Wins Commission in U. S. Navy With Ensign's Rank

JOSEF H. STROUSE

Josef H. Strouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Strouse, 2128 North Third street, was home over the weekend from his training station in Norfolk with the news that he had successfully passed the competitive examination for a commission in the Navy. Mr. Strouse enlisted in the United States naval reserves last fall and has been in steady training for work at sea ever since.

A class of 115 picked men tried for the commissions and thirty passed. This class will be sent to a special training school in Washington to take a six weeks' course which will fit them for assistant paymasters with the rank of ensign.

MISS HELEN CHISEMER

Funeral services will be held from the home of her parents, 725 South Twenty-third street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. M. E. Shaffer, pastor of the church of the Redeemer, officiating. Burial will be in the Paotang Cemetery.

ASKS COUNTY TO JOIN IN APPEAL

Highspire Council Wants Aid of Commissioners For Road Improvement

County commissioners received a communication from the borough council of Highspire, Pa., asking the officials to join in a petition for state aid to permanently improve the entire stretch of road way through the town of Highspire from Second and Motor streets to Second street and White House Lane, a distance of about 7,900 feet. A resolution asking state aid and directing the intention of the borough officials to make the improvement was passed recently by Council. The highway is used daily by trucks and other vehicles going to the aviation supply depot at Middletown. The commissioners deferred action for a day or two.

Court Session—President Judge George Kunkel refused temporarily to grant a charter to the Jitneys' Indemnity Association to-day, pending a study of the act of incorporation. The charter application was presented to-day but Judge Kunkel stated he did not believe the court under the charter act could grant it to such a corporation. He explained the law permitted incorporation of beneficiary organizations to pay death and sickness claims.

The charter of the Fin and Feather Club of Harrisburg, an organization for the protection of game and game birds, was presented also, but Judge Kunkel refused to make an order in which a decree was including prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor. The court ruled such a statement should be made voluntarily in the application as the court had no authority to make such a provision in a decree.

Two liquor license transfers were granted as follows: David Katzman to Howard G. Holstein, license of hotel at 314 Verbeke street, city; Daniel Frank Barbush to James Barbush, license of Mansion House, First Ward, Middletown.

An order was made by the court after the parties had agreed that Michael J. Isaac, Christ, Aaron and William Peiffer were to pay a total of $10 a month for the support of their invalid father, who will be seventy-five years old on Thursday. He is residing at present with one of the sons, who brought suit against his brothers.

While attorneys in several of the cases listed for civil court next week were not present when the suits were called all but one was marked for trial in the case of the Merchants' Ice Company vs. Charles E. Stearns, being reported as settled. Owing to the illness of Judge S. J. M. McCarrell it is likely another judge will be called to come here next week to assist in disposing of the cases. Judge McCarrell will probably leave the city for a short rest.

Attorney Home—James K. Jackson, of the county bar, was in the city for the day to attend to some legal business. He is in the Naval Department, Bureau of Steam Engineering, having been detached from the U. S. S. Triton for special duty.

Redeeming Bonds—Almost $50,000 of the $121,000 county bond issue of 1902, have been taken by the Commonwealth Trust Company. The bonds are due April 1, after which no interest is to be paid. They were issued under a 3 1/2 per cent rate, payable semiannually.

Attorney Paid—An order has been made to pay James A. Stranahan and A. Ross Walter, who were attorneys for Frederick Richcreek, tried twice on a charge of murder, convicted the first time and acquitted on the second trial. Each attorney will receive $200. They were appointed to defend Richcreek serving at both trials and also being successful in the motion for a new trial after the conviction.

Water Successor—William A. Adams, 411 Hummel street, has been named to succeed the late Edward F. Saul as an inspector in the Water Department.

Petitions Filed—Nominating petitions filed to-day at the County Commissioners' office follow: Democratic—Leo A. Weyer, county committee, Tenth Ward, Fourth Precinct; Republican—Seventh Ward, Fifth Precinct, county; E. L. Dyer, Joseph W. Bach and Harry B. Thomas, city.

Issue Licenses—Licenses for junk dealers, hucksters and owners of motor and horse-drawn vehicles for hire are being issued now at the city treasurer's office.

Big Rush to File Deeds—The usual rush to file deeds and mortgages was reported at the County Recorder's office, twenty-five instruments being filed before noon. There was a 10 per cent increase in the total number of marriage licenses issued during March, 1918, was reported. They were recorded last month; while in March, 1917, there were 94.

Letters on Estate—Letter of administration on the estate of Pierce Retlaw professor of English on the Technical High school faculty, who died recently, were granted by Register Danner to C. Vernon Retlaw and Clarence S. Shenk. The will of Harriet E. McCarthy, late of the city, has been filed and letters testamentary are to be issued to Frank McCarthy.

Four Red Cross Melting Pots Placed in City For the Free Wool Fund

The big Red Cross Melting Pot drive opened to-day when melting pots were placed in four conspicuous places throughout the city, to receive contribution for the Harrisburg Chapter, American Red Cross. Melting pots have been placed in the Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart store; at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Nineteenth and Market streets, and in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Second and Emerald streets. A melting pot is also located in the basement of the Harrisburg Public Library, in chapter headquarters. Big posters above the receptacles, bear this statement.

"Red Cross Melting Pot Drive for the Free Wool Fund. Old Gold, copper, silver, tin, brass, etc., wanted. The posters were painted by Misses Dorothy Cox and Caroline Moffitt.

Contribute Old Coins—The melting pot at the Public Library has been the receptacle for a miscellaneous collection of oldies. Among these were a large number of old coins which were taken to Philadelphia by Mrs. James I. Chamberlain. Three of the oldest coins were a Moroccan coin, 1700 year old; Roman coin, 621 years old, and her Roman coin, with 50 other old coins. Last Thursday afternoon a check for $48 was received for old platinum sold, and $7.56 was received for other articles.

Boy Scouts of the city will assist in the campaign by making collection of articles, Saturday, April 13. Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. J. A. Plank are in charge of the campaign.

SIX BAPTIZED AT SERVICE—Special Easter services were held at the Tabernacle Baptist Church yesterday. The church was beautifully decorated. Six persons were baptized. An offering was taken for the Baptist Million Dollar Drive. Special music was by soloists and the church choir.

Prothonotary Pass to Speak in New York City

Charles E. Pass, prothonotary of Dauphin county, will address a union meeting of all the Red Men, Degree of Pocohontas, of New York, Bronx and Richmond counties, in New York City, Wednesday evening. Mr. Pass presided at the New York state convention of the Red Men last summer, and made such an impression that he has been asked to deliver the principal address at the tri-county meeting. Before returning, he will visit Boston, where he will also speak at a gathering of Red Men.

Harrisburg Boy Wins an Aviator's Commission

David Cameron, II, of this city, has been commissioned a lieutenant and given his junior military aviator's degree at the flying school at Love Field, Dallas, Tex., and has been assigned temporarily to duty at Love Field as an instructor of flying cadets.

The successful young flyer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Cameron, of 209 Pine street, and a grandson of ex-Judge David Cameron, of Tioga county. He enlisted at Mineola, L. I., last August, and after an eight weeks' course at the Government School of Aeronautics, at Ithaca, N. Y., was sent to the flying school at Dallas, Tex.

"The Live Store"

"Always Reliable"

How Do You Like It?

Good Evening! How did you like getting up an hour earlier? Fine, it's just the thing to make a fellow glad that Spring is here — gives us all a chance to see more daylight — and prepare that garden to keep down the high cost of living, and you know that old adage

Early to Bed—Early to Rise Makes a Man Healthy, Happy and Wise

There's a great deal of truth in many of these old sayings — but it's an unquestioned statement that most men buy their clothing at DOUTRICH'S — but of course you wouldn't think of going to a hardware store for headache powders or try to buy typewriters in a drug store — and the same thing applies to buying clothing — there's always a criterion in everything, for "high rating" is a "big factor" these days — No one feels exactly right in buying an imitation when they can get the original for the same price.

This "Live Store" has staked its reputation on "reliability," handling known quality merchandise that is guaranteed through "thick" and "thin" and when you make a purchase HERE you regulate all the "ifs" and "ands" to suit your own conditions for satisfaction is complete when you are thoroughly satisfied.
