John Cort's phenomenally successful musical comedy, "Flo-Flo," opens at the Orpheum Theatre at 7:30 p.m. to-morrow night. The play is a comedy of the "Flo-Flo" type, which has been a magnet for theatergoers for months past. A notable feature of the play is the fact that it is a comedy of the "Flo-Flo" type, which has been a magnet for theatergoers for months past.

Included in "Flo-Flo's" all-star cast are Louise Glauum, Hal Skelley, Harry First, Bert Gardner, Blanche Bellaire, Holland, and the "Flo-Flo" chorus. The play is a comedy of the "Flo-Flo" type, which has been a magnet for theatergoers for months past.

The Orpheum will have as its attraction next Friday and Saturday, with daily matinees, what is considered the most wonderful picture of the season to present war, "On the Isonzo," or "On the Firing Line With Italy." Over 700 feet of genuine war pictures, direct from the firing line, and taken by special permission of the Italian government, are included in this picture. The pictures will show the repulse of the Austrian and German troops after their invasion of Italy—most of the fighting being done on the "Isonzo river" and the surrounding snow-capped Alps.

WONDER SHOW IS A BIG SUCCESS

Spectacular Winter Garden Offering Presented at the Orpheum. "The Show of Wonders" Winter Garden's latest extravaganza, secured a big hit with the Orpheum audiences on Saturday, many encores being called for the numerous musical selections. Presented by one of the best companies appearing here this season, the big success from New York City is certainly worthy of leading honors in its class.

The offering is given in two acts, fifteen scenes and is replete with fun, song and dance; good comedians and an excellent chorus. The scenes are artistically costumed. Every one at some time or other has read of persons going to heaven in a hot air balloon. The offering is given in two acts, fifteen scenes and is replete with fun, song and dance; good comedians and an excellent chorus.

OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

The ever popular Edith Storey will be featured in "The Legion of Death" at the Colonial Theatre to-day and to-morrow. It is an absorbing drama and deals with the war in the trenches. Miss Storey is given good support in this picture. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Miss Storey will appear in "The Spirit of the Red Cross," a picture which will appear in her second series triumph, "Revelations," taken from the book, "The Rosebush of a Thousand Years."

Among the film luminaries now before the public, few have the following: Billie Burke, the Regent Theatre New Picture "magnetic" Paramount "New Narrative" at the Regent Theatre to-day and to-morrow in "Let's Get a Divorce," her latest Paramount vehicle. In this photo-comedy, Miss Burke has the role of a girl who has been living in a convent in Southern France.

France, who, to relieve the monotony of her convent life, indulges in numerous harmless flirtations. She meets and loves Henri de Prunelles, a writer, and becomes his wife. When Henri lapses into the humdrum existence of the ordinary man, her romantic disposition finds relief in a flirtation with Adhemar, an officer of the Forestry Service. Believing herself to be madly in love with him, she begs her husband to give her a divorce in order that she may become Adhemar's wife. This he apparently consents to do, with the aid of his sister, Yvonne, he plots to destroy her infatuation for Adhemar and win her more firmly for himself. This is accomplished in a series of dramatic and charming scenes.

"An Alien Enemy," at the Victoria to-day and to-morrow, is of especial interest because several years in which she does not portray the role of a simple, Miss Glauum has in this picture shown her her talents have been cramped by her contentment to seductress characterizations and the ordinary line which she abandoned then she must be counted among the greatest exponents in the field of dramatic, emotional interpretation. Miss Glauum has been appearing in
