

DARING RESCUE IN NAVAL RAID

[Continued from First Page.] enemy barrage at express train speed and drew up alongside. All the time shells were falling, some striking the block ships and causing numerous casualties, but the crews upheld their traditions for coolness. As the last of those who were able to reach the launches two muffled explosions tore great holes in the bottoms of the blockships. The vessels settled quickly. At the same moment the heavily laden launches were dashing seaward and again they passed through a German barrage to the waiting British destroyers. One launch delivered 29 men to the destroyers. The clocklike precision essential to the success of the operation made it impossible to evacuate all the dead and wounded from the blockships, but the participants declare the loss of personnel in this feature of the enterprise was remarkably small. The Rev. William J. Lockhart, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in the Harrisburg Cemetery. Miss Tway died Wednesday afternoon at the Harrisburg Hospital. She lived with her niece, Mrs. Charles H. Smith, 210 Liberty street. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

bor lies the wreck of a two funneled torpedo boat. Many German wounded were transferred to Bruges by boat and train. The losses among the surprised troops must have been great. The frightened inhabitants fled to Ramskapelle. Berlin, April 25, via London—German naval operations off the Flanders coast, says an official statement given out today by the German press, have in no way been impeded by the British attack on Zeebrugge and Ostend. Various team commanders reported a number of industrial plants and schools in the city one hundred per cent perfect at the luncheon today. Among them the Hamilton school, the Cameron school, the Baltimore Life Insurance Company, whose subscriptions amounted to $15,000, the poor house employees, and the Eureka Life Insurance Company. Captain Everett, of Division No. 1, announced today that the Elliott-Fisher Typewriting Company added a subscription of $25,000 to their already $60,000 subscription. A "bombing squad" got on the job today. Harrisburg has a number of citizens who are distinctly and decidedly pro-German. They have refused to help the Red Cross; they have refused to donate to the Liberty Bell buttons. They have expressed regrets that they were unable financially to help the Germans. These people today are being interviewed by "bombing squads" which propose finding out just where they stand.

Buttons Are Coming Local headquarters has had much difficulty in securing the little Liberty Bell buttons wearing of which denotes bond ownership. 3 messengers sent to Philadelphia for 10,000 have been lucky to return with 1,000. To-day, however, assurances were received that the wants of the entire Harrisburg district will be filled within a few hours. Wider labels will be necessary for the coats of men within a short time. There are Liberty Loan, Red Cross, Thrift Stamps and other patriotic emblems.

County Passes Million Dauphin county's Liberty Bond quota is $1,300,000. Figures received this morning from a number of towns, including Steelton, show that the county has passed the million dollar mark and by Saturday night at the outside will have surpassed the quota. The figures published in this paper last night do not include the total subscriptions received by the banks of Harrisburg, estimated at nearly the $500,000 mark. Many Go to Headquarters Governor Brumbaugh has set an example which many Harrisburg people are following. The state's executive yesterday appeared at headquarters to receive a check and secured application blanks for every member of the executive household.

Board Shows Town Totals A large bulletin board has been erected opposite the main entrance to the State Capitol, on the plaza, and here each day the names of the towns of Pennsylvania, which are surpassing their Liberty Bond allotments are to be posted. The board, 12 by 15 feet in size, was erected by the State Banking Commissioner, who has been directed by the Governor to issue lists showing the honor towns of Pennsylvania. Boy Scouts Start Saturday Loan sales begin their Liberty Loan sales on Saturday.

Insurance Company Buys Manager J. A. Marshall, of the Baltimore Life Insurance Company has received word from headquarters in Baltimore that the company will purchase $15,000 worth of Liberty Bonds through the Harrisburg district. Arrangements for this purchase have been completed through the Union Bank. The insurance company has bought $100,000 bonds of the third flotation. More Hundred Percenters Added to list of towns in the Harrisburg district which are in the honor roll class are: Linglestown, Millintown, Penn township, Cumberland county, Carlisle, Third ward, Williamstown was the first Dauphin county to go over the top—and not satisfied with going over once it went over twice. The Pennsylvania Railroad expects to complete 100 per cent record on the Philadelphia division to-morrow. To-day's reports show that out of 4,773 employees, a total of 4,116 have taken bonds amounting to $223,000.

Selected Men Who Leave For Camp Tomorrow Report to Local Boards The city and county draft boards have notified the men in their quotas which leave for Camp Meade to-morrow to report at the exemption board offices to-day for final instructions. While it is expected that there will be any real delay in despatching the quotas, it is likely that one or two changes may be made in the personnel of the quotas. City Draft Board No. 3 will give final instructions to its quotas at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Board No. 1 met its quota at noon to-morrow. Board No. 2 met its quota this afternoon. The county boards met their quotas for final instructions to-day. No change in the quotas is expected. Harrisburg men will entrain at 11:50 to-morrow. The colored quota for Camp Meade will have a demonstration on farewell before it entrains to-morrow. A committee of colored citizens is at work on final arrangements. A band has been organized and there will be a large turnout of the colored population of the city. A reception to the colored men will be held to-night at the City Grays Armory under the auspices of the central branch of the Emergency Aid.

Boys Off to Camp Get Kits From the Red Cross The first shipment of advertising matter for the big Red Cross Campaign to be launched here next month was received to-day at Red Cross Headquarters, and volunteer workers are needed to fold the circulars, assort them and prepare them for the workers. Volunteer workers are also needed for work on new materials recently ordered by the Government, Miss Anne McCormick, chairman of the work-rooms, announces. "We're supplying every drafted man from Harrisburg and vicinity with comfort kits and all necessary knitted things," said Miss McCormick. "If they come to our headquarters, in the basement of the Public Library, we'll be glad to take care of our home boys first."
