PROMISE OF 'HOME' COOKING LURES MEN BACK TO WORK

Laborers Who Deserted Posts in Middletown Government Plant Post Liberty Bonds as Evidence of Good Faith

"You should be ashamed of yourself to take money from Uncle Sam when his soldiers are fighting for you in France," said Casimer Gaeta, a Capitol Hill employe, to nine Italians in the court of Alderman Hilton, where last evening they had been taken from jail to answer charges of defrauding the government. "You should be doing all you can to help the United States," said Gaeta fiercely to his Latin compatriots. "This is one glorious country. Italians should be for the Stars and Stripes. You should pay the money back you took as railroad fare. You should be ashamed of yourselves to run away from working for Uncle Sam. Shame, shame," he shouted accusingly.

The Italians were part of the 17 workmen brought from Rochester, N. Y., to labor for the ordnance department at Middletown. They had been arrested yesterday for leaving their work with United States funds, and after a preliminary hearing had been taken to jail to await further examination. As they stood about in the alderman's court they looked the picture of despair and jabbered volubly among themselves at being haled into court. William J. Featherstone, commissioner of the bureau of fire and police at the ordnance camp, was the prosecutor in the case. It was made clear to the accused workmen through Gaeta, the interpreter, that unless they "came across" with the $202.05, paid by the government for their care, they would be taken before United States Commissioner Leroy J. Wolf, who would hold them until a Rochester man, who paid their fare with Uncle Sam's coin, could reach Harrisburg to testify against them, a matter of probably three weeks, during which time they would be compelled to remain in prison.

Call For Italian Cook

It developed that the men left their work because they were not furnished with food they liked. "No spaghetti, no macaroni, no Italiane dish to make us strong so we can work," they told the alderman, "and no Italian cook to prepare it," they complained through Gaeta. After they had thus justified their leaving camp and with loud protestations that they meant no disloyalty to the government, that their appetites only controlled their actions, the matter of raising the money to clear themselves confronted them.

Major William B. Gray over the telephone, told the alderman he did not wish to be severe with the men, but that he wanted them to understand they were engaged in serious business. They had taken United States money and had laid them out. States open not only to prosecution on the charge of defrauding the government but of conspiracy as well, on a pretext that they did not like the food furnished them. Major Gray, furthermore, said they would

SCIENTIFIC DOG POUND URGED UPON COUNTY

Humane Death of Unlicensed Animals Is Planned by S. P. C. A.

The promise of Commissioner Burnett to introduce in City Council some measure whereby cats may be muffed, scattered, declaimed or otherwise done away with so that they will not be a nuisance and destroy all the war gardens to-day called out a plea from the Harrisburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals upon the recent state dog law. Their attitude has the sanction of Mayor Keister who, though not personally attached to a pet dog, admits that he is a friend of cats, having two famous old tomnies who welcomed him home from the arduous labors of majority every day. The fact is therefore that although His Honor passed along the order for policemen to kill unlicensed dogs running loose he does not intend to make his policemen look foolish by enforcing it.

"No policeman is keen for brooding down a harmless dog in broad daylight," he said in discussing the dilemma. "One tried it and the whole neighborhood revolted. On the other hand, the police station is flooded with protests and complaints about dogs and it seems that some measure should immediately be taken to protect the public."

Need of Pound

Both Mayor Keister and Mrs. A. Carson Stamm, who is a zealous supporter of the local S. P. C. A., agree that the state law ordering policemen and constables to execute dogs on sight is illogical because the head for killings and for licenses. The rates are $1 for a male and $2 for a female; although they could have been adjusted to $2 and $4. As things are now Harrisburg has no dogcatcher and no dog pound. Both of these are essential to solving the problem and the question has been when will it be up to the money.

"Mr. Bell, our president, and other officers of the society took this up with the state authorities," related Mrs. Stamm to-day, "and we were referred to those of the county. The county solicitor told us that the commissioners could pay out no funds for which there is no specific act of the Legislature, and hence the county cannot help. The county receives all the revenue. Regarding this other officers of the society maintain that the act has a clause covering 'any animal which might provide what is wanted.'"

Urges Painless Death

The necessity of getting co-operation is emphasized by Mayor Keister and the S. P. C. A. The present situation is impossible. Unless accompanied by an owner a dog even with license tag has no right to run about. If equipped with license tag the policeman dare not shoot but he is directed, and this goes for a citizen, to lure the dog home, feed him and advise the newspapers for the owner. If no owner shows up he is out of pocket and has a dog on his hands that he does not want. His only means of repay then is to kill the animal and turn it in to the county, receiving $1 for that and another $1 for keep.

"I believe I can speak for our society," stated Mrs. Stamm to-day, "and I suggest that the county hire our society to look after this entire matter. With funds which they receive from licensing, we can put up a substantial dog pound, hire dogcatchers and conduct this thing in a scientific manner. There will be no mass-sacrificing of dogs in the streets, no lying about the streets, and the position is ready to be made and the society will not be the one blamed if some such project is not adopted very shortly."

Hot Water Each Morning

Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which, if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach. Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headache, biliousness, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexions should just try this for a week and notice results.
