended to all to visit the society. The officers are as follows: President, Miss Susannah Bird; first vice-president, Miss Mabel Wilbur; second vice-president, Miss Florence Markward; recording secretary, Miss Minnie Trinkle; corresponding secretary, Miss Annie Schlayer; treasurer, Miss Katherine Matchett; pianist, Miss Mary Miller.

The Disciples' great campaign to organize 2,400 new societies in twenty-four weeks did not quite attain the goal in the time specified. The time was extended a little, and the latest figures show 2,329 societies as a result of the work done.

At the Park Street United Evangelical Society Mrs. W. E. Rickert and Mrs. William Sellmeyer will conduct the service on Sunday evening.

Many endeavor societies will hold early services to-morrow with special programs to-morrow.

Miss Mary Hammelbaugh will make the program interesting at the Westminster Presbyterian Society on Sunday. A special invitation is extended to all persons interested in Easter services.

The societies of the South, which are trying to raise $15,000 this year for missions of the various denominations, by February 1, had reached more than one-third of this amount.

The Derry Street United Brethren Y. P. S. C. E. will hold services at 7:30 o'clock to-morrow morning, Easter Sunday. An interesting program has been prepared with special music and an orchestra to accompany the songs. All members and friends are urged to attend to commemorate the memorable occasion.

Christ Lutheran Christian Endeavors will hold an Easter service to-morrow. Ross Gruver will have charge of the meeting.

Miss Edna Hoover, a prominent worker in C. E. circles, will speak at the Easter meeting of the Pine Street Presbyterian Society to-morrow evening.

At the Market Square Baptist Society on Sunday evening, Miss Lillian Free will conduct the service.

Miss Mildred Donnoyer, a live wire endeavor worker, will speak at the Harris Street United Evangelical Society on Sunday evening.

Covenant Presbyterian Endeavorers will observe Easter with a special endeavor service. Miss Eleanor Eby will be the leader of the meeting.

The Second Reformed C. E. Society will hold a rousing meeting to-morrow. William H. Cocks will be the speaker and leader at the service.

Frank Updegraff will have charge of the endeavor service at the First Church of God, New Cumberland, on Sunday evening. Many special features have been arranged for C. E. work during the coming months.
