PLEASANT DANCE FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Middletown Employees Give First in Series of Dances Last Evening

Hanshaw's Hall was the scene of an attractive dance last evening, when the employees of the Constructing Quartermaster's office and the Contractor's office of the Middletown Ordnance Depot gave the first in a series of dances which are to take place every two weeks. The affair was arranged by Miss Clara M. Harclerode and Miss Josephine Ebersole. Rose and white decorations and palms formed a charming background for the dancers. Music was furnished by Brunyan's Orchestra. Among the dancers were Miss Isabel Backenstoss, Miss Clara M. Harclerode, Miss Claire Heck, Miss Nell Ebersole, Miss Loretta McGinnis, Miss Josephine Ebersole, Miss Penn, Miss Ida Hoyer, Miss Alvia Robinson, Miss A. Davidson, Miss O. J. Philonian Dance This Evening at Winterdale

Four hundred invitations have been issued for the dance which is to be given this evening at Winterdale by the Philonian Debating Society of Central High school. School colors and pennants with attractive decorations will be used. Members of the society include William Rodgers, president; Benjamin Wolfe, vice-president; Harry Good, secretary; Kenneth Wingard, treasurer; John Shumaker, Willard Smith, Jay Stoltz, Albert Rinkenbach, Elmer Herring, Paul Roder, Hugo Rose, Edward Williamson, Kenneth Eldridge, Thomas Lantz, John McCaleb, Robert Wallower, Wilmer King and Ralph Early. The H. A. Society held a meeting last evening at the home of Clyde Hooker, 1833 North Sixth street. After the business session refreshments were served to: Harry Good, Stewart Wagner, Benjamin Wolfe, William Rodgers, Clyde Hooker, Kenneth Wingard, Thomas Lantz, Ross Hoffman, Paul Roder, Albert Rinkenbach, Hugo Rose, Edward Williamson, William McCaleb, Willard Smith, Jay Stoltz, Kenneth Eldridge and John Shumaker.

Magpie Club Members Guests of Mrs. Eberly

Mrs. George F. Eberly was hostess for the members of the Magpie Club at her home, sixteenth street, New Cumberland, yesterday afternoon. The guests enjoyed a social time with the members. A delightful luncheon was served in clever appointments with a pretty note effect in brightly-colored tulips. The members present were: Mrs. George Wagner, Mrs. John Fordney, Mrs. John J. Gibbons, of Wormleysburg; Mrs. Jacob Rudy, Mrs. William Schell and Mrs. George Schell, of Penbrook, and Mrs. Edward Demming. X. Y. Z. CLUB MEETS Miss Ruth Matz, of North Eleventh street, will entertain informal luncheon at her home for the members of the X. Y. Z. Club. The members of the club are: Miss Martha Wilt, Miss Adeline Emerick, Miss Mae McElhenny, Miss Edith Flowers, Miss Christine Fleischer and Mrs. Patton Cox. AMATEUR PLAYLET A SUCCESS The little play entitled "Old Maid Convention" which was given last evening at the P. R. Y. M. C. A. was a huge success. The cast was trained and provided laughter from start to finish with their clever jokes. "Keep the Home Fires Burning" was sung as a finale by the entire audience. Mrs. George L. Schuit, of 12 North Fifteenth street, visited relatives in Enola, yesterday. Mrs. Loretta Wilson, of Camp Hill, spent yesterday in this city.

CONCERT SOLOIST IS MISS DUBBS

Mandolin Club Gives Benefit For South America Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow Evening

An attractive program has been arranged for the annual concert to be given by the Mandolin and Guitar Club of the Y. M. C. A. under the direction of Prof. Roy G. Miller tomorrow evening. The concert is being given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. in South America. Tickets have been selling rapidly under the direction of the industrial department and Miss Lois Scott, secretary. An unusual feature of the program is the community singing which will be led by Miss Katharine Dubbs, well-known soprano soloist. She will give several solo numbers, also. Miss Florence Newbold, a reader of exceptional ability, has been secured for several numbers on the program. She is a graduate of Emerson School of Expression and is a present teaching at Irving College. Both Miss Dubbs and Miss Newbold will add charming variety to the program, which is as follows: "Sweet Song," Miss Katharine Dubbs; "Alice Where Art Thou," Mandolin, Guitar and Banjo Club; "Fascinator," Miller's Banjo Club; "Love's Old Sweet Song," Miss Katharine Dubbs; "The Star Spangled Banner," Mandolin and Guitar Club; finale, "Keep the Home Fires Burning," with community singing. "Bayaders," Miller, Mandolin and Guitar Club; "The Star Spangled Banner," Mandolin and Guitar Club; finale, "The Star Spangled Banner."

Harrisburg W. C. T. U. Completes Army Kits

Mrs. John DeGrady, corresponding secretary of the Harrisburg W. C. T. U., sends the following report of yesterday's meeting: "The regular meeting of the Harrisburg W. C. T. U. was held yesterday at the Fourth Street Church of God. Mrs. Carrie Mulligan, second vice-president, in the chair. The army kits were reported finished, except for the friendly letters which are to accompany them. Four dozen have been completely furnished, at a cost of $84. The matter of making the evening meeting assigned on a yearly calendar for May 25, a patriotic occasion, was discussed, and a memorial fitting to the season, Mrs. Samuel Gardner, chairman, Mrs. Stelmach, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Winter, Mrs. Mozingo and Mrs. Carnathan. The nature of yesterday's meeting was a short but comprehensive paper by Miss Cora Lee Snyder, on Temperance and the Press. Frances Willard's early journalistic efforts were told, and her prophecy that women would take a larger part in the newspaper work, was referred to. Two forces are responsible for the high temperance education of the present generation. The teaching of temperance in the schools is one, and the newspaper is the other, through editorials and articles. Our newspapers have sacrificed much pecuniary benefit in eliminating liquor advertisements. "The prize committee reported final arrangements completed for the patriotic rally this evening at 7 o'clock."

MASS MEETINGS IN WEBSTER BLDG.

Children Enthusiastic Over Tag Day For Red Cross Next Saturday

Two big mass meetings were held on the playground of the Webster school one afternoon this week. The meetings were called at recess in the interest of Tag Day. The boys secured a chair for a platform and the orator of the occasion, Charles Bergstesser, grade eight, addressed the crowd. "Boys, we must have a bigger bunch on Tag Day. We need taggers, not slackers. Get busy, ask for a box and help Webster to the limit. The girls are trying to get ahead of us," he said. With a cheer the meeting ended and four secretaries began an active canvass for more taggers. On the playground Dorothy Long, grade seven, made an enthusiastic speech. "Now girls, you know that May is Tag Day. You know, too, that Webster ought to have more boxes. Webster has gone over the top in many other things. Webster must show up fine in this drive. Every girl here ask for a box! Go out early on Tag Day! Stay out all day on Tag Day! Get ahead of the boys! Make all the money you can for Junior Red Cross and Webster. Let us give three cheers for our start on Tag Day!" "The secretaries, girls and boys, canvassed the schools thoroughly and added a long list of names to their number."

BOROUGH WINS HONOR FLAG

Distriet Passes $400,000 Allotment; Expect to Reach Half Million Today

Patriotic Steelton has again supported the government in its drive for money to conduct the war by going "over the top" in the Third Liberty Loan drive. Although the allotment will be over-subscribed by a big margin, it is not likely that the quota will be doubly subscribed as was the case in the first and second loan campaigns. An honor flag was floated to the breeze at Front and Locust streets shortly before noon today by steel company employes. The flag was presented to this district by the Dauphin county committee this morning in recognition of the splendid work. No special ceremonies took place to mark the unfurling of the flag. With many solicitors yet to report, the amount subscribed at the close of yesterday's business was $441,810. Of this amount about $340,000 was subscribed by employes of the steel plant. Up to this time there are 6,552 bond holders, a large number of which are steel plant employes. Bank officials and committeemen this morning were hopeful of passing the $400,000 quota. The amount of this district which the campaign closes on Saturday evening. This district is made up of Steelton, Highspire, Enhaut, Oberlin, Bressler and part of Swatara township. Many solicitors in the district are yet to be heard from and these results are expected to run the total up.
