

YANKEES DEFEAT RAID ON FRONT LINE TRENCHES

Hun Tricks Foiled; Roar of Heavy Artillery Continues

With the American Army in France, May 10—A large German patrol attempted to rush the American positions on the Picardy front during Wednesday night, but was driven off.

The enemy patrol parties were active during the night, and one German, pretending to be wounded, lay outside the wire entanglements before an American position beseeching help. He was acting as a screen for the others, who were armed with hand grenades.

The Germans, failing to entice the Americans from their trenches, attacked, but the Americans made it so hot for them that they fled in confusion. Their casualties are believed to have been comparatively heavy.

The roar of heavy artillery continues day and night in this sector.

APPRAISEMENT COMPLETE

Gratuitous appraisement of the government depot grounds at Middletown has been completed by the appraisal committee of the Harrisburg Real Estate Board, it was announced last evening. The results of the survey will be given at the meeting of the board next Monday evening, and it will then be sent to Washington.

CITY MUST PAY FOR ALL PROPERTY

$25,000 in addition to the other verdicts and view awards for property that Harrisburg must pay for the River Park improvement.

To Appeal Higher

City Solicitor John E. Fox announced the case will be appealed to the Supreme Court. While it will be too late to have it heard and disposed of at the session of the higher court in this city May 27, it is likely a motion will be presented, asking permission to present the case in the early fall or winter in Philadelphia.

Should the Dauphin courts be sustained it would mean that Harrisburg must pay approximately $97,000 for the properties involved, $73,000 for buildings and ground as of 1871, and $24,000 for additions since that time.

When the proceedings to take all the property on the west side of the street was started the viewers decided not to view any houses and any improvements after 1871 relying upon an act passed that year which they construed to mean that owners could not recover for buildings erected on any highway after that date. Exceptions to the viewers' report were taken from the award. Recently the viewers' report was either tried before a jury or verdicts by agreement were taken in which it was stipulated that a certain amount was to be allowed for the properties as they stood prior to 1871 and another amount for improvements made up to August, 1914, when Council passed the ordinance directing the taking of the property.

The appeal of Arlanda P. Dintaman, owner of 1108 to 1128 North Front street, inclusively, was the one on which Judge McCarrell made the ruling. At the time of the jury trials it was agreed decision on the applicability of the act of 1871 should be withheld until verdicts were entered.

Dintaman was awarded $14,500 for his properties as they stood in 1871, and $5,000 for improvements since that time. The court decision, if sustained, will mean that he will receive from the city $21,000.

Other property owners affected follow:

Frederick W. Giede, owner, 1114, $1,480 in 1871; $1,500 for improvements.

E. G. Slabach, 1130, $4,240 in 1871; $2,600 for improvements.

John Yings, 1132-1200, $7,393.48 in 1871; $3,200 for improvements.

Harry J. Berrier and Margaret C. Berrier, 1204-06-10, $9,371 and $5,750 in 1871; $2,900 and $4,500 for improvements.

George E. Spangler, 1220, $2,650 in 1871; $250 for improvements.

Fred W. Dinger, 1224, $2,600 in 1871; $450 for improvements.

Lewis Finrock, $2,000 in 1871; $1,500 for improvements.

Mary Flowers, $1,680 in 1871; $1,500 for improvements.

Total verdicts for land and property as it stood in 1871, $73,714.48; for improvements since that year, $24,000.

Judge McCarrell's Opinion

The act of 1871 under which the city contended it did not have to pay for improvements since that year provides that no compensation shall be made or allowed to any person or persons for houses or other buildings erected or built on any of the avenues, streets, lanes or alleys in the city, from and after the time the streets shall have been designated by commissioners.

Judge McCarrell first ruled that if the Legislature had intended to refer to existing streets, of which Front street was one, the language of the act would have shown it, the court implying that the law meant no compensation should be allowed for buildings erected in streets laid out after 1871. In part, on this point, Judge McCarrell says: "The act clearly relates only to such lands as are under the control of the commissioners for the purpose of locating and designating highways. This portion of the act does not refer in any way to Front street and the buildings in question here do not fall within the description of buildings for which payment is prohibited.

"This appears not only from the language contained in the first section of the act which directs that payment shall not be made for the value of buildings excepting only such buildings as are erected after streets have been designated in the future by the commissioners."

"Thus it appears that the payment of damages for lands and buildings by reason of the opening of Front street was clearly contemplated by the act. The location of Front street at the point in question (i. e., from Herr to Calder streets) was fixed, not by the commissioners named in the act, but by the very terms of the act itself, for this section declares that all lands and buildings now erected and rights existing before the recorder's line and the river Susquehanna shall be taken for said street."

and shall extend to the low water mark of the river."

"Buildings were already erected on this ground and there existence is recognized, for the first section declares that all lands and buildings now erected and rights existing before the recorder's line and the river Susquehanna shall be taken for said street."

Judge McCarrell then states if the plaintiff is not entitled to recover it would be apparently unjust as he would be compelled to surrender property worth $5,000. He also implies if the Legislature had intended to compensate owners a declaration to that effect could readily have been inserted in the act.

Continuing in his discussion of applying the proviso that no pay should be awarded for improvements since 1871 the court says: "The injustice of applying this proviso to the plaintiff in this case is peculiarly manifest. The city has taken all the property belonging to him at this point, and he has no opportunity for benefiting from other property because of the improvement."

"To allow the property of the plaintiff to be thus taken would seem to be a violation of the Constitution of Pennsylvania as also of the United States.

A number of Pennsylvania cases involving somewhat similar procedure cited by Judge McCarrell are discussed also to sustain the court's decision in the local action.
