Dr. and Mrs. S. Z. Shope Delegates to Convention

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, of 610 North Third street, have returned from Philadelphia where they attended the "Win the War For Permanent Peace" convention. Mrs. Harry Messersmith, National Society Daughters of 1812, having been elected to that position by the national society at its recent meeting in Washington, D. C. Dr. Shope was a delegate from the Harrisburg Rotary Club, the Medical Club of Harrisburg, the Alumni Association of Subquehanna University and the Pennsylvania Educational League. On Friday evening there were held allied war dinners at the Walton and Bellevue-Stratford Hotels with interchange of speakers between the two banquet rooms. These evening meetings were presided over by ex-President William Howard Taft and Alton B. Parker and the speakers of the evening included the British, French and Japanese ambassadors.

FOR WILLIAM BOYER

William H. Boyer, the "farmer baritone," who is at Camp Lee, Va., was pleasantly entertained by the Harrisburg Educational League at a class of Pine Street Presbyterian Sunday school, of which he is a member, before leaving for camp, the change of speakers between the two banquets rooms. These evening meetings were presided over by ex-President William Howard Taft and Alton B. Parker and the speakers of the evening included the British, French and Japanese ambassadors.

British Captain Tells Red Cross Workers Hunns Shame World Conscience

"The deeds of horror committed by the Germans are such as to make an honest man blush. They have shamed the conscience of the world and have made the angels shiver as they look upon it. The Germans will not put the game fair through. We are fighting to give the right to every human being to live and to live free. We must put our backs to the wall and fight this thing through. We must do it in God's name, for the sake of our women and children and the women and children of the world." Captain Cornelius of the British army, thus spoke to an audience of Red Cross workers who met in conference with Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, president of the Harrisburg chapter, in Stevens Memorial Methodist Church yesterday morning. Captain Cornelius gave a vivid half-hour address on "America and the Great War." Mrs. Gilbert and Miss Cameron brought messages from the national Red Cross organization.

ARRIVES SAFELY ON OTHER SIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Weaver Receive Word of Son's Safe Arrival

LIEUT. EDWIN F. WEAVER, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Weaver, of 1535 Hunter street, received word Saturday of the safe arrival of their son, Lieutenant Edwin F. Weaver, Jr., over seas. Lieut. Weaver is attached to the 319th Machine Gun Battalion.

He entered military service last August in the Officers Training Camp at Camp Gordon, December 15, from which place he was detailed for a short time for special duty in Mexico. About four weeks ago he was detached to Camp Upton, New York, in charge of the baggage of his battalion. From there he sailed aboard the May 1 for somewhere on the other side.

Stucker's Friends Have Knife Out For Hand-Picked McCormick Men

Blood is on the Democratic moon in this district over the Congressional nomination. Some time ago it looked as though the party would have no nominee for Congress and the county. The friends of Lebanon, Cumberland and Dauphin had a conference regarding the matter. As a result it was announced that Robert Stucker, a well-known lawyer of this city, would accept the nomination providing there was no opposition at the primary and that he would be given the organization support. Over 30 names were signed to his paper in the three counties, but almost at the last hour of the last day for filing nomination papers a petition was submitted with the name of H. H. Mercer, a Mechanicsburg lawyer.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Laverty Asks Support

Kindly give publicity to the following explanatory open letter. Some folks are looking askance at my independent candidacy for the Legislature and are asking me why I do not have the endorsement of the ratification committee. As all my friends know I have always used my franchise for the dry cause ever since I was twenty-one. Secondly, I was not consulted by letter or in any way as to my position on the liquor question by the committee or invited to any of its meetings, although they knew I was a dry candidate. Thirdly, W. A. Laverty, chairman of the Ninth ward for the committee, my father, was never notified of the meeting at which the dry vote was to be endorsed. This in spite of the fact that he and I worked up the Ninth ward for the committee and urged all unregistered men to enroll for the primaries. The committee did not give me a square and equal deal with the other dry men. Hence, I am running without their endorsement, though I would gladly have had it. In feeling the public pulse in my district, I find that three-fourths of the voters favor the dry cause, and I feel confident that my friends will rally to my support on Tuesday.

American Soldiers Live on High Moral Plane, Lertner From Front Tells

A stirring patriotic address by the Rev. Daniel A. Polling, of Boston, was a feature of a large patriotic rally held in the Technical High school auditorium yesterday afternoon. Dr. Polling declared that the American soldier in France to-day is on a higher moral plane than the average American citizen. The liquor interests received severe criticism at his hands.

Mayor Robert W. Speer Was a Pennsylvanian

There will be general regret throughout the Juniata Valley and wherever he is known over the death of Robert W. Speer, Mayor of Denver, and widely known throughout the country as authority on municipal government. His death resulted after a short illness from pneumonia which he contracted in New Denver, and who traveled with Mayor Speer. Mayor Speer was a native of Mead, Colo., and had many friends in this city. He had been Mayor three times, twice from 1904 to 1912 and then in 1916, being again elected mayor a charter which, it is said, gave him more power than any other American Mayor.

NEAR DEATH FROM POISON

Mrs. Susek, the 18-year-old woman who took poison at her parents' home near Summerville Saturday night, is still in a critical condition, and hospital authorities are unable to promise her recovery. Her name before her marriage was Dorothea Wolfley, and her attempt to take her life was made at the home of her parents.

One of Popular Employes of Pipe Bending Works

N. J. Stricker, a former employe of the Pipe Bending Works, was among the first party of drafted men leaving this city, the week of April 1. From recent letters he seems to be enjoying camp life and says he expects shortly to go overseas.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR BIG "DRY" PARADE

Mr. Sherk is a well-known builder residing in the Allison Hill district and Dr. Trullinger, who resides in the upper end of town, is prominent not only in medical circles but has been identified with many public movements. Both have many friends working for them. Sherk represented the K. K. K. in the Democratic side, in county, representative they will be nominated. Black has served one term in the Legislature and Dr. Hartman made a close run for coroner last fall. McCoy and Bortolomeo, in county, represent both the lower and the upper end districts and both have been making close canvasses of their districts. Their friends say they will win. They are running on both the Republican and Democratic tickets.

The ratification committee was busy in the churches yesterday and obtained many recruits to the temperance tickets as well as speeding up preparations for the parade which will move at 8.15 to-night. O. P. Beckley, chairman in charge, presides a great outpouring of men. Captain E. Laubenstein will be chief marshal and John W. Phillips, of Grace Methodist choir, will lead the singing from the balcony of the Duphin building, Market Square. Mr. Beckley repeated his warning to-day against the carrying of governorship banners or standards in the parade to-night. The aids are instructed to remove any that chance to appear. Captain Laubenstein has issued the following instructions regarding the parade:

FORMATON

Chief Marshal, Captain E. Laubenstein, Chief of Staff, J. E. Dure, First Division—J. Frank Barley, Commander. All organizations located south of Market street will assemble on South Front, right resting on Market. Second Division—O. G. Brennehan, Commander. All organizations from the Hill Districts will assemble on Chestnut street, right resting on Front. Third Division—Norman Ream, Commander. All organizations from Steelton, Oberlin, Highspire and Middletown, form on South second, right resting on Chestnut. Fourth Division—Don Monahan, Commander. All organizations located north of Market street will assemble on North Front, right resting on Walnut. Cross river organizations will form on Walnut street, right resting on Front.

All men not connected with any organization will assemble on Sixth street, right resting on Second and will fall in on the left of the Fourth Division. All organizations be in line at 7:45 P. M. The parade will move promptly at 8:15, marching will be in columns of four un- less otherwise ordered at time of formation. All division commanders and aids are requested to wear a white ribbon 2-1/2 inches wide, 12 inches long, to distinguish them. Aids should report to Chief Marshal Laubenstein not later than 7 o'clock for instructions, corner Front and Market streets.

COURT RULING ON DIVORCE ACTIONS

Refuses Decrees Until Affidavits of Disinterested Parties Are Filed

President Judge Ramsey today refused to sign decrees in divorce in three actions in which wives made affidavits that their husbands were not in military service, the court deciding the separation papers would not be given until affidavits to that effect were made by disinterested parties. A new Federal act requires such an affidavit in a divorce or similar court action. Judge Kunkel said to accept the sworn statements of wives who were proceeding against husbands would not meet the requirements of the act.

Wants Maintenance Increased

A petition to have the amount paid her for maintenance increased was presented by Ella S. Hawkins, wife of John H. Hawkins. Judge Kunkel also refused to appoint a father as guardian of an estate coming to three children from a father who had died. The act of 1917 prohibiting the naming of a mother or father as guardian in such cases.

Letters on Estate

Letters of administration on the estate of Morris Wagner, late of Hummelstown, were issued to-day by Register Danner to the widow, Rosa E. Wagner. Want Public Road.—Residents in the vicinity of Progress, Susquehanna township, to-day asked for the appointment of viewers to report on the necessity of a public road connecting the village with the Jonestown Road. Viewers appointed were Paul G. Smith, E. Clark Cowden and Oliver C. Bishop. They will report September 23.

Perry County Has Legislative Battle

New Bloomfield, Pa., May 20.—The fight for the Republican nomination for member of Assembly is the only fight of importance in the Perry county primaries of tomorrow. Here Clark M. Bower, of Blain, and William C. Lebo, of New Bloomfield, are contesting.

Let Me Make Your First Pair of Glasses

If you have never worn glasses, but realize that your eyes are in a condition to require them, I shall appreciate the privilege of making the first pair for you, very much. If you cannot come to me, allow me to suggest that you consult some other optometrist who is qualified to make a reliable diagnosis. It is highly important that your first pair of glasses should be absolutely correct. Do not under any circumstances try to fit yourself with "store" glasses or trust to incompetent. The first pair of glasses will prove wonderfully beneficial—or very harmful. It all depends on the kind of glasses—and the kind of glasses depend on the skill and knowledge of the optometrist.
