SEVEN BUILDINGS ON FARM BURNED

Sparks From Wash-Day Fire Spread Flame Until Loss of $5,000 Is Caused

Abbotstown, Pa., April 2.—Every building on the farm of A. H. Rodgers, tenanted by his son, Ammon Rodgers, two miles east of here, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, entailing a loss of about $4,000, with $1,400 insurance. The loss to the farmer in furniture and implements is about $1,000.

The blaze started from a few embers Mrs. Rodgers had left in the fireplace in the yard where she had heated water during the forenoon with which to do the family washing. She did pour some water on the fire, but not enough. While working in the house the strong breeze blowing throughout the day fanned the fire up again, which communicated with the wood pile nearby. When Mrs. Rodgers discovered the blaze it was too late to cope with it. She summoned help on the telephone, but the strong wind swept flames from building to building until every one was licked up. There were seven, in all. One saw with seven pigs was burned. The rest of the livestock was saved.

TROUBLES NEARLY DROVE HIM CRAZY

P. R. R. Machinist Tried Remedy After Remedy in Vain Search For Relief TANLAC AIDS HIM AT ONCE "If there ever was a wonderful remedy it is Tanlac. I tried it on my face and body and it cured me. I had a sort of eczema all over my face and body. Doctors told me that it was caused by the oils from the machinery as I was working as a machinist in the P. R. R. shops, so I quit my job and got another on a street car, but the itching didn't get any better and I was almost insane from the torture. Then one day I decided I'd take a crack at Tanlac and see what that would do, for I'd heard a lot of wonderful reports about it and I sort of had a hunch. "Well, sir, believe me, it did the work. The second dose brought relief and it was only a matter of days until my skin was all healed up, the itching stopped and the eczema gone entirely. "Tanlac is now being introduced here at Gorgas Drug Store.—Adv.

FEW DROPS AND CORN LIFTS OUT

Says there is no excuse for cutting corns and inviting lockjaw. Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of corn can harmlessly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority. It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezone at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection. This simple drug, while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue. This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heel footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.—Adv.
